LLOYD WILKINS MURDER SUSPECT

POLICE SEEK SLAYER OF LOU L. WINTERS, VIOLINIST.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 12.—Lloyd H. Wilkins, 29 years old, an engineer, formerly a lodger at the home of Lou L. Winters, of 833 Milwaukee street, is being sought by the police as the slayer of Mr. Winters, who was found in the street opposite his home at an early hour Sunday morning with a fractured skull caused by a terrific blow from behind, and who died at Good Samaritan hospital at 2:30 a. m. Three fine sandy hairs, caught in the material of a felt mask found in bushes a block from the scene of the murder, corresponding closely to the hair of Wilkins, is described by Miss Frankie Winters, daughter of the murdered man, as part of the evidence which the police detectives have gathered, tending to connect Wilkins with the crime. Letters of a threatening nature written by the fugitive to his wife, Helma Wilkins, who was living at the Winters residence following a separation from her husband, together with a telephone call thought to have been made by him late last night and his proven presence in the locality of the crime are other clues from which the detectives have deduced their theory. A. J. Winters, brother of the murdered man, of 67 Sixth street, yesterday announced a reward of $500 for arrest and conviction of the guilty person or persons. Wife Furnishes Description. The police issued the following description of WILKINS, furnished by his wife: "Twenty-nine years old, 5 feet 5 inches tall, smooth-shaven, very blue eyes, and sandy hair, bald on top." He was dressed in a black single-breasted suit, tan shoes, and white shirt with soft collar. Following the separation Mr. Winters forbade him the house, and in a heated telephone conversation a month ago Wilkins threatened Mr. Winters with violence. Mr. Winters, carrying his violin case, alighted from the 12:39 Sellwood car in front of his residence shortly before 1 o'clock yesterday morning. The theory of the police is that two men broke from the brush across the street, and Winters ran from them, across the street, dropping his violin case. He had gone barely 20 yards when a blow from some blunt instrument felled him, and the following blow, dealt from behind, fractured his skull. "MOVIES" UNDER BAN FOR COQUILLE PUPILS. COQUILLE, Ore., Oct. 12.—Superintendent C. A. Howard and Principal A. J. M. Robertson of the Coquille High school, have placed their official taboo on parties, balls, picture shows, and other entertainments of similar character which take pupils out at night. A letter has been issued to patrons requesting parents to permit anticipation in such amusements only on Friday and Saturday nights. NO ACTION BY CHIEF ON LUMBER DUTY CUT. WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—The state department informs Senator Chamberlain that proposed legislation by Chile has been modified to make lumber duty 70 per cent ad valorem, an increase of 50 per cent, instead of 215 as intended. However, great opposition developed and congress adjourned without taking action. NO GUARD OF HONOR FOR BATTLESHIP OREGON. WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—The secretary of the navy has informed Senator Chamberlain that it is not practicable to provide for escort from Oregon national guard on the battleship Oregon on her first passage through the canal, because of the limited space available on the ship. The wireless outfit between the port of Arica, Squimbo and Valparaiso in Chile has been opened for business.

BASKET DONE IN EASY STITCHING

An attractive way to embroider a basket is to work the handle and rim in raised satin stitch, then over this put a strapping with a single thread to give a twisted effect. The spaces between the ribs of the basket should then be filled with graduated catch-stitching. Every place the stitches cross they should be held down with a short stitch. Two rows of outline stitch placed closely together form the ribs. This will give an effective representation of a basket and is all done in familiar stitching. If colors are used, tan, with brown for the twisted effect over the handle and ribs, would be best to use. The basket could be carried out in all white using the same stitches. In place of catch-stitching and outlining to form the body of the basket Portuguese laid work can be substituted, but either method would give a very attractive effect—Chicago Inter Ocean.

SOCIETY

Saturday afternoon the Thursday Afternoon Club met for the first time since last spring at the home of Mrs. Thomas Thompson on the north hill. The subject for the year's study will be "Ireland, Scotland and Wales" and Saturday the program dealt with "The Irish People and Their Homes." Mrs. John Halley, Jr. gave an interesting paper on "Their Origin, Character, Food, Clothing and Manner of Life" and Mrs. A. J. Owen continued the study by a description of the town and village life, amusements, marriages, match making stories, superstitions, wakes and funerals of the Celtic folk. The national air, "Wearing of the Green," was sung and other vocal selections were contributed by Miss Ethel Wilkie and Miss Edna Thompson. Miss Eleanor Vincent contributed instrumental music. Mrs. G. L. Dow gave a brief but inspiring account of the annual convention of the State Federation of Women's Clubs to which she was a delegate from the Thursday Afternoon Club. Following the program delicious refreshments were served.

COPPER COLORED VELVET TOQUE

The small hat is usually the advance guard of Spring and Fall millinery styles, and with reason, as most women proceed with caution until styles are settled and anything that savors of exaggeration is passed by. This season is no exception and though the shapes seem varied, all are conservatively small. The newest shapes are of soft felt, velvet or fine velvet, and may be adjusted in many becoming ways. The hat above on the contrary is made over a stiff wire shape and is covered with a velvet in the new copper color. A band and flat crown of the velvet encircle the crown and serve to hold in place a smart feather in copper and orange shades.

Cut the salmon in slices and fry them in butter sprinkling them over with the mint and parsley. Then stew the slices with a pound of green peas. Add a little tomato conserve. —New York Press.

Stuffed Peppers.

Take about 10 cents worth hamburger steak, three large tomatoes, or equal amount of canned tomatoes, one onion chopped fine, three heaping tablespoons of corn meal, one large tablespoon of butter, one teaspoon of salt, a little black pepper, about half cup of water, work all together with the hands. Choose large, almost round bell peppers, cut the tops even, round; refill with the above put tops on peppers and bake in about an inch of water for about 45 minutes. writes a contributor to Los Angeles Express. When bell peppers are not in season, I make the mixture into a loaf and bake.

Sardine Sauce.

In preparing sauces of any kind to serve with sardines or salmon, the oil from the canned fish may be used instead of olive oil, and the flavor will be improved, says the Washington Herald.

A delicious salmon salad dressing

with a rich mayonnaise to which some of the fish oil has been added is better than with mayonnaise alone, care should be taken not to use too much of the oil.

BEST JUDGE OF MERIT.

"The people are the best judges of merit," said Poor Richard. For nearly forty years women have been buying Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; they keep on buying it, and they will continue to buy it just as long as it proves such a wonderful success in curing female ills. Enormous quantities of roots and herbs are used annually in making this good old-fashioned remedy and the test of time has proved its merit. —Adv.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Bracing

fall weather, with generally fair skies is promised the greater part of the country for the coming week by the weather bureau. "Temperatures will average near or below normal and precipitation will be generally light and local except in the north Pacific states, where rains will be frequent," the weekly bulletin says. "The next disturbance of importance to cross the country will appear in the far west Tuesday or Wednesday and cross the middle west about Thursday."

LEBANON, Ore., Oct. 12.—The safe in the store of the Reeves-Clark company was blown by burglars Saturday night and rifled of its contents. The burglars took not only the cash in the strong box, but also the checks that were taken in during the evening. A quantity of blankets, comforts, flour and sugar that was piled around the safe was badly damaged. It is not known how much cash was secured, but it is thought the total loss will reach $2000. The goods were also damaged by vinegar which was poured over them and on the safe. It is thought vinegar was used to kill the scent to prevent bloodhounds from trailing the thieves. Sheriff Rodine is here from Albany investigating.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 12.—To J.

A. Beckwith and C. H. Bristol, officers in the Oregon state naval militia, goes the honor of representing that body in the fall practice cruise of a portion of the Atlantic fleet to Mediterranean waters. Mr. Bristol is enlisted for Old Point Comfort, Va., where they will report to the commanding officer of the fleet. The fleet of nine large battleships will be gone until December and will carry two representatives of the naval militia of each state for instruction. Mr. Beckwith is lieutenant in the Oregon militia, having served in the organization for the past three years. He is a member of the firm of Johnson and Beckwith, attorneys, in the Fenton building. Mr. Bristol is engaged in the militia and is connected with the Carman Manufacturing company.

Clutching Gold, Seattle Miser Dies.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 12.—Clutching in his hand a worn leather sack, in which there were gold and bank certificates amounting to more than $3000, Daniel Sorenson, aged 72, former shipmaster, was found dead on the floor of a hotel in which he lived. He had evidently starved to death. There was no food in the shack except a sack of flour.

EAT LESS MEAT IF YOU FEEL BACKACHEY OR HAVE BLADDER TROUBLE.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night. To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

J. B. IRVINE DIED SUNDAY

OREGON PIONEER AND FATHER OF LOCAL WOMAN PASSED AWAY AT ASHLAND.

News of the death of J. B. Irvine, father of Mrs. D. Brusha, was received here yesterday morning and Mr. and Mrs. Brusha have left for Corvallis where the funeral is to be held. The dead man was known to many people here through his long residence in Oregon and a visit he made here last year. He died at Ashland and the following dispatch from that place tells of his long career in Oregon: Jesse B. Irvine of Corvallis, died in this city this morning. The cause of his sudden death was a stroke of paralysis. He was in his 83d year. Mr. Irvine came to Ashland about ten days ago in the hope that a higher altitude might benefit his health, which until recently had been robust for one of his years. He was a native of Kentucky and came to Oregon in pioneer days, arriving in 1852. At one time he was a resident of Jacksonville, in this county. In 1895 he moved to Corvallis, which had been his home for nearly a score of years.

Mr. Irvine was a public-spirited citizen and had filled many positions of honor and trust. He had been Mayor of Corvallis and had served on the city council for more than 12 years. While a resident of Sprague, Wash., he had served as mayor and had performed a like service for the towns of Brownsville and Scio, in Oregon. In politics he was an uncompromising republican. He was also a prominent member of the Masonic order. Mr. Irvine lost his wife more than a year ago. He leaves six children, George W. Irvine, of Montana; Mrs. Nora French, wife of County Judge French of Enterprise; Mrs. Emma I. Brusha of Pendleton; J. D. Irvine of Brownsville; B. F. Irvine of Portland, and Miss Bessie Irvine, who accompanied her father to Ashland. The body will be taken to Corvallis, leaving Ashland tomorrow afternoon, accompanied by J. D. Irvine and Miss Bessie Irvine.

Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema seems to lodge. This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well known liquid eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., as compounded in D.D.D. Prescription. We have sold other remedies for skin troubles but none that we can recommend as highly as this for we know that D.D.D. stops the itch at once. We can give you a trial size bottle for 25 cents that will be enough to prove it. Of course all other druggists have D.D.D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute. But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what D.D.D. will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee.—If you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent.
