Worth Knowing.

A splendid way of washing Chinese crepe is to make a strong lather of boiling water and white soap; when it is nearly cold, wash the crepe quickly and rinse in a strong solution of salt and water. Hang to dry in the open air.

Silver that has been stained with egg is quickly cleaned by rubbing with damp salt or with a cloth dampened with ammonia.

It is well to wash an embroidered pongiee in gasoline. While the water might not injure the pongiee, it might injure the embroidery.

If a lump of loaf sugar is rubbed back and forth over the outside of a lemon, sufficient oil will be extracted to give a delicious flavor to a custard or pudding.

With tomatoes becoming more plentiful, use a tomato sauce with boiled macaroni. After boiling the macaroni, drain and then serve with plenty of tomato sauce.—Newark News

Peevish Children Suffer With Worms

Don't be angry with your child because he or she is continually irritable. In ninety nine out of one hundred cases you will find that the trouble is worms.

Among the common symptoms of the presence of round worms are nervousness—which often leads to epileptic attacks—dizziness, vertigo, capricious appetite, restless sleep, itching of the eyes and nose, nausea and often hysteria. Round worms are several inches in length and infest the stomach. Occasionally several hundred are found in a single person. Thread worms are smaller, often not longer than a quarter of an inch. The symptoms denoting their presence are about the same, but in this case the child has no appetite.

Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge is unsurpassed in removing worms. Not only will it destroy them, but its tonic effects will restore the stomach to healthy activity. As Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge seldom purges, the indications of its beneficial effects will be the improved condition of the person using it.

Millions of parents have praised this medicine for more than eighty years. Insist upon Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge, and accept no other. Sold by druggists everywhere. Dr. D. Jayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa.

Sandals and Pencil Shoes.

A fashionable afternoon shoe which comes into vogue by an introduction from Paris is the modern Grecian sandal, with ribbons crossed, and wound around the ankle. It is not going to be a difficult undertaking for any woman to adopt this style, for all she requires is a pair of black patent leather pumps with Louis XV heels and black moire or grosgrain ribbon about half an inch wide. If she desires to wear this effect with a white lingerie frock she may substitute colored ribbons matching one of the color notes in the costume. The ribbon is sewed to either side of the front of the pump and wound around the ankle. It may be tied in a perky little bow or drawn through slides. It is possible to buy these slides in this country in several odd designs. Some are of platinum set with rhinestones and others of gilt with colored stones, says the New York Tribune.

Another method of getting the same effect is to buy a pair of Oxford ties with lacets set very far apart and the tongue taken out. The ribbon is then crossed in the same way that the shoe would ordinarily be laced, but instead of tying a small bow the ribbons are wound around the ankle and tied higher up. The ornaments or slides can be used with these shoes quite as successfully as with the pumps, and two or three pairs are often used at one time.

The most popular evening slippers are those of satin, of course, matching the gown and the stockings. A little newer, however, are the slippers of metallic brocade with large buckles of brilliant or colored stones harmonizing with the tints shot through the brocade.

The vogue for buckles to contrast with the shoe, instead of harmonizing with it, has brought into existence the gray metal buckles set with colored stones or baroque pearls, to be worn with black pumps, and the gilt buckles, also with colored stones, to trim the colored pumps. One of the most practical new buckles is offered as a substitute for the cut steel buckle, which will rust despite the care that may be taken of it, and which for this reason is very undesirable for the seashore or any damp place. This new buckle is made of imitation shell and is completely covered with sunken rhinestones closely surrounded by slightly projecting silver points like tiny nail heads. These buckles are very smart on tan shoes, which, by the way, are enjoying a revival of favor this season. Still a third style of buckle along the same lines of construction shows a combination of Bulgarian stones with points in either silver or gold. The color scheme of this buckle makes it adaptable for a shoe in any color of leather.

The Sunday School Discussed.

CAMDEN, N. J., July 29.—"The Sunday School Triangle," was the subject of the principal address at today's sessions of the annual Camden Camp. E. Ross Farrar of Wilmington was the chief speaker. Dr. C. H. Woolston, of Philadelphia, and Rev. T. F. Beauchamp were speakers at the afternoon sessions. Sunday school teachers from seven states attended this morning's "Round Table Talks" at which the best methods of teaching were discussed.

MANY TRIBES TO SEND MEMBERS TO THE NATIONAL INDIAN CONGRESS AT THE SPOKANE FAIR.

SPOKANE, once the meeting place of all the Indian tribes of the Inland Empire in their annual tribunals, is again to be the Mecca of the red men of the entire Northwest and practically the entire country when the First National Indian Congress will be held on the Spokane Interstate Fair Grounds during the week of Sept. 15. Never before has the white man of the present generation had as good an opportunity to see just how much the aborigine has progressed. The Interstate Fair management is going to show you how this development took place and further give the Indians a chance to see and enjoy the Interstate Fair.

No expense has been spared by the Fair management in getting the tribes to Spokane. That it will be a most representative gathering of Indians is shown by the fact that the Little Spokanes, the Nez Percés, the Yakimas, the Blackfeet, the Flatheads, the Kallispis, the Crees, the Colvilles, the Snakes, the Sioux and the Crows are all going to send large delegations to the Fair.

It will be a real Indian show. The Indians will be encamped at the Fair Grounds throughout the week, brave and squaw bringing their own tepee and camping utensils. During the day the Indians will engage in the sports of their tribes and will show the primitive life of the early aborigines, portraying their weird ceremonials and dances and graphically reproducing all the old life of the Indian. The Night Show will also be in charge of the Indians, who will put on each night a realistic and intensely thrilling reproduction of General Custer's last fight in the center field, with the Indians victorious and celebrating their victory with a gorgeous ceremonial dance. With over half a thousand Indians in the Fair Grounds at all times, dressed in the full regalia of their tribes and riding their own ponies, there will be something doing every minute to interest visitors.

One of the Indian maidens, who is a famous rider, has already entered four of her ponies in the regular relay race given at the Fair Grounds each day, and she hopes to win the $1,000 purse offered. Other Indians of different tribes are at work preparing teams for the athletic events at the Fair, and many of their stunts will be put on before the Grand Stand.

The First National Indian Congress has the approval and indorsement of the United States Department of Indian Affairs, the Indian Affairs Committees of the United States House and Senate and the National Society of American Indians. The Fair Association is bringing the Indians to Spokane not only for your amusement, but for their education, and, aside from showing the general public the dances and customs of years gone by, the Indians will also show what advancement they have made in an agricultural and industrial way by making a number of interesting exhibits.

PENDLETON AND YAKIMA BOTH HIT HARD IN GAMES HERE LAST WEEK

Both the Pendleton and Yakima teams did some heavy hitting last week, the Buckaroos hitting .276 as a team and the Braves .278. Dean, who joined the local club during the week and played in three of the five games, was the leading stickler, his average being .538. Osborne, who played in the outfield during three games, was a close second with an even .500. Varian kept up his good club work by hitting .333 and Captain Lodell was but a few points behind. Berger, who was in four games, qualified for the 300 club.

Phil Nadeau was the leading stickler of the Yakima bunch, clouting the sphere for .381. Taylor, Stokke and Harrod broke into the .300 class, while several others were only a few points behind. The following are the averages of the two clubs:

BUCKAROOS AND BEARS TO CLASH

Pendleton Leaves This Morning for Walla Walla—Karl King Given His Release.

With fewer players than at any time this year, the Pendleton team left this morning at 7 o'clock for Walla Walla to meet the Bears in six games. Yesterday Karl King, catcher, infielder and general utility man, was given his release. He was a high priced man and had not been going very well since joining the Pendleton team. Peterson will be brought in from the outfield to cover the third bag and Osborne will probably be used pretty frequently in the outfield. The team is sadly in need of another pitcher to take Jamieson's place and efforts are being made to secure one as soon as possible. If another winning pitcher is signed, Osborne will probably quit active slab duty and do outfield duty and relief twirling. He is strong enough to pitch two games a week and as an outfielder he performs very creditably. He seems to be able to hit much better, too, when playing in the out gardens. Walla Walla will be minus Kelly this week as he joins Seattle at Spokane today and will probably work up there tomorrow. If he makes good he will be retained and the Bear management will secure a little piece of money for him.

ted or subway lines of the city fathers and the traction companies. The suburbanites especially are taking an active interest in the plans to give St. Louis adequate transportation facilities. At the present time a passenger must "anti a nickel" every little while if he rides any distance on St. Louis street cars, and to go to East St. Louis there are bridge tolls to pay. The present plan is to have a combination subway and elevated from down town to the west end.
