being entertained this afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. J. Owen on South

SOCIECY

A large and brilliant event was the afternoon at bridge yesterday at which Mrs. William F. Matlock, Mrs. A. J. McAllister, Mrs. Frank E. Liv-engood and Mrs. G. Irving La Dow were hostesses The affair was held in the Eagle-Woodman hall and the spacious room had been made homelike with Navajo rugs and bright-colored Indian robes. Cut flowers were used as decorations, the prevailing color scheme being pink and white. The refreshments also carried out this idea.

The guest list included about one hundred and fifty ladies and many smart gowns lent their beauty to the scene. Orchestral music was played during the afternoon. In the play the prizes were won by Mrs. Charles Murphy and Mrs. A. E. Tamiese. Among the out of town guests of the occasion were Mrs. J. D. Plamondon. Mrs. Stone, Mrs. Homer I. Watts Mrs. Marvin L. Watts of Athena, Mrs. John Adams of Adams, Mrs. Harry Reese and Mrs. George Clarke of Stanfield, Mrs. Laura B. Davis of Hermiston and Mrs. Julius Guderlan of McKay creek. The city guest list included the following:

The old saying-what is home withou a mother-should add "Mother's Friend." In thousands of American homes there In thousands of American hogies there is a bottle of this spiendid and famous rem-edy that has aided many a woman through the trying ordeal, saved her from suffering and pain, kept her in health of mind and body in advance of baby's coming and had a most wonderful influence in developing a healthy, lovely disposition in the child.

There is no other remedy so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend. It relieves the pain and disconfort caused by the strain on the Signments, makes pliant those fibres and muscles which nature is expand-ing and southes the inflammation of breast state. glands.

Mother's Priend is an external remedy, acts quickly and not only banishes all dis-tress in advance, but assures a speedy and tress in advance, but assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother. Thus she becomes a healthy woman with all her strength preserved to thoroughly enjoy the rearing of her child. A quite wedding was solemnized Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kearney on West Alta street when Tom F Mills claimed as his bride Miss Rosa G. Cox. Only a few friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony which was performed by Rev. S. L. Grigsby of the Presbyterian church. Both young people have many friends here who wish them happiness. The groom who is a son of Mrs. Kearney, is in the employ of Kopittke & Gillanders.
