

AMUSEMENTS

The Orpheum.

For Tuesday's change, a splendid Vitagraph featuring Edwin August and Mary Charleston.

The Spell. Vitagraph. Held in the grasp of a hypnotic spell, a young girl is induced to abandon her home and lover and follow a "medicine show" across the country. Her lover, a young doctor, when he discovers where she has mysteriously disappeared to, goes after her and rescues her from the unprincipled scoundrel who lured her away. By the ready wiles of his will, he is able to catch the blackguard in the toils of his own net and saves the girl he loves from a life of hopeless misery.

A Woman's Way. Pathe. A young broker loses his fortune in speculation and goes west to build up another. His wife remains with her parents and during his absence divorces him. An odd complication arises when the westerner returns and finds his wife the bride of another, but the puzzle is solved in a woman's way.

AN INTERESTING FACT

How $10,000,000 Has Been Spent BY WHITBREAD IN ENGLAND

The famous house of Whitbread was established in England in 1742—to make a particular brand of English Ale and Stout from the finest barley, malt and hops to be obtained. The greatest English doctors recommended this particular Ale and Stout for mothers, invalids and those in a run-down condition, because the famous Whitbread matured themselves in bottles only, this Ale or their Stout (or Malted Extract), which does not contain any artificial gas and is therefore most easily digested. It has given comfort to thousands of women. The most temperate people drink Whitbread Ale because it is not only a delicious beverage but a wonderful blood giver and tonic. Doctors, professional men and clergymen consider Whitbread to build up their systems and to nervous breakdown due to overwork. So great has been the growth of this famous house that it is now a household word in Great Britain and forty factories have been built by Whitbread in Europe to bottle their own English Ale or English Stout to meet the present demand. The Whitbread Stout contains more hops than Whitbread Ale, and is consumed largely by those in a run-down and nervous condition. A glass of either the Ale or Stout with your meals and at night time will give you that restful sleep. A trial from your local dealer will convince you of the wonderful merits of Whitbread, but do not accept any substitute as Whitbread Ale or Stout are entirely different from all other English Ales or Stouts, being matured only in the bottles and sent direct from England to America.

ST. JAMES IMPORTING COMPANY 278 West Broadway, New York City.

The Bells. Edison. Lucy leads a wretched life as the wife of a crabbed old bully, but there is another who loves her. A fire in the church shows the cowardice of her husband and the bravery of her lover, who risks his life in a futile attempt to save her husband.

Those Little Flowers. Bio. Quite harmless in themselves, but when Mrs. Saunders saw her faithless lord buy them she was for a divorce right away. In her pursuit of charity she found them and Mr. Saunders becomes a dear kind husband again. Mister Spriggs Buys a Dog." Bio A screaming comedy.

Pastime. "When Love Forgives." Biograph. A fine melodramatic plot that is powerfully convincing. It shows how a girl finds that her lover is about to commit a crime and how she saves him from his weaker nature. Then she forgives him. It is inspiring and is undeniably well acted. There is no drag in it either, and the photography is above par.

"Count Barber." Vitagraph. Featuring Norma Talmadge, Florence Radloff, and Charles Eldridge. Miss Ophelia, having inherited a million dollars and given up her boarding house, goes to the city bent on having a good time and if possible securing a husband. She finds a gay bird. He pays to her also to her maid Belinda and makes a bungie of it. They go to his tonorial parlor, massage his face, pull his hair and leave him to the mercy of his sister who had planned to get the million.

"His Greatest Victory." Edison. Featuring Benjamin F. Wilson and Gertrude McCoy. Lieutenant Blake, wounded in battle, loses his memory and his young bride believes herself a widow. Crane, his chum, wins the girl, only to recognize Blake among the enlisted men. With magnificent self-sacrifice he succeeds in restoring Blake's memory and reunites husband and wife.

"A Study of Bird Life." Pathology. Some very interesting pictures of birds taken in their haunts.

"The Monument." Biograph Here is a picture with a touch of sentiment that "gets over" and makes it worth while.

"Monte Carlo." Pathology. This picture affords a fine view of this famous resort.

Cosy.

"The Pendletons" in a demonstration of mental telepathy, clairvoyance and second sight will be the added attraction to the Cosy on Wednesday and Thursday. Professor Pendleton has proven his ability in no uncertain manner during the past three days, and some of the questions as to the location of missing friends and lost articles have been answered in a way that astonished the persons who asked them. If you want any information, on any subject, the professor will help you and the only charge is the small admission price. Miss Pearl Vohl, the charming little soprano soloist in cathy songs, is making a big hit at every performance.

For pictures, we have a three reel Gamont "In Touch With Death," that is a genuine thriller. A pucky girl defies a gang of desperadoes and consequently is in "touch with death" all the time. She is placed on the railroad track, bound and helpless but manages to roll off just as the train sweeps by. She is locked in a burning log house and is set adrift on a raft, but is saved in each instance

Wonderful Blood Remedy

Brings Health to a Host of Sufferers.

The remarkable action of S. S. S. in the blood is given impetus by a letter received from Earl C. Cook, 708 South Center St., Bloomington, Ill. He says, "I suffered several months and took treatment here, but obtained relief only for a few days at a time. Becoming doubtful of results, I quit the doctors, from the start. I used thirteen bottles of S. S. S. and was entirely cured. My blood was in a dreadful condition, and I can not thank S. S. S. enough for my wonderful recovery."

This preparation stands alone among specific remedies as a blood purifier. It is somewhat revolutionary in its composition, since it accomplishes all that was ever claimed for mercury, iodides, arsenic and other destructive mineral drugs, and yet it is absolutely a purely vegetable product. There are more cases of articular rheumatism, locomotor ataxia, paresis, neuritis and similar diseases resultant from the use of minerals than from disease germs direct. These facts are brought out in a highly interesting book compiled by the medical department of The Swift Specific Co., 129 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. It is mailed free, together with a special letter of advice to all who are struggling with a blood disease.

Get a bottle of S. S. S. to-day of your druggist. It will surprise you with its wonderful action in the blood.

Do not accept anything claimed to be "just as good." There is nothing else to take the place of S. S. S. and finally defeats her enemies. You won't go to sleep on this picture.

"The Curate's Outing." Powers. Mattle and Early and a whole bunch of kids make things hum in this comedy.

Company of Unusual Excellence at the Grand.

Combining real acting with clever singing and dancing, the Frank Rich company (Northern) will open at the Grand Theater for an engagement of two weeks starting Saturday, August 30th. The company numbers eighteen people and includes such well known performers as Herb Bell, Mack Swain, Aubrey Carr, Frank Earle, Edythe Wilma, Cora King Swain, Dora Gardner and others of equal repute, including the famous Rich Bevy of Beauty Broilers who are correctly designated "The Sunshine Girls."

The Rich company appears in rapid fire musical tableaux, giving three complete changes of program each week during their stay. The opening bill which will hold the boards for three performances only, for Saturday night, Sunday matinee and night, is called "The Beauty Doctor" and it differs from the usual tableaux, inasmuch as while the piece is replete with comedy situations, there is a very pretty love story and a clever plot sustained throughout.

Each bill is interpolated with ten musical numbers by the various principals, assisted by "The Sunshine Girls." Popular prices will prevail during this engagement.

FARM EDUCATION FOR ALL YOUTHS

EDMONTON, Alta., Aug. 27.—(Special).—Every boy and girl over 14 years of age in the province of Alberta will have an opportunity to gain a general farm education, including stock-raising, dairying, blacksmithing, carpentry, the care and operation of machinery and domestic science, in the agricultural schools at Vermillion, Claresholm and Olds, to be opened on October 28, and similar institutions to be established in other parts of the province. The courses, occupying six months, are free and open to all.

The work of developing the basic industry of Alberta is under the directions of the provincial agricultural education commission, recently appointed by Hon. Duncan Marshall, minister of agriculture for Alberta. The commission, which is headed by Dr. Henry M. Tory, president of the University of Alberta, is composed of practical farmers and stock breeders who are familiar with conditions and who have made successes in various lines of farming.

Teachers have been engaged in various parts of the United States and Canada and they will take charge of the pupils at the opening of the fall and winter term, devoting the rest of the year to investigations and demonstrations. Each school will have an automobile and a team to permit the teachers to visit various parts of the province.

"The operating expenses of the school will be met out of the government grant," Mr. Marshall said in making the foregoing announcement, "but the legislature probably will be asked this year to vote money for dormitories to be erected at the schools."

Professor John M. Coulter, head of the department of botany in the University of Chicago, has just completed a new textbook for use in secondary schools, under the title of Elementary Studies in Botany. The book is divided into two parts, the first of which gives an account of the structure and work of plants, and the second explains the practical handling of plants in the field and in the garden. Each part is intended to furnish a half-year's work. The material is arranged in an evolutionary order, and is accompanied by numerous diagrams and photographs.

Some men would rather meander along the crooked path than go home sober.
