OLD MYSTERY IS FINALLY SOLVED

DISAPPEARANCE OF HOWARD AND WILDER CLEARED UP IN FINDING DOCUMENT.

Deep in the fastness of the almost impassable mountains of the Seven Devils county in Idaho, William Finley, a pioneer prospector, discovered that which clears up half of the mystery surrounding the disappearance six years ago of "Gentleman Jack" Howard and Jim Wilder, two gold-seekers who had been partners for a quarter of a century.

It was an epitaph sealed by pitch in an old tin can and Finley found it at the foot of a tall pine tree beneath which a grave had been dug. It had been written by Howard upon the death of Wilder three years ago when the two were far from the haunts of civilization. Finley copied the epitaph and exhibited it for the first time upon his arrival in Pendleton today. It is a touching tribute from one comrade to another, reading as follows:

Old Pard—It matters not in the eyes of the Creator whether you are buried with all the pomp and pageantry of a king or the simplicity of a peasant. This giant pine that marks your last resting place seems to say, "Here lies one man who has lived Aid pard, I trust when the great trumpet blows, you and I will be pardons again in the land of gold and perpetual happiness. Now all I can say is God bless you, old pard, goodbye.

JACK HOWARD.

Finley came across the old can, used as a repository of a friend's last tribute, when he, too, had penetrated into the forest tangles of the Seven Devils. He had known both men for over 25 years but like the rest of the world had lost track of them six years ago. He thinks Wilder succumbed to a disease of which he had been suffering for years while the two were in the heart of the mountains and had been buried by his friend and "pard" of many years. Whether or not, Howard lived to get out of the mountains, he does not know. He is searching for him now and asks that if anyone should hear of his whereabouts, he address a card to Wm. Finley, Bisbee, Arizona.

Both Howard and Wilder were men of good education, declares Finley, the latter having been an Englishman and a graduate of Oxford.

An Opportunity For Capital

I am looking for some men who would like to make about $2,000,000.00 clear in the next 5 years.

There is an investment and development proposition on San Francisco Bay that will earn three ($3,000,000) million dollars from $10 to $20 for every $1.00 it takes to buy the property.

—I have handled five of the big successses in San Francisco and Richmond the past two years and know that this is the best proposition in California today.

—The syndicate to be formed will own a city of about 800 population consisting of practically 1000 acres less 200 lots that have been sold.

—These lots were sold to men who work in the large yards and factories here.

—There are 186 acres platted and developed in the present townsite and ready to sell.

—This piece can be sold for $534,000.00.

—300 acres along side of this piece can be sub-divided—when necessary—and sell for at least $1,920,000.00.

—There are 174 acres adjoining this that can be sub-divided and sold for about $265,000.

—Between the railroads and the water front there are 340 acres for warehouses and manufacturing sites.

—This land faces one mile on deep water (30 ft.) and by dredging three canals into the property one and a half miles of additional waterfront can be made.

—Deep water front property with railroad facilities can not be had at $500 a front foot on San Francisco Bay.

—This 340 acres will net from one (1,000,000) million to over three (3,000,000) million dollars depending upon whether we sell it at $250 a front foot or give some of it free to factories.

—This property and town is on four railroads and deep water.

—Five pipe lines of oil run through the town from the oil fields, giving cheap fuel.

—Two electric power lines run through the town giving cheap power.

—There are 30 passenger trains every day.

—Over 2000 car loads of freight are shipped out every month from the 2 big factories here.

—A new interurban electric road has just been completed through the town connecting Sacramento with Oakland and San Francisco.

—This road runs 16 trains a day through this town and means a great deal for the development of the property.

—Our syndicate will have several means of making profits in addition to selling town lots and factory sites.

—A good hotel will pay from one to two thousand dollars a month from the start.

—A building company can be kept busy.

—A commercial and savings bank can have first call on the $75,000 a month payroll here.

—An electric light and gas company will pay good dividends.

—The men who own the property have never tried to force it on the market.

—They just sold lots to those who work here.

—They know what I have been doing for others and have, after over two months discussion, consented to put their interests into a syndicate that will raise an equal amount in cash to go ahead and develop the property and offer it for sale.

—I am going to offer this to men in Pendleton first.

—I am putting in every cent I can get a hold of.

—If there are two, three or ten men in Pendleton who want to make about $2,000,000 in the next five years they are offered an opportunity that comes about once in a life time.

—Send a man down here to investigate for you and if it is not as stated I will pay his car fare.

—Henry Pierce formerly of Pendleton knows all about this property—he may be in Pendleton any day now—ask him.

—Merle F. Ferrell formerly of the American Bank, Pendleton, now with the West Sacramento Land Co., 400 Kearney St., San Francisco, knows about this property—write and ask him about Bay Point.

—If you want details and photos I will send them.

—Don't wait too long. This is an exceptional opportunity. It will not last long.

20 INDICTMENTS RETURNED BY JURY

FOURTEEN OF THEM RESULT FROM MORAL CRUSADE BY DETECTIVE KAY.

Twenty indictments, fourteen of which resulted from the moral crusade conducted by Governor West's detectives, were returned today by the grand jury which has been in session all week. Most of the fourteen are charged with selling liquor without a license or selling liquor on Sunday.

Frank Johnson, the Indian who stole the load of wheat from Charles Reinhart, was indicted for grand larceny. Albert Faine, alleged to have forged the name of Jack McPhail to a note, was indicted for forgery. Charles Kelly, alleged to have committed acts of degeneracy, is charged with sodomy. James Sweeney and Thomas Kanavahugh, the two men alleged to have cut Phil Kelly with a razor during the Round-up, are indicted jointly upon a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon while Ray Lawrence, who figured in another hitting scrape on the same day, is indicted on a similar charge.

John Welch alias "Red the Crook" was indicted for simple larceny pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 90 days in jail in lieu of a $100 fine.

The principals in the other cases were practically the same as those against whom complaint was made in the justice court several weeks ago. Some of the girls caught in the rail, who were charged with vagrancy, escaped indictment, inasmuch as vagrancy cases are triable in the justice court.

The cases were brought to the attention of the grand jury by H. A. Foster and C. B. Dill, the two detectives who gathered the evidence, they evidently preferring not to wait until disposition had been made of the cases in the justice court. In fact while Justice of the Peace Parkes was yesterday considering the written statements of Audrey Wilson, Hattie Long, Cora Switzer and C. H. Brown, all lodging house keepers, the detectives themselves were presenting their evidence to the grand jury. Audrey Wilson, proprietor of the Umatilla House, was the only one of the four held by Judge Parkes while all four were indicted almost at the same hour. Judge Parkes is indignant that the cases before him were not dismissed in the face of the intention to present the cases to the grand jury regardless of the disposition made of them in his court.

The names of all of the fourteen indicted have not been given out as some of them have not yet been served with the bench warrants. Among the number, however, are George Darveau, John Fouts, Gus La Fontaine, Ed Norman, Teddy Brooks and Lela Dupuis. They are all charged either with selling liquor without a license or selling liquor on Sunday.

M'ARTHUR WILL BE IN THE RACE

SPEAKER OF OREGON HOUSE TO SEEK SEAT IN CONGRESS—TO OPPOSE LAFERTY.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 20.—C. N. McArthur, speaker of the house at the last session, yesterday announced himself as a candidate for congress from the third Oregon district. This district, which comprises Multnomah county, is now represented by A. W. Lafferty.

Mr. McArthur will seek the republican nomination. The primary election takes place May 15, and the general election in the November following.

Born in Wasco county 24 years ago, Mr. McArthur has lived in Oregon since. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon. He has taken an active part in republican state and national politics in Oregon for several years.

In 1908 he served as secretary of the republican state central committee. He was secretary to the late Governor Frank W. Benson from 1909 to 1911. In 1909, as a member of the house, he represented Multnomah county in the legislature. At both sessions he was elected speaker of the house. In 1913 his choice as speaker was unanimous.

Announcement of Mr. McArthur's candidacy for congress occasions no particular surprise, for it has been understood that he intended to oppose A. W. Lafferty for re-election. Lafferty announced himself as a progressive, but has begun a personally conducted campaign to return to the republican party.

"As a candidate for congress," said Mr. McArthur in making his formal announcement yesterday, "I intend to put up a vigorous campaign for the nomination at the hands of the republican party. In whose principles I believe and with which I have always been affiliated. Having been born and reared in Oregon and enjoying a fair knowledge of the state, its people, history, resources and legislative problems, and having served in two public positions of considerable importance, I feel warranted in aspiring to a seat in congress. At the proper time I shall issue a platform or declaration of principles."

importance, I feel warranted in aspiring to a seat in congress. At the proper time I shall issue a platform or declaration of principles."

A Human Match Factory

The body contains phosphorus sufficient to make 483,000 matches. Phosphorus is one of fourteen elements composing the body—divided among bones, flesh, nervous system and other organs. The perfect health of body requires a perfect balance of the elements. These elements come from the food we eat—the stomach extracts and distributes them.

But if stomach is deranged—the balance of health is destroyed and the blood does not carry the proper elements to the different organs, and there is blood trouble—nervous trouble—heart trouble. Fain is the hungry cry of starved organs. Put the liver, stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition into a condition of health. That is just what is done by
