

Mothers!

You Are Invited to Our Store Saturday Saturday is Children's Day

Don't fail to come, it will pay you as a money saving proposition in the clothing of your little girl or boy for the cold days that are rapidly approaching. All the garments mentioned below range in size from two to fourteen years.

Children's Warm Coats

Of durable all-wool materials in solid colors and mixtures, made to be worn open or fastened close to the throat. Trimmed with fancy collar, cuffs and belt; special values ranging in price from $2.25 to $7.95.

Warm Outing Flannel Nighties

For the Little Folks. These cold nighties make a warm outing flannel gown very acceptable to both children and grown-ups.

We have them in white and colors, in warm fleecy materials. Made generously long and full. Prices range from 59¢ to $1.95.

New Brocade Velvets

An express shipment Brocade Velvets just received, now so much used for trimmings; fine quality, beautiful design; comes in golden brown, navy, black, dark garnet and grey. The yard $1.25.

Children's School Dresses

Fast color, wash materials, such as chambray, gingham and galatea. Made up in catchy, youthful styles.

French effects and Balkan middie effects predominate. You'll wonder how these values can be produced at the prices we ask, which range from 59¢ to $2.95.

Fur Dress Trimmings

We are showing a large line of fur, ostrich and marabout trimmings. Furs from one to three inches wide, in black, white, brown and grey. Price yard 65¢ to $1.50.

Ostrich and Marabout in black, white, brown, light blue and pink; price, yard 65¢ to $1.25.

New Rufflings

Today's express brought us a new shipment of pleatings of chiffon, maline and net, in both white and cream. Price yard 25¢ to 65¢.

Children's Warm Winter Dresses

Made of heavy serge, whipcord and wool flannel in becoming long waisted and pleated skirt styles.

The colors are blue, brown, grey and black and white cheeks, trimmed with bright red and harmonizing trimmings.

The quality of the materials and the high grade of workmanship considered, the prices are extremely reasonable $1.25 to $6.75.

Nydia Flannelette

An ideal Flannelette for kimonas, not too heavy; small figures, beautiful colorings; 36 inches wide; fast colors. The yard 15¢.

Special "Out-of-Door" Sleeping Garments

Made with hood and pocket for the feet. If you sleep out of doors you should have some of these garments. They are economically priced.

Satin Linings

Whether you want a lining for a new suit, get a new one for your old suit or coat. Make it look new; add life to it. A complete assortment of plain and brocades, in all colors, ABSOLUTELY GUARANTEED—36 inches wide. The yard, $1.25 and $1.50.

Boys' Suits

The kind the boys like to wear; the kind that wears; HERCULES SUITS, SHOW-ER-PROOF. All-wool, taped seams, reinforced linings, guaranteed throughout; one Hercules suit will wear longer than two suits of any other make, $3.50 to $10.00.

TOBACCO BROWN AND ROSE

The skirts of the coming season have one attribute in common: with very few exceptions they boast some sort of tunic. It may not be long enough to dignify by the name of tunic, being content to remain in the peplum class; but peplum or tunic something on this order is inevitable if we would be in vogue. This smart frock of velvety de laine in tobacco brown has a shaped tunic which is quite short at the front, sloping toward the back. Narrow pleated frills of self-tone silk trim bodice and sleeves. The lapped skirt is draped to the left, closing just where the two loops of self-tone silk fall from the girdle. A broad band of the self-tone silk crosses the lower part of the blouse in waistcoat fashion and in this a narrow band of rose silk has been inserted. This color combination is seen on some of the smartest frocks.

Sweeter Corn

In preparing stewed corn, if one leaves it on the cob while cooking and cuts it off when it is done instead of before it is cooked, it will have a decidedly better flavor, as in this way it is much sweeter and juicier, as it can be cut closer to the cob.—Mothers Magazine.

Home Helps

If you are doubtful about your cream keeping sweet, heat it to almost boiling, put in tightly corked glass bottles and set on the ice to cool. In this way it will not sour so soon.

Mayonnaise dressing will separate when too much salt has been added to the egg yolks, or when the oil has been dropped too fast, or if the ingredients are not thoroughly cold when used.

Dates are much cheaper, more wholesome, more nutritious and richer flavored than raisins and may be substituted for them in cakes, puddings and pies. But be sure you get fresh ones.

To remove scorch marks from fire-proof dishes, cook them in strong borax water until the ugly brown marks upon them can be rubbed off with a cloth.

If whites of eggs are not perfectly cold or if they are too fresh they will not beat up stiff. Cream will not whip well unless at least 24 hours old and very cold.—Philadelphia Times.

Silks Case for Needlewoman. Every needlewoman needs a case for her embroidery silks, says the New York Press, and these are easily fashioned in this manner:

From stiff cardboard cut two rectangles, 9 inches long by 3 1/2 inches wide, and cover them with natural-colored linen on the outside and the colored linen on the inside. Allow 3/4 of an inch between the covers so that when it is closed there is space left.

The case can be effectively decorated by embroidering a simple design on the cover, using mercerized cotton of tones that appeal to your taste. The arrangement of the case is extremely simple, for it consists of narrow strips of white paper folded lengthwise several times and held in place with pink ribbon, which is drawn through the back of the case and tied in a bow. The silks, whether in skeins or odds and ends, are slipped between the folds of paper and are thus kept in a perfect condition.

A slip cover of white linen can be made for the embroidery case, of you prefer one that can be removed and laundered. Naets of Irish or cluny lace can be used to ornament the case, if you do not care to embroider it.

Convalescence after pneumonia, typhoid fever and the grip, is sometimes merely apparent, not real. To make it real and rapid there is no other tonic so highly to be recommended as Hood's Sarsaparilla. Thousands so testify. Take Hood's.—Adv.

SOCIETY

Mrs. Lee Moorhouse of this city was yesterday re-elected first vice-president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs which has just concluded a very successful annual convention at Hood River. The Pendleton clubs are very gratified over the recognition given this city by the retention of a local lady in the second highest office. Mrs. Sarah Evans of Portland was re-elected president and the other officers chosen were as follows: Mrs. H. F. Merritt, of Medford, second vice-president; Mrs. H. P. Davidson, of Hood River, re-elected recording secretary; Mrs. M. Hirsch, of Portland, treasurer; Mrs. W. P. Bouton, of Eugene, auditor; and Miss Minnie Beatty, of Salem and Mrs. W. L. Bradshaw, of The Dalles, respectively, first and second members of the board of directors.

Mrs. Bradshaw was the retiring member of the board at the time of the election. The federation selected Eugene as the next convention place after a spirited fight between that city and Corvallis. The returning Pendleton delegates are warm in their praises of the entertainment accorded them at Hood River.

Miss Pearl McKenna, another of October's brides, has been extensively feted since the announcement of her engagement to James Sharnard Johns of Pendleton, Ore. Mrs. Craig McKenna entertained delightfully in her honor yesterday at an elaborate bridge party in her residence in Irvington.

A profusion of Richmond roses in crystal bowls and artistic baskets were arranged about the rooms. The guests included Miss McKenna, Miss Bertha Masters, Miss Edith Woodcock, Mrs. Sigfried M. Unander, Mrs. Earl Latourette, Miss Mary Steiner, Miss Anna Taylor, Miss Grace O'Neil, Miss J. V. Sturges, Miss Agnes Beach, Mrs. C. W. Houghton, Mrs. Frank McCauley (Lena Simpson), Mrs. David McDaniel, Miss Edith Sheehy, Miss Le Velle Florenz, Miss Marguerite Sheehy, Miss Eugenia Craig, Miss Filomena Barnes, Miss Jessie Beckwith, Miss Isabel Beckwith, Miss Mildred Whitlesey, Mrs. Bruce Stewart, Mrs. Elsie Perkins, the Misses Jean and May Gray, Mrs. Robert Mel. Townsend and Mrs. Kitchin.

Five tables were arranged for the games and additional guests called at tea time.—Portland Oregonian.

Last evening at eight o'clock was celebrated the wedding of Miss Edna Earl and Wendell C. Galloway at the home of the bride's parents, 624 Spruce street. Rev. Nathan Evans, former pastor of the local Methodist church and now occupying a similar position at Ellensburg, Washington, administered the vows and the ceremony, which was marked by simplicity and immediate friends. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Earl of this city and has been a popular high school girl for several years. Her husband is a young insurance man of the city, having come here almost a year ago. The young couple are undecided as to their future plans but will remain here temporarily. They are contemplating moving to San Francisco at an early date.

In the presence of only a few immediate relatives and friends, Mr. Roy Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Allen of Vincent and Miss Elizabeth Helm of Wenatchee, were united in marriage at the Olympia hotel, Walla, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Roy Ward, pastor of the United Brethren church of Vincent officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Allen Jr., will make their home in Canyon, Wash.—Milton Eagle.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin P. Knight (Miss Pauline La Fontaine) left last evening for their future home near Stanger, Alberta, where Mr. Knight is the manager of a large wheat farm. A large number of their friends accompanied them to the train and showered them with rice before they left.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Mandy Wright gave a party in honor of her daughter, Miss Dora Wright. Those eighteenth birthday it was. Many friends were present and the hours were enjoyably spent in music and dancing. Miss Wright was made the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

On Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Charles A. Hodshire of the Methodist church, united in marriage Miss Ethel Johnson and Henry Arkell, the ceremony being performed in the Methodist parsonage in the presence of only a few friends.

Mrs. Robert Jenkins will return to her home in Portland tomorrow and will be accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Harold Stewart, who will spend the winter there. Mrs. Stewart is just recovering from an attack of pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson E. Brock are enjoying a visit from Mr. Brock's mother, Mrs. J. N. Walker of Gaston, Oregon. Tomorrow afternoon Mrs. Brock will entertain for her pleasure.

Mrs. Anna Shea and youngest daughter, Babe, left yesterday evening for Boise, where they will spend the winter with Mr. Shea's mother.

Miss Martha Skeewis of Tacoma, who has been visiting here for several days, has returned to Walla Walla.

Mrs. F. A. Pope of Walla Walla is visiting Pendleton relatives and friends.

CONGRESS ALSO PROTECTS BIRDS

LAW ENACTED LAST JUNE PROVIDES FOR OPEN AND CLOSED SEASONS.

Superseding the state game laws is the law enacted by congress last June for the protection of migratory birds and Umalla county hunters will do well to acquaint themselves with the provisions of the act passed at that time. C. K. Cranston has just received a copy of President Wilson's proclamation containing the regulations for carrying into effect the provisions and for the benefit of local sportsmen a brief summary is here given.

In Oregon and Washington the closed season on waterfowl, including brant, wild ducks, geese and swans is between January 16 and October 1. This uniform season in Oregon and Washington was made in response to a request from State Warden Flaley.

The same season prevails in both states also on rails, coots, gallinules and shore birds, the latter classification including blackbreasted and golden plover, jack-snipe or Wilson snipe and greater and lesser yellowlegs.

The closed season on woodcock shall be between Dec. 1 and Oct. 1 next following.

A closed season shall continue until September 1, 1913, on the following migratory game birds: Band-tailed pigeons, little brown, sandhill and whooping cranes, swans, curley and all shore birds except those mentioned above.

A closed season shall continue until Sept. 1, 1913 on all woodcocks.

A daily closed season shall extend on all migratory game and insectivorous birds from sunset to sunrise.

A closed season on migratory insectivorous birds shall continue until December 31, 1913 and thereafter shall begin on January 1 and continue to December 31, both dates inclusive, providing that nothing in this or any other of these regulations shall be construed to prevent the issue of permits for collecting birds for scientific purposes in accordance with the laws and regulations of the state.

Migratory insectivorous birds shall include the following: Bobolinks, Catbirds, chickadees, cuckoos, flickers, flycatchers, grosbeaks, humming birds, kinglets, martins, meadowlarks, night hawks, bull bats, nuthatches, orioles, robins, shrikes, sparrows, swifts, tanagers, titmice, thrushes, vireos, warblers, waxwings, whippoorwills, woodpeckers and wrens and all other perching birds which feed entirely or chiefly on insects.

Oregon is in zone 1 which includes 25 states north of latitude 40 and the Ohio river.

EIGHTY LEARN JOURNALISM.

Majority Take it For Training Not as Vocational Study.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oct. 10.—Eighty students are taking lectures this year in some phase of journalism at the University of Oregon. About one-fourth of these contemplate making their life occupation some kind of newspaper work; the rest are taking the course for the training in accuracy, in practical English and in writing attractively. Students taking lectures in journalism have a great variety of other work as well. Most of the 80 are taking three hours of journalism and from 12 to 14 hours in other subjects; a few are taking six hours journalism and from nine to 11 in other branches. The department of journalism urges students

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

DON'T STAY GRAY! HERE'S AN OLD-TIME RECIPE THAT ANYBODY CAN APPLY.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wondrous effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out of date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it dakens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply damp a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant.

to cover as much ground as possible in their college course.

STUDENTS TO SEE EDITORS.

Part of Class in Journalism Will Attend State Meeting.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oct. 10.—Next to Portland, Eugene is likely to have the largest delegation at the State Editorial association meeting in the Portland Press club rooms, October 17 and 18. Classes for October 17 in the department of journalism at the University of Oregon will be excused and about 50 of the students are expected to attend the association convention and give over the Portland newspaper plants. The Eugene newspapers are also likely to be represented.

Women Singers Pick Officers.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oct. 10.—Miss Mae Norton of Portland has been chosen president and Miss Marie Churchill of Baker, secretary, of the Women's Glee club of the University of Oregon. Miss Catherine Campbell Carson of Salem is again manager. Miss Florence Elizabeth Avon of Hood River was president before Miss Norton.

AVOID CATARRH

BREATHE HYOMEL—IT MEDICATES THE AIR YOU BREATHE AND INSTANTLY RELIEVES.

Why continue to suffer from catarrh, stopped up head, husky voice, and other troubles of the breathing organs, when there is an absolutely certain, scientific remedy at hand.

Hyomel is the remedy. It is a pleasant, harmless, and antiseptic medication which you breathe through a small inhaler. Breathing a few times daily through the inhaler charges the air with this germ-killing antiseptic. Catarrhal discharges, sniffles, foul breath, watery eyes and the formation of crusts in the nose are promptly relieved by this medicated air.

It is guaranteed by Tallman & Co. to do it, or money back. A complete Hyomel outfit, consisting of a strong, hard rubber pocket inhaler and a bottle of Hyomel costs only $1.00, and extra bottles, if afterwards needed, are only 50 cents each. Druggists everywhere sell Hyomel.

Use Hyomel for bronchitis, coughs and colds in the head, husky voice, croup of infants, and any inflammatory disease of the breathing organs.

CHILD COMPLAINS TO SEC. WILSON

DECLARES IN LETTER HER FATHER BADLY TREATED IN COTTON MILL.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—A tragic human document, breathing the spirit of childhood groping in the industrial chaos for the substance of justice, has come into the hands of Secretary of Labor Wilson. It was directed to a government bureau from an eastern mill town. Here it is:
"Dear Sir—I went to school and heard and read that every body has rights but my father had worse rights than a dog. Last year my father worked in the cotton mill as a weaver for seven weeks. Three times during those seven weeks my father got less pay than he ought to. First time he spoke to the foreman so he added $1.65 to it, second time he again got less so he spoke about it so he added $1.40 to it, and third time on the 22nd of November, 1912, he earned $9.45 so they wanted to give him $6.55.

"When he spoke about it that he did not get as much as he ought to, so the superintendent's friend, Paul, also a weaver sprang to him with a knife and shuttle and made him a few holes in his head. When he sat there and the blood was dripping from him so the superintendent came and told him to walk out of the mill. Then my father told him that he is too weak to walk and that he should get a doctor and the police. So he went and got three persons and the four took him and threw him out in the boiler room.

"A man that worked right next to him, took him by the hand and led him to the police station. About two hours passed before they reached there so he lost a lot of blood and afterwards he lay three weeks in bed. Before his head healed it took about three months. Not enough that they paid very little so they took about $3.55 from the small pay yet. We are five children and we want food.

"Now on the 17th of July the grand jury case was finished and my father does not know anything. Nobody was guilty, nor the one that took the pay, nor the one that half killed him, nor the one that threw him out into the boiler room. Would you not be so kind and please see if the matter could stay as it is now.

"Yours affectionately,
"ADELA WOLSKY and
"VINCENT WOLSKY."

HERMISTON RESTAURANT HAS CHANGED HANDS

(Special Correspondence.)

HERMISTON, Ore., Oct. 10.—The Hotel Oregon restaurant changed ownership. Wang and Wing, who have been the proprietors for several years, will leave Hermiston in the near future. H. G. Newport has taken over the fixtures and Mr. Newport's cook will hereafter run the eating house. The change has been expected for some time.

The national bank examiner was in Hermiston the past two days on his regular examination of the First National bank.
