Building Trades in Pittsburg May Be Tied Up As Result of Labor

Trouble,
PITTSBURG, Aug. 14.—An acute situation in buildings trade developed when a strike of laborers tied up work on three large business build ings. They were joined by other workmen and early in the evening the demands of the men were met by the announcement that the master builders would lock out all union men and suspend operations on structures val-

The laborers who were working on

The demand was refused and the hoisting engineers joined them early in the afternoon Before nightfall many other branches of the building trades were affected the strike spreading to other buildings.

If the lockout is declared an army of skilled workmen variously estimated at from 30,000 to 40,000 will be thrown out of work.
