Woman and Her Varied Interests

Social and Club News, Personals, Fashions, Home Hints and Other Items of Interest to the World Feminine.

SOCIETY

One of the pleasurable events of the week will be a dancing party to be given Thursday evening by Pendleton lodge No. 288, B. P. O. E., in the Eagle-Woodman hall. A committee consisting of L. D. Drake, R. W. Fletcher, Oscar Mahler, Frank Frazier and Jack Gibson, is now making preparations for the event. The affair will be strictly informal, the invitations sent out to members referring to it as "one of those old-fashioned, good-time dancing parties." This will be the first of a series of such dances. The next one will be on February 18 and, in all probability, will take the form of a "kid" party such as was given so successfully several years ago.

This afternoon the pupils and friends of Mrs. J. R. Dickson are listening to a lecture on music by Dr. Emil Enna, Portland's most noted pianist who is here with Robert Lovell Wilson, a well known baritone and English ballad singer, to fill an engagement at the Alta theater this evening. They are en route to Denver and eastern points.

A number of Pendleton people and many visitors from Stanfield, Hermiston and other county points were present last evening at Echo for the banquet and social session given by the Masons of that place last evening. Hon. W. R. Ellis of this city, was the speaker of the evening. Following the banquet, dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

Mrs. L. A. Copelin of Bismarck, N. D., who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Roland E. Chloupek, for several days, left yesterday en route to Los Angeles.

Mrs. Herbert Strohm of Hermiston came up yesterday and will spend the week in Pendleton. Her husband is here also, doing jury duty at the session of the circuit court.

Miss Viola Shea, who has been teaching near Pilot Rock, resigned her position yesterday and came into Pendleton. She will undergo an operation for appendicitis tomorrow.

The Thursday Afternoon club will meet on Thursday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. W. C. E. Pruitt with Mrs. Pruitt and Mrs. G. Irving La Dow as hostesses.

Mrs. James B. Perry and daughter, Miss Jennie Perry, went to Echo yesterday to attend the Masonic function given there last evening.

Mrs. Clark E. Nelson left Saturday night for Portland for a visit with her sisters, Mrs. Seth Catlin and Mrs. Edwin J. Burke.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gillette arrived home this morning from Los Angeles where they have been spending the past several months.

Mrs. Merle R. Chessman is entertaining the South Hill Bridge Club this afternoon.

ZAPATA, THE DREADED REBEL

Zapata has been operating as an individual revolutionist in Mexico, striking terror to the heart of ranchers in the southwest portion of the country. He is said to be organizing his small band for an assault against Mexico City.
