TIMELY HITS WIN FOR BOISE

BOISE, Ida., Aug. 13.—Though McIvor passed eight and hit three batsmen, but one of these gifts figured in the count yesterday. Boise won 7 to 3 by opportune hitting.

Triples by Kennedy and Altermatt and Brown's error in the second counted two. A pass, a stolen base and Altermatt's single added another in the seventh, while singles by Winkler, Reams, Blauser, Clark and Altermatt, aided by Lundstrom's error and Beck's bad throw in the eighth, counted the remaining four.

With that lead Bonner eased up and let the Bears, thus far runless, score three times on three hits and a pass.

Bonner fanned ten and passed three; McIvor whiffed six.

Altermatt's hitting and a catch by Friene when he pulled Harmon's hit off the fence with one hand were the features of the game.

The score: R. H. E.

Boise 7 8 1

Johnson Fights Palzar at Marseilles. PORIS, Aug. 13.—Because Jack Johnson has been making himself objectionable in the Paris cafes, revulsion of feeling has caused the managers of the Palzar-Johnson fight to stage it at Marseilles instead of here as was formerly planned. Fight promoters fear Johnson's reputation would seriously hurt the game here since several Paris newspapers have taken up the cudgel against Paris opening its arms to the big black who had to flee the United States on white slavery charges.

DUNNE INTERFERES WITH EVANS' PLAN

Dudley Evans, local athletic promoter, will either have to abandon his plan to stage a northwest amateur boxing and wrestling tournament during the Round-up or give up his intention to put on a bout between Larry Madden and some other heavy weight pugilist. That is the decree of T. Morris Dunne of the P. N. A. The following story in the Portland Telegram of yesterday explains the situation:

"I see by reports that Dudley Evans, of the Pendleton Athletic club, seems to be figuring on putting on Larry Madden there in a bout during the Round-up week," said T. Morris Dunne secretary of the registration committee of the P. N. A., this morning.

"But Larry Madden is a nice fellow, and so is Dudley Evans, but there will either be one kind of an exhibition or the other at Pendleton, as far as the P. N. A. is concerned.

"Evans applied and received sanction for a permit to hold a two-night amateur smoker there at that time. All well and good, and Multnomah would probably have sent some representatives to the event, as it did last year.

"But Larry Madden has turned professional through his action in boxing with Arthur Pelkey when he appeared here, and any other man who would go against him would have to be classed likewise.

"If the Pendleton Athletic club wants to put on professional bouts, all well and good. Evans is committing no crime and has a perfect right to do so. But he can't pull one night of professional bouts and two of amateurs, mixing them up in that manner.

"While the sanction has already been granted, it can easily and will be revoked in this case, if Madden is secured to appear there in amateur bouts."

MARTINI WINS GAME FOR SEATTLE WITH HOMERUN

Martini, late of the Walla Walla outfield and now playing with the Seattle team of the Northwestern league, won yesterday's game for Dugdale by poling the ball over the fence in the last half of the ninth inning. Seattle had led up until the eighth when Portland tied it up, one to one. Martini came to bat with a man on third in the last of the ninth and lifted the pellet over the fence. However, he gets credit for only a single as the game automatically stopped when the man on third reached home.

Hot Oil Scalds Fireman Niga. HOOD RIVER, Ore., Aug. 12.—Fireman Albert Niga, who has been working on the switch engine for the O. W. R. & N., in the Hood River yards, narrowly escaped being burned to death when the oil lubricator on the engine exploded and threw hot oil over his body. Mr. Niga was immediately removed to the Hood River hospital. His face is badly scalded and it is thought he may lose his eyesight.

Regeneration—there is not so much in the ordinary vacation as there is in a single bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which refreshes the tired blood, sharpens the dulled appetite, restores the lost courage. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla this summer.—Adv.

NON-MILITANTS INVADE LONDON

LONDON, Aug. 13. — Within the last few weeks an army of women opposed to the militant methods of the suffragists has quietly invaded this city. These women are seeking equal suffrage but are trying to win it on a different method of procedure than the militant. The women arrived in London from various cities and villages in the country, some riding on horseback, and were received in the city without any hostile demonstration.

WOODCRAFT VOTES INSURGENTS DOWN

PORTLAND, Aug. 13.—On votes, regarded by the delegates to the Women of Woodcraft convention as tests of the strength of the insurgent faction which is opposing the present administration, the insurgents yesterday were apparently overwhelmed. Adoption of measures advocated by the administration and re-election of "regulars" for another four years was confidently predicted last night.

The real test of the power wielded by the insurgents, however, will come this morning. The proposed centralization of authority in a smaller executive committee, and the proviso that its members shall live within 300 miles of Portland is to come before the convention for passage or rejection.

Centralization Measure Opposed. It was this centralization measure on which the opposition of the insurgent faction in the convention was centered. Insurgents declared it would mean virtually that supreme authority over the order for the next four years would be vested in Mrs. C. C. Van Orsdall, the grand guardian. The charge was made indirectly that it would result in the upbuilding of a machine, which would make it difficult to unseat the present officers.

Some lively debating followed the reporting of this measure to the convention yesterday by the committee on laws, in whose hands it has been reposing for several days. The convention adjourned after 5 o'clock it was with the understanding that it was to be the first thing on the program at this morning's session.

Meanwhile which appeared to show where the strength lay. The administration forces will enter today's conflict confident of success. If they are able to control sufficient votes to win, the re-election of Mrs. Van Orsdall as grand guardian, J. L. Wright as grand clerk, and Mrs. Bertha M. Leach as grand banker is regarded as certain.

Insurgents Would Move Offices. Should the present officers be retired and new ones elected from another state the headquarters of the order, which embraces nine states would be removed from Portland and taken elsewhere. This fact will carry much weight in the election.

How much longer the convention will remain in session could not be guessed by the delegates last night. Had it not been for the opposition to the administration policies, which developed last week, the convention would have adjourned Saturday night. Now, it is said, with today's expected fight disposed of, matters before the convention can probably be wound up by Wednesday night.

Hay is in demand, bringing better prices than last year. Hops are reported in excellent condition. From present conditions, the yield will be good. Picking may commence here in about three weeks while yards in the south part of the county will start in about two weeks.

Indians Will Be Studied. PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 13.—To study the Indians on different reservations in the United States and ascertain their condition Dr. Joseph Kossuth Dixon will be in Oregon this month. Dr. Dixon's tour is made by authority of the interior department and he is accompanied on his private car Sismet, according to messages received yesterday, by John M. Scott.

Gold Reference Offered

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 13.—We must see your references," said Cashier Durham of the Merchants National bank, when John M. Fenn, a young mining man from the Galice district in Josephine county, asked the bank to honor his personal check on a bank in Houston, Texas, his home town.

"Here they are," said young Fenn, making a suspicious reach toward his right hip pocket. He produced a small bottle, containing about $600 in coarse placer gold, and handed it through the window to the cashier.

"It is the same kind of a reference that this bank has," he said. His check was cashed without further question.

Woman Lost in Woods

HEPPNER, Ore., Aug. 13.—Mrs. John Piper, a prominent farmer's wife of the Lexington district, who with the rest of the family was in the mountains on a vacation last week wandered away from the others in the party and spent a good part of the night in the woods before she was found. Her health is not good and grave fears are felt over her being able to survive the shock resulting from the exposure. She was brought to the hospital at this place as soon as found.

rescues of about six families living in the Scott and Owl lodging houses, at Commercial and Ferry streets, were made early this morning by patrons of the Marion Hotel, directly across the street and citizens, while fire was destroying the two lodging houses.

Seeing the flames burst out, the people in the Marion Hotel rushed to the rescue of the inmates of the burning buildings with ladders, carrying many women and children to safety before the fire department arrived at the scene.

WHY THE ENGLISH KEEP THEIR WONDERFUL COMPLEXIONS WITH WHITBREAD

The great doctors of the world will tell you that your blood must be in good condition to give that rosy cheek and that bright eye that every one admires. For over 100 years the great doctors in England have recommended for sleeplessness, anaemia, nursing mothers and those in a run-down condition the famous Whitbread English Ale or Whitbread Renowned Stout (Malted Extract), because they are made from the finest barley, malt and hops, and being matured in the bottles, contain no artificial gas, making it very easy to digest. Whitbread is absolutely unlike all other English Ales or Stouts. It aids the weakest digestion and makes rich blood. A glass of either the Whitbread

Ale or Whitbread Stout (it depends on the taste, which one prefers) with your supper and again at bed time gives that peaceful sleep. It has brought comfort to thousands of ailing women throughout Europe. The most temperate people keep Whitbread Ale or Stout in their homes, because it is not only a delicious beverage but a wonderful tonic and blood-giver. Doctors, clergymen and professional men drink it to build up their systems and keep them in perfect condition. Do not accept any other English Ale or Stout as a substitute for the famous Whitbread because Whitbread Ale or Whitbread Stout are unlike all others. For sale locally by.
