Press Agents' Announcements of Present and Coming Attractions at Pendleton's Many Show Houses.

Pastime—Saturday.
 "Why I Am Here," Vilagrat featuring Irene Hawley and Alfred Paget. An innocent flirtation leads to serious consequences. The villainess pursues him until she gets him where she wants him. This picture mixes serious tragedy and farce and has as much fun with the audience as the audience does with it. You will enjoy this picture thoroughly, for it is unlike other pictures.

"The Blue and the Gray," Biograph featuring Irene Hawley and Alfred Paget. Proving that love knows no uniform. It was Christmas eve in the south but the spirit of peace and love did not preclude the northern girl's heart. The gallantry of the young southern swains, however, was more than manifest, when a drunken band of unionists entered the house—among them her sweetheart. From him was protection needed most. His rival a confederate soldier, showed her that character is far above political principle, and true love came into its own.

"The Touch of a Child," Sellig, Little Lillian Wade, plays the child whose need of a mother's care recalls the great singer from her longing for fame.

"Pathe Weekly," with its interesting illustrated news events and comic section drawn by Bud Fisher. Mutt's higher education stands the test of a coinless poker game.

Pastime—Sunday-Monday.
 The scheme of an unscrupulous woman to inherit a fortune forms the plot of the powerful two-part Kalem "The Man Who Vanished," featuring Carlyle Blackwell and Billie Rhodes. Hobart inherits his father's fortune. His aunt resolves to do away with him in order that her husband might inherit the money. The two fill shells with a deadly explosive and slip them into Hobart's hunting bag. A shell bursts the gun and the boy is injured. He is rescued by his sweetheart and taken to her home. His servants believe he has been killed. Later the boy returns home. The aunt learns that Hobart's sweetheart possesses dangerous evidence against her. She locks the girl up in a steel vault. The girl is rescued just in time, however, and the wicked couple arrested.

"A Sense of Humor," Edison comedy featuring Arthur Hogue and Sally Crute. Reggie, an English youth who has always dreamed of killing grizzlies and fighting savages in the states, finally sails for America. His new-found friends get up a magnificent Indian fight for him in which he is decidedly the victor.

"Love's Descent," Pathway. This picture is nicely presented photographically and sincerely acted throughout. There is something fine about the way in which the lame brother continued the correspondence with the girl back east after his brother had been killed. Then she came west, and of course, marries the lame boy.

Cozy.
 The Tivoli Novelty Trio will be the vaudeville attraction, at this house on Sunday matinee and evening. This is we believe the best trio we have ever had and is a much higher priced attraction than the usual run of vaudeville acts seen on the stage of the small town theaters. This act comes to us highly recommended and is sure to please our patrons.

Picture program for Sunday only; change Monday.

"The Revelation," Kaybee. A subject dealing with re-incarnation and beginning in Prehistoric days when the cave man fought for his rights and his family. The story finishes in modern times and shows he and his former wife re-incarnated. A very interesting picture.

"The Problem Love Solved" Than-houser. A story of modern business life; the dictograph is used in one very effective scene to bring about the downfall of a pair of crooks.

"The Padre's Sacrifice," Majestic. The Padre's unselfishness was the means of bringing an outlaw to lead a better life. A fine picture for Sunday.

We were not notified as to the comedy subject definitely, but were told it would doubtless be another of the Keystone comedies.

Alta Theater.
 Special tonight, entire change of program, no vaudeville, straight pictures with a song intermission number. The pictures offered consist of "The Temptation of Jane (Gale)" Imp. Two reels of exceptional interest and merit. The Animated Weekly of Current Events, carrying a good list of events of world wide interest. A great burlesque comedy by the Nestor Co.—"His Harum."

How to Bankrupt the Doctors.
 A prominent New York physician says, "If it were not for the thin stockings and thin soled shoes worn by women the doctors would probably be bankrupt." When you develop into pneumonia but treat it to attract a cold do not wait for it to develop. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds, and has won a wide reputation by its cures of these diseases. It is most effective and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers. Adv.

MILTON PASTOR STRICKEN SUDDENLY WITH DEATH.
 MILTON, Ore., Dec. 13.—Stricken with apoplexy while cutting wood, Rev. T. H. Henderson of Milton died several hours later.

Rev. Henderson, who was 70 years of age, was born in Missouri and came to the northwest in 1871, settling in the Willamette valley. He was a minister in the Congregational church at Salem for a number of years. Eight years ago he moved to Milton, and one year later opened a grocery store which he has conducted since that time.

He leaves his wife and three children: Mrs. Nellie Mansfield, of Freewater; Hershel, a student in Whitman college; and Travis of Portland. The latter son arrived in Milton this morning.

WOMAN GIVES HEART HINTS.
 Divorce Witness Tells of Being Told How to Flirt.
 ST. LOUIS, Dec. 13.—Miss Ida Jones caused smiles in Circuit Judge Taylor's court while testifying in the divorce suit of Mrs. Gladys Dee Stone against Edgar Cola Stone, when she stated Mrs. Stone once offered to show her how to capture the heart of a man.

According to the witness, Mrs. Stone supplemented this offer by the statement that she wasn't a man in the world with whom she couldn't flirt.

Miss Jones originally had been subpoenaed as a witness for Mrs. Stone, but her testimony favored Stone. This was brought out when Mrs. Stone's attorney, former Judge Homer, on cross-examination, asked the witness about being subpoenaed.

Miss Jones told the court she called Mrs. Stone on the telephone five minutes after midnight and told Mrs. Stone she would cause her arrest if Mrs. Stone slandered her. It later developed Miss Jones had been mistaken regarding certain testimony by Mrs. Stone. Miss Jones said Mrs. Stone flirted.

Paul Sherry assistant treasurer of the Savings Trust company, testified to being out with the Stones and others one night. He said Mrs. Stone drank six or seven mixed drinks during the evening. The drinks included highballs, cocktails and beer, he testified.

Stone's father, Percy Stone, general manager of the Continental Casualty company, and his divorced wife, now Mrs. A. D. Campbell of Chicago, were in court to testify.

Ill-Luck to Friday.
 BRISTOL, R. I., Dec. 13.—Disregarding the superstition attaching ill-luck to Friday, the builders of the Vanderbilt syndicate yacht, which is to be a candidate to become defender of the America cup, cast her keel. The cast is believed to have been successful and 124,000 pounds of lead were cooling within the molding frame.

A little ceremony added interest to the casting of the keel, when Miss Agnes Herreshoff, daughter of the designer, tossed into the melted metal several bright pennies. The coins had been given her for the purpose by Cornelius Vanderbilt and other members of the syndicate.

Fit His Case Exactly.
 "When father was sick about six years ago he read an advertisement of Chamberlain's Tablets in the papers that fit his case exactly," writes Miss Margaret Campbell of Ft. Smith, Ark. "He purchased a box of them and he has not been sick since. My sister had stomach trouble and was also benefited by them." For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

$14,000 Voted to Mrs. Gallard.
 WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—In recognition of the distinguished services of the late Lieutenant Colonel David Gallard, U. S. A., as a member of the Isthmian canal commission, the house passed a bill to appropriate for Mrs. Gallard $14,000, the equivalent of a year's salary of a commissioner. Representative Adams, of Georgia, chairman of the Interstate commerce committee, presented the bill and it was passed immediately.

INDIANS INVITED TO RABBIT DRIVE

When the farmers of the Holdman vicinity hold their next rabbit drive next Friday, they will be assisted by a large number of Indians from the local reservation, according to present plans, and the slaughter is expected to be even greater than that of yesterday.

The Indians were willing to join in the drive yesterday but they wanted the spoils for their own tables and, when they heard that the charitable institutions of Portland had put in a prior claim, they lost all interest in the drive. However, Charles Vinson is extending a special invitation to them for next Friday and promises them all of the rabbits they want.

The drive next Friday will be made from the direction of Hermiston and Stanfield and it is expected that at least a thousand rabbits will be killed. Residents of Pendleton are again invited to participate.

The 300 rabbits brought in yesterday were shipped last evening to the Portland Commons by express, the shipment weighing 1500 pounds.

Fights Toe to Toe.
 WINDSOR, Ont., Dec. 12.—Joe Mandot of New Orleans and Pat Bourland of Windsor lightweight, stood toe to toe and battled eight vicious rounds here. The popular decision gave Mandot a shade the better of the bout. Neither fighter appeared to have any advantage when they threw science to the winds and slugged, but Mandot's superior cleverness and generalship gave him the margin.

California Woman Seriously Alarmed.
 "A short time ago I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs and caused me a great deal of annoyance. I would have had coughing spells and my lungs were so sore and inflamed I began to be seriously alarmed. A friend recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, saying she had used it for years. I bought a bottle and it relieved my cough the first night, and in a week I was rid of the cold and soreness of my lungs," writes Miss Marie Gerber, Sawtelle, Cal. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

 MONMOUTH, Ore., Dec. 13.—Exhibits at the Polk County Poultry show have been larger in number than at any previous show. About 400 birds are on display and some valuable cups are offered to the winners. Several counties are represented at the show this year.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—According to Dr. Harvey Wiley, a powerful Washington lobby was keeping the pure food law from being enforced.

THE ALTA THEATER.
 This photograph shows the entrance and lobby of the new Alta theater in Alta street, one of Pendleton's popular playhouses. Manager O'Hphant has been booking some entertaining acts in the past and has some others for the future, which will be on a larger scale than heretofore. In every respect this playhouse is modern and is a credit to the city.

GATARRH OF THE PHARYNX.

Clearing out your throat every day, all day. That is what you have been doing for months. Possibly years. A little mucus covers the pharynx.

If you were to go to a doctor he would tell you that you have pharyngitis. If you were to look into your own throat you would find just back of the soft palate a red, lumpy, granular appearance of the back part of the throat. Pharyngitis the doctors call it.

Perhaps he would call it, follicular pharyngitis. It causes you constant annoyance. You are always making slight disturbances when seated in an audience. Can't hold your throat still. Stringy mucus bothers you. Worse in the morning.

A-hem! A-hem! A-hem! That is the way you are going nearly all day. Sometimes in the night when you wake up. You ought to gargle your throat with salt water every morning. Cold salt water. That clears out the throat perfectly and makes it ready for treatment.

Peruna is the treatment. Begin with a teaspoonful before each meal and at bedtime. Try it for a week. You will be convinced. Of course, Peruna will not entirely relieve you in a week. That is too much to expect of any remedy. But it will benefit you so much you will be convinced. Yes, it will. It has done this many times.

Follicular pharyngitis. Big words. Almost as bad as the disease. But if you take Peruna for one month regularly, you may forget that you ever had such a disease. Then you will have a perfect right to forget the big words too.

People who object to liquid medicines can now obtain Peruna Tablets. Ask Your Druggist for Free Peruna Lucky Day Almanac for 1914.
