

URGES DEMOCRATS TO ENROLL FOR WILSON

WILL M. PETERSON ADDRESSES LETTER TO PRECINCT COMMITTEEMEN.

Those Who Back President Should Register Democratic and Prepare to Uphold Policies.

In an open letter to the precinct committeemen of Umatilla county, Will M. Peterson, democratic county chairman, urges all democrats to register as such and to prepare to uphold the policies of Woodrow Wilson. The letter in full is as follows: To Precinct Democratic Committeemen in Umatilla County, Gentlemen:

We are approaching another election. Our people should register at once. All persons entitled to register and vote who are in sympathy with the Woodrow Wilson administration should register as democrats. Heretofore, for several years past, a large number of voters have been registering as republicans but voting the democratic ticket. Generally speaking, every voter should vote as he registers, except, of course, in those instances where a stronger and better man is a candidate for office upon a ticket different from the party affiliation of the voter. Of course, the time has come when good citizenship impels most of the voters who think seriously and patriotically to vote for men who are efficient, honest, and upright, regardless of political affiliation. As a general rule, however, the majority of candidates for office, regardless of political affiliation, are honest, upright men who have the best interest of their country at heart. A republican of good intentions is just as good a citizen as a democrat of equally good intentions. As far as personal citizenship is concerned, republicans are as good as democrats, and democrats are as good as republicans; but, at the present time, we believe that the principles of the democratic party are superior to those of the republican party and that the government is in safer hands when controlled by the democratic party than when controlled by the republican party.

The democratic party in Oregon in its campaign this year will go before the people standing solidly upon the principles of government enunciated by Woodrow Wilson. Heretofore, the party has pointed with pride to Jefferson, Jackson, Cleveland and Bryan. It is not unmindful of the many good principles of government proclaimed by these good men and reveres their noble deeds; but a new political era has come, a new epoch in American history has been started, and he who has given democracy new life, who has launched forth the new political era, who has started the new epoch in American history, is today America's greatest political leader and most distinguished citizen—President Wilson. It is only the hide-bound, prejudiced, uncompromising partisan—the doubting Thomas—who fails to recognize this fact. All patriotic citizens—especially the young men and young women who will register and vote this year their first time—should carefully consider this matter. It is an easy matter to follow a leader. If the leader is efficient, of high ideals and unquestioned patriotism, he will lead rightly. If he is inefficient, demagogic and generally untrustworthy, his leadership will be wrong, and government therefore under the wrong leader will be a failure as long as he is a leader. When a good leader, a safe and sane leader, a thoroughly conservative leader with progressive ideas and plenty of energy is selected as the chief executive officer of the nation, government is always secure and the people get a square deal. Such a leader today is leading the great majority of the American people. Many hundred thousand voters who voted against him now fully recognize his greatness and sing his praises. Many great newspapers which formerly criticized him severely, arraigned him bitterly, are now praising him and telling us of his splendid achievements and remarkable leadership.

The democratic party should carefully see to it that every candidate upon its ticket in Oregon this year is a Simon-Pure Woodrow Wilson democrat. No other kind of democrat can be elected unless he has for his opponent an inefficient, unscrupulous candidate.

One of the imperative duties of each citizen of lawful age is to register and vote—to register right and vote right. Honest people frequently differ as to what is right and what is wrong from a political standpoint; but, good government cannot be had without good officials to make, interpret and execute the laws. A thoroughly competent Woodrow Wilson democrat should be nominated for each elective office in the campaign this year.

Champ Clark, one of the great and good democrats recently said: "For sixteen long wearisome years all the democrats could do was to promise what they would accomplish if they were given power. It took us all that time to convince the American people that we were earnest in our expressions. Now all that is changed. We can, with pride and pleasure, talk about what we have done and also about what we intend to do."

Another splendid citizen recently said: "The record of the last ten months with democracy in power at Washington, is one which should be not alone a source of pride to the democrats, but to all the people of this country, for the record is of deeds done in the service of the whole people. A new light has dawned and the country goes forward to its greater destiny. Democracy leads in the van of progress, and its Great Captain, Woodrow Wilson, proves his right to be hailed as the champion of the people."

Therefore, permit me, without the least idea of dictating to any one, to urge the democratic party in Umatilla county to encourage those who believe in Woodrow Wilson to register as democrats.

Yours very truly,
WILL M. PETERSON,
Chairman

MEDFORD LINE TO EXTEND.

Bulls Street Railway May Give Transportation for Mine.

MEDFORD, Ore., Feb. 16.—With the completion of the first two-mile unit of the Bulls street railway, the members of the company announced that the system will be extended south toward Ashland for three miles this spring. It is generally believed the destination will be the Sunrise coal mine, which has been idle for several years because of the lack of transportation facilities. It is said that this coal, while of a low grade as a household fuel, is well adapted to the purposes of the new Beaver Cement plant at Gold Hill, the large content of ash being available as a by-product.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Whether Lina Cavalleri, most beautiful of face, voice and figure of all the world renowned operatic stars, has been married to that handsome tenor, Lucian Muratore, is a question that is being discussed by the people who count in operatic circles. Many times has it

PIONEERS WILL GATHER IN SPOKANE ON AUGUST 4TH

SPOKANE, Wash., Feb. 16.—Pioneers who had a part in the early building of the Pacific northwest, especially the Spokane country, will gather at what may be their last big meeting, August 4, 1914, to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the fire that destroyed the business district of Spokane. As a tribute to the energy and spirit of the pioneers who, in the face of discouragement and ruin, reared a metropolitan city on the ashes of the frontier town, the business men of Spokane will sponsor a public celebration. August 4 will be "home coming day" for the pioneers. Details of the event are being worked out by a committee appointed by President Thomas S. Griffith of the chamber of commerce. The committee already is at work collecting photographs of the Spokane country made when the Indians disputed the presence of the white empire builders, and a valuable historical record is being compiled which in a few years the blight of time would have made well nigh impossible.

SPOKANE, Wash., Feb. 16.—Fearing that hunters might mistake the animal for a wild creature and shoot at it the citizens of Coolin, Idaho, have equipped their pet deer, made famous by its appetite for chewing tobacco, with a large cowbell and decorated it with a blanket on which is inscribed its name and history, according to Leonard Paul, a resident of Coolin, who was in Spokane this week, en route to Honolulu, H. I., for a several weeks' visit. "The deer still takes his chew of tobacco regularly, but of late has been roaming further
