The Orpheum.
For Tuesday's change a remarkable two reel Essanay, "Gist to the Mill." A story woven around the tremendous sacrifice made by the woman for the man she loves and making a remarkable appeal in each of its many strong scenes. Richard Travers and Irene Warfield take the leads. John Hammond falls in love with Will Ward's wife and by a clever plot brings about his friend's imprisonment so that he can marry Marion. Marion discovers his motive and while pretending to be in love with him finally tricks him into telling the whole story of his duplicity. She then secures her husband's release and his own arrest. Her revenge is complete and husband and wife are once more united.

Which Way Did He Go? Vitaphone With John Bunny, Flora Finch, Lillian Walker and Walfie Van.

Black Beauty. Lubin. Laura Lang, the pretty agent at a western desert station, receives a message that a certain train is going through, carrying a valuable shipment of gold. Mexican Pete sees the message and he and his gang plan to hold up the train. Laura is bound to a post but she blows a whistle that is tied on her neck and her pony, Black Beauty, hears it and comes and unties her bonds. Mexican Pete is arrested and Laura gets $5000 reward and also wins a husband.

Pastime.
The Pastime presents Tuesday and Wednesday, "Caste," a two part Edison photoplay with Richard Tucker, Bigelow Cooper, Mabel Trunnelle and Gertrude McCoy in the title roles. "Caste" is a classic among comedies, telling of the serious events brought about by the marriage of a ballet dancer with a drunken son of a father into one of England's most aristocratic families. It is a wonderful character study with many a hearty laugh.

The Blind Girl of Castle Gullie. Pathe. A beautifully poetic picture. The starcraft is well high perfect and has provided some truly lovely scenes. It is a delightful story that refined people will like.

The Captivating Widow. Kalem. There are many laughs in this picture. Ruth Roland, as the widow, contributes to the fun, and so does Dick Coburn, as her sweetheart. Harry De Roy is the rival who John Brennan tries unsuccessfully to aid.

Cosy.
Monday and Tuesday, "Thanhouse." This romantic story in two reels impressed us as an unusually good offering of the kind. Florence LaBalle and James Cruz have the leading roles. The experiences on the sea were exciting and the approach to American soil fills the observer with a warm glow of appreciation. A good offering.

"From the Portals of Despair." American. A tale that will stir the pulses and arouse the anxiety.

"The Gambler's Pal." Broncho. A western story that will hold throughout.

"La Petite Elva." The wonderful child actress in an entire change tonight. We guarantee this act to please all who see it.

Alta Theater.
Entire new program tonight, including "The Surrender," a Power's comedy; "Percy Baldwin, Trifler," a Victor comedy; "The Girl Ranchers," a Nestor comedy, and "The Miser's son," an Imp drama. A new song number.

"Stop Thief."
There was a merry policeman named "Officer 666" last autumn, and now Messrs Cohan and Harris, who made that production, announce for presentation in this city on Sunday, Oct. 12, another farce, "Stop Thief," which played all last season at their Gaiety theater New York and the general verdict of playgoers and dramatic writers that the former could never catch the latter. The new farce like its laughing predecessor, is by an author almost unknown to theatergoers. He is Mr. Carlyle Moore. The new farce is his first attempt at writing three act plays. Previously he confined himself to sketches for the vaudeville stage.

To tell the story of the play would be well nigh impossible, there are so many complications developing after the entrance of the two thieves, one in the role of a parlor maid, into a house on the day on which the eldest daughter is to be married. Her father, a trifle absentminded and predisposed to forgetting where he places things, and the bridegroom, who is convinced that he is a kleptomaniac by inheritance, are made the unconscious assistants of the thieves—and there is the idea.

The company is one of excellence and the production is up to the usual Cohan and Harris standard.

Talking Pictures.
Thomas A. Edison's latest invention, the Kinetophone, or Talking Pictures, has taken its place among the high class theatrical attractions now touring the country. A program of twelve excellent subjects, combining musical and dramatic numbers, comedy, vaudeville and minstrel bits, and special features in which prominent statesmen and noted suffragettes are seen and heard, has been arranged for presentation in the first class theaters.

Several companies have been organized by Mr. Edison, each equipped with its force of operators and necessary mechanical accessories of machines, etc., and having its advance agent and business manager. These companies are competing successfully with the largest dramatic and musical organizations for volume of business. In the hundred or more leading cities of the United States where the Kinetophone had already been seen during engagements varying from three days to as many months, the recognized dramatic critics have been unanimous in declaring it an unqualified success.

The coming engagement of the Edison Talking Pictures at the Oregon theater, Friday and Saturday, October 10 and 11, will be the first appearance of this new Edison marvel here.

Avoid Sedative Cough Medicines.
If you want to contribute directly to the occurrence of capillary bronchitis and pneumonia use cough medicines that contain codins, morphine, heroin and other sedatives when you have a cough or cold. An expectorant like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is what is needed. That cleans out the culture beds or breeding places for the germs of pneumonia and other germ diseases. That is why pneumonia never results from a cold when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. It has a world wide reputation for its cures. It contains no morphine or other sedative. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

CUBS AND WHITE SOX MEET IN FINAL GAMES

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—The fact that the White Sox finished in fifth place in the American league and the Cubs third in the national, made not the slightest difference to supporters of the former today when the Cubs and the White Sox clashed in the first of a series of encounters to decide the city championship. As is always the case when Cub and White Sox meet, there was more betting over the outcome of the Chicago city championship fight than over the result of the Giant-Athletic clash for the World's title which was pried loose today at the Polo grounds in New York.

NO TRACE FOUND OF 30 MISSING PERSONS

RIO JANEIRO, Oct. 7.—No trace had been found of the 30 persons believed to have been drowned when the military tug Guarany was rammed and sunk by the Lloyd-Brazilian steamship Borborema. The tug carried 50 persons and only 20 were picked up.

GIRL WAS LURED AND THEN KILLED

POLICE SEEKING MAN WHO TELEPHONED FORMER ART STUDENT.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Miss Ida G. Leegson, art student, whose nude body was found on the prairie west of here was lured to her death by some man who telephoned to her in response to her advertisement for a place as a nurse. This was the conclusion of the police after more than 24 hours' search, which resulted, the police admit in no trail which can direct them to the murderer.

A "Mr. Wilson" who called her up is sought.

The thin silken fish line found near the body and the bruised circle it had left around Miss Leegson's neck showed the manner of her death, her tattered clothing strewn for half a mile along the road approaching the prairie and the bruises on the body indicated that death had come only after she had made a hard struggle but there was nothing found to show by whom Miss Leegson had been induced to visit the lonely spot on the western outskirts of the city.

The possibility that Miss Leegson was lured to her death by an organized band of "white slavers" is not believed by the police to offer a solution of the mystery.

The police are searching for the automobile described by William Savage, a switchman, on the belt line road who reported that he had seen such a car pass his crossing Saturday night and it had returned an hour or so later.

Miss Leegson's hand satchel was found a block from where the body was found. It had been slashed with a knife and its contents, except a pair of stockings and a piece of soap remained.

Chronic Dyspepsia.

The following unsolicited testimonial should certainly be sufficient to give hope and courage to persons afflicted with chronic dyspepsia: "I have been a chronic dyspeptic for years, and of all the medicine I have taken, Chamberlain's Tablets have done me more good than anything else," says W. G. Mattison, No. 7 Sherman St., Hornellville, N. Y. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

REBATING TRIALS OF RAILWAYS ARE STARTED

PUEBLO, Colo., Oct. 7.—Whether certain railroads of Colorado gave free transportation, either state or interstate, to influence shippers is the point on which the rebating trials of the railroads and shippers which opened here today will decide. The government expects to prove that the Denver & Rio Grande, and Colorado & Southern railroads regulated the issue of their passes so that large shippers were favored in this respect. The Portland Cement company and the Victor American Fuel company in the same cases are charged with having accepted rebates and favors of this nature. The government's witnesses will be employees of the companies involved.

The trials are the result of an inquiry by the Interstate Commerce Commission into the abuse of passes giving by Colorado railroads last spring. It was shown then that hundreds of free tickets were given to shippers and that politicians openly solicited passes. Some judges including some from the state supreme bench, were alleged to have requested or accepted such favors.

Modest Dick Cleveland, an honor man at Exeter academy, and son of the late Grover Cleveland, has decided to go in for football. He weighs 160 pounds, is only 15 years old and is going to enter Princeton. If he keeps putting on weight he should be quite a husky young Tiger by the time he reaches that institution. Dick rooms with Lawrence Williams of Chicago, captain of the Exeter track team, in Webster hall. Last year he won his numerals in hockey, and this fall he is trying for his class football team. He plans to try for the school eleven next year.

And many a man indulges in horse play who doesn't play the races.

BUT 2 MURDERS TRACED TO HIM

POLICE TAKE NO STOCK IN LONG CRIME STORY OF HENRY SPENCER.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Of the 19 murders Henry Spencer, slayer of Mrs. Mildred Allison Rexroat, swore he had committed, the police after investigating his alleged crimes in various countries were able to fix on him only one murder or possibly two.

Captain Halpin, chief of the detective bureau, announced his conviction that Spencer, in giving his long circumstantial confession of fiendish crimes, was a consummate falsifier.

Four of the murders he said he committed, were perpetrated while Spencer was in the Illinois state penitentiary at Joliet. Of 12 of the alleged murders the police in this and other cities have no record. In one case described by Spencer police records show that a body was recovered but detectives have as yet established no connection between Spencer and the crime.

"Except for, possibly, two murders, Spencer's weird story of killing people by hammering in their skulls and sinking their bodies in lakes seem pure fabrication," said Captain Halpin.

"His imagination, stimulated by drugs, poured out one of the most fantastic tales of murder that has ever come from a man whose mind is given to dreams of crime."

AMERICAN BANKERS IN CONVENTION AT BOSTON

BOSTON, Oct. 7.—"Advantages of Co-operative Publicity of Trust Company Functions," "Annuities and Pension Funds for Employees" and "A Model Trust Company Law" were the principal subjects discussed at today's meeting of the trust section of the American Bankers' association in annual convention here. General subjects of the topics followed the addresses. The Savings Banks section, clearing house section and secretaries' section also met today. The convention will be formally organized tomorrow as the thirty-ninth annual meeting of the American Bankers' association.

SOAP ON HAIR CAUSES DANDRUFF, SCALP GETS DRY, HAIR FALLS OUT

Girls! Boys! Get a 25 Cent Bottle and Try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse"—Save Your Hair.

After washing your hair with soap—always apply a little Danderine to the scalp to invigorate the hair and prevent dryness. Better still, use soap as sparingly as possible and instead have a Danderine Hair Cleanse. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one strand at a time. This will remove dust, dirt and excessive oil. In a few moments you will be amazed, your hair will not only be clean, but it will be wavy, fluffy and abundant, and possess an incomparable softness and lustre. Besides cleansing and beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; stimulates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful. Men! Ladies! You can surely have lots of charming hair. Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it.
