AMUSEMENTS

Orpheum.
Extra! Extra! For Friday's change. Two reel Eclipse. "The Statue of Fright," an intensely gripping and powerful film.
The Statue of Fright. Eclipse. A man who has trifled with the love of a girl, buys a statue which her father has wrought and for which she has posed. The sculptor learns the purchaser's identity and sees his chance for revenge. Instead of the statue he brings the dead body of his daughter to the reception at which the statue was to be unveiled. Intense, gripping and powerful is this Eclipse feature in two reels.
A Fight to a Finish. Kalem. This thrilling story deals with a western girl who purchases a ranch, only to find that her neighbor has constructed a dam which prevents her from securing proper irrigation. She determines to fight him and under cover of darkness sends armed men to destroy the dam. Johnson's men try to drive them away but are unsuccessful. A tragedy is averted by a woman's wit and the arrival of Johnson's son from college who is in love with Grace.

SOCIETY GIVES MOTHER GOOSE DANCE
NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 1.—Dressed as Jack and Jill, Jack the Giant Killer, Little Red Riding Hood, Bluebeard and his wife and Old Mother Hubbard, members of Newport's ultra exclusive society circles this evening will attend a dance given by Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish at her beautiful summer home, the Crossways. Five thousand dollars will be spent in favors for the dancers and nearly that much again will be spent in floral decorations.

The Nolsy Suitors. Biograph. They came to conquer the heart of Bella Donna with music. To rid herself of their efforts to entertain, she sought her American friends. Things were finally settled by a boxing duel.
Sea Dog's Love. Biograph. Slivers went ashore to his love but only to be rejected because she wanted a brave man. His make believe burglar didn't work and he fled to the ship—enough excitement ashore.

DOMESTIC TROUBLE LEADS TO RUMORS OF MURDER
BAKER, Ore., Aug. 1.—Stories of a shooting and attempted murder at Radium Springs which were circulated here when simmered down to the facts seem to have resulted from the domestic troubles of a man and wife living there.
It seems as near as can be learned that for some cause or other shots were fired late in the evening, but that they were fired from a window for the purpose of frightening some of the people involved in the affair. On complaint of the husband the woman in the case was arrested by Sheriff Rand and is now being held.

Pastime.
The Pastime offers Friday a two part Essanay photoplay, "A Brother's Loyalty." Here's a red blooded drama that grips the heart and holds the interest at fever heat. It tells the story of fraternal constancy, devotion and self sacrifice that quivers with human appeal from the first flash of the projector to the last stirring scene of the play. Its powerful portrayal of character and its masterly presentation of scenes of human emotions with an eloquence of appeal that reads the very soul.
"A Brother's Loyalty." Essanay. Featuring Francis X. Bushman. The play opens with a happy scene in the home of Hal, the erring brother. Through the persuasions of a friend Hal begins to frequent a questionable pool room. His brother Paul, warns him against his evil associations, but Hal disregards Paul's counsel. He soon begins to play for money. He gets into a game with a man who, unknown to him, is a notorious counterfeiter. Hal is handed a couple of crisp, new bills. One of these he unwittingly passes on a local merchant. A detective is on his trail. Hal is warned by a friend and goes to his brother Paul for counsel. Paul persuades Hal to let him (Paul) take his (Hal's) place. Accordingly the brothers (who are twins) exchange vestures. Hal donning Paul's clerical raiment and Paul assuming his brother's layman attire. Paul is arrested and sent to prison. Hal attempts to carry on his brother's work. In the course of his itinerant preaching, he strikes upon a clue that leads to the discovery and capture of the counterfeiters. In the gunplay that takes place between police and counterfeiters, one is fatally wounded. Hal persuades him to confess. Paul is now pardoned and resumes his missionary work. "A Brother's Loyalty" is a real power in didactic picture drama—a heart gripping, soul stirring drama.

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 1.—The body of an unidentified man, a bullet wound in his heart, was found in an empty box car in the railroad yards. He was well dressed. The fact that his pockets were ripped open causes the belief he was slain in the street and thrown into the car.
Suffered Eczema Fifty Years — Now Well.
Seems a long time to endure the awful burning, itching, smarting, skin-disease known as "tetter"—another name for Eczema. Seems good to realize, also, that Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment has proven a perfect cure.
Mrs. D. L. Kenney writes: "I cannot sufficiently express my thanks to you for your Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment. It has cured my tetter, which has troubled me for over fifty years. All druggists, or by mail, 50c. Koepfens.—Adv.

"The Enemy's Baby." Biograph.
"The Waiter's Strategy." Lubin. A delightful comedy.

Program for Friday and Saturday.
"The Witch." (3 reels) Eclair. A story of witchcraft days in the Massachusetts colony. In order to secure a correct setting for this feature the Eclair company built an entire village. The costumes are in keeping with early Puritan days, and the atmosphere of superstition and bigotry is well suggested. The story is consistent and strongly presented, depicting the days of witchcraft with great fidelity. The popular Eclair players do fine work.
"The Veiled Lady." Crystal. To cure Chester of flirting, Pearl arranges an appointment for him with a Negress. Chester beats a hasty retreat after discovering the color of his "mash."
"Our Parents-in-law." Crystal. A laughable little comedy-drama.

POWER COMPANY IS IN COURT
Right of Government to Control Sites and Water Rights to Be Fought Out.
DENVER, Colo., Aug. 1.—The right of the government to control power sites and water rights, and to force individuals and corporations to bow to its will in the matter of taking out permits and paying fees for the use of government lands, will be fought out in a case which began in the United States district court here today. The government is trying to force the Central Colorado Power company to take out permits from the forestry service before it uses the forest lands. It is alleged that Colorado is rapidly drifting into "the arms of the power octopus" and that the state, through its law officers, is unwittingly aiding and abetting the great eastern power concerns by intervening in the case and asking to be heard against the government.
The entire issue of the government and state's rights will be involved before the case is finished and if the government is successful it is understood that similar court proceedings will be immediately instituted in a half dozen other western states. The government contends that it is merely trying to prevent a monopoly of the state and the individuals and that it is trying to prevent a monopoly of natural resources from which the state of Colorado should receive a huge annual income. The state has

Body of Murdered Man IS FOUND IN BOXCAR
MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 1.—The body of an unidentified man, a bullet wound in his heart, was found in an empty box car in the railroad yards. He was well dressed. The fact that his pockets were ripped open causes the belief he was slain in the street and thrown into the car.
PFEIFFER CHEMICAL CO.
St. Louis, Mo. Philadelphia, Pa.

Predict Strike Near End.
CALUMET, Mich., Aug. 1.—The prediction that the strike of copper miners here will be broken within a week was made by the mine owners, who assert that 800 men already are at work.

GOODWOOD CUP IS WON BY CATMINT
LONDON, Aug. 1.—With Jockey Danny Maher up, Catmint, owned by L. Brassey, won the Goodwood cup at Sussex. Alepho was second and Lance Chest, third. There were six starters. The cup is valued at $12,500. The distance run was two and a half miles.

EASY TO GET RELIEF FROM INDIGESTION
Your stomach should digest the food you eat, without the aid of any artificial digestives. If it won't do that, then you are continually subject to dyspepsia, indigestion, heartburn, headaches and constipation.
Instead of taking digestive medicines, take steps to get your stomach and intestines again in a healthy, natural condition. Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge will do this for you if you will take it regularly. If it is not a digester of foods, but it will restore your stomach and intestines so that they will attend to their natural functions, digesting what you eat and giving strength to the body.
For more than eighty years thousands of men and women who had suffered the pains caused by dyspepsia and indigestion have been praising this Tonic as the only remedy which brought them permanent relief. As the Tonic acts directly upon the stomach and intestines, it is a natural appetizer and strength builder.
Many forms of supposed indigestion are the result of intestinal parasites, for which Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge is unpassed. Insist upon Jayne's; accept no other. Sold by druggists everywhere. Dr. D. Jayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa.

WOMAN AND HER VARIED INTERESTS
A Good Scheme.
Several young mothers who do not keep maids and have several small children are following a novel plan of entertainment for the children and relief for themselves. One day each week the mothers in turn take all the children to entertain for the afternoon, which leaves the other mothers for that afternoon free for social duties, matinee, shopping or any other pleasure or duty.
Tasty Summer Recipes.
Blackberry Sauce.—This sauce is excellent to serve with game, roast or cold meats. Put one and a half pints of large, juicy berries in an enameled lined saucepan with the pulp and the strained juice of a lemon, from one to two tablespoonfuls of pulverized sugar and four tablespoonfuls of good stock or gravy. Stir over the fire for six or eight minutes, season with salt, cayenne and, if liked, a dust of spice. If necessary add a little extra sugar and serve, strained or not, according to taste, a slight thickening of cornstarch also being optional.
Crab Salad.—Take the meat of two or three good sized hard shelled crabs, cut them into small pieces and put them in a saucepan and mix with about one-third its quantity of shredded endive. Season with salt, pepper, two tablespoonfuls of olive oil, the same of vinegar and a dessertspoonful of finely chopped parsley. Decorate with slices of hard boiled egg, capers and stoned olives and, if liked, a few slices of cucumber. Canned crab meat may be used for the salad.
