FAMOUS SINGING QUARTET COMING

KELLOGG-HAINES ORGANIZATION WILL APPEAR MONDAY ON ENTERTAINMENT COURSE.

The Kellogg-Haines Singing Party, including a pianist, Miss Lotta Fahlen, soprano, aside from her extensive choir experience has sung principal roles with the Shehan Opera Co. and studied with the best teachers in America.

Miss Altha Montague, the contralto, studied for two years under the well known Professor McBurney of Chicago and was for a time soloist of the big Hyde Park Baptist church in that city. She is a graduate of the Chicago University with an A. B. degree.

John Eichenberger, tenor, was the tenor soloist in several of the best paid church choirs in St. Louis, has had theatrical experience and has coached with the best teachers in this country.

William A. Goldberg, baritone, was a boy wonder on the violin, later discovering that he had a fine voice. He gave up the violin for voice although he had played violin for years professionally. He has also sung leading grand opera roles in English before entering the layman.

William James Breach, accompanist and monologist, makes one of the hits of the program. He has been with the company from its inception and has also studied with the best teachers.

Candidates at Freewater, FREEWATER, Ore., Nov. 21.—Following are nominees for the municipal election: Mayor, Harvey Van Slyke; city recorder, M. Pritchett; councilmen, Aleck Mauela, John Brinker and H. Q. Mansfield.
