$3,000,000 WILL BE SPENT DREDGING HARBOR

OAKLAND, Cal., April 12.—The Josephs syndicate of London, is closing a deal with the Western Pacific railroad for the purchase of part of the railroad's waterfront franchise in what is known as the "white meat" district of Oakland's harbor frontage for the purpose of spending $3,000,000 in dredging and building docks for a European line of steamships that it is declared, will dock in Oakland soon after the opening of the Panama canal.

The syndicate plans to dredge 1500 feet toward the land, making a fairway 300 feet wide, which will permit huge ocean liners to dock at Oakland.

The so-called "white meat" part of the waterfront is the choicest of the city's land available for dockage. It includes what is now part of the Western Pacific's mole and is listed in the extension of the franchise that the railroad is now seeking.

A valuable dressing for flesh wounds, burns, scalds, old sores, rash, chafed skin, is BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. It is both healing and antiseptic. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by all dealers.—ADV.

INDUSTRIAL ZONES ARE ESTABLISHED AT OAKLAND

OAKLAND, Cal., April 12.—Factories and other industrial establishments are encroaching so steadily on Oakland's residential districts that a bill has been introduced in the city council establishing seven industrial zones in the city, to which it is proposed to confine any business establishments that are considered objectionable.

The bill provides that in the residence districts it shall be unlawful to establish any of the following businesses: Quarries, stone crushers, rolling mills, machine shops, planing mills, carpet beating establishments, milled or insane, stables, wood or cleaning and dyeing establishments, laundries, fireworks factories, soap, glue, or other factories, tanneries, blacksmith shops, slaughter houses, reduction works, vinegar or pickle works, hospitals, asylums for feeble minded or insane, stables, wood or cleaning and dyeing establishments, lumber yards, undertaking establishments and all factories where power other than animal power is used.

SOCIETY

With the passing of Easter and also the Lenten season in which the check was placed upon social life. With the release of the restraint, the post-season will open with a whirl of festivities. Already a number of large events have been planned and more are in the making. On Wednesday evening of this week, eleven prominent young bachelors will be hosts at a dancing party in the Eagle-Woodman hall and the function will be one of the most elaborate of the season. On Friday evening, the Sigma Epsilon Omicron sorority gives its annual ball, which is always one of the exclusive events on the social calendar. This evening the formal opening of the club rooms of the Young Men's Club at 223 East Court street will be held and a large attendance is promised. On Thursday and Friday evenings, "The House That Jack Built," a home talent musical production, will be the drawing card.

The Current Literature Club met Saturday with Mrs. R. E. Ringo and Mrs. Roy Raley as hostesses at the home of Mrs. Raley, and the following program was given:

Romance of Panama: the discovery, founding of old Panama, pirate Morgan, old Spanish ruins, Porto Bel bridge, towers, etc.—Mrs. E. B. Aldrich.
Balboa and the Pacific—Mrs. E. T. Wade
Reading poem—"Balboa"—Mrs. G. M. Rice.
Journey to the Isthmus, Panama City today, the sea wall, Sunday lottery, women of Panama—Mrs. C. S. Jerald.

The Pearl Fisheries of the Americas—Mrs. James Johns.
Discussion—"Was the recognition of the Republic of Panama a breach of international morality"—Led by Mrs. J. A. Fee.

Miss Edna Zimmerman's solos, "When You Come Home" and "The Shadow March," and Miss Burchill's "Carmena" were very much enjoyed. Novel refreshments were served in the form of frijoles.

At 5:20 p. m., last night Geo. A. Neese, manager of the Singer Sewing Machine company, with headquarters in Pendleton, and Miss Ruth Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Adams of Elgin, were united in marriage by Rev. E. B. Fyke of the Methodist church. The ceremony took place in the parlors of the Sommer Hotel and was witnessed by the parents of the bride and her sister, Miss Ella Adams of Elgin, Mr. Hatch, a local agent of the Singer company and other friends of the bride and groom. After the knot was tied the party set off for the Model Restaurant where a special dinner was served the invited guests. Mr. and Mrs. Neese will make their home in Pendleton and their many friends both here and in Elgin wish them a merry voyage on the sea of life—La Grande Observer.

A number of out-of-town people will be here Wednesday for the dancing party to be given by a number of popular bachelors. Among them will be Mrs. Thomas Vaughan, Mrs. Katherine Eppinger and Mrs. Ida Hunziker of Portland.

Mrs. Henry W. Collins, arrived home last evening from a visit in Portland. She was accompanied by Miss Fay Bartholomew, who will be the house guest of Mrs. Sam R. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Landers are enjoying a visit from Mr. Landers' brother, J. H. Landers and his family, who have come west from Illinois to locate.

Among the students home for the Easter vacation are Miss Claire Raley and Lyman G. Rice who are attending the University of Oregon.

The Busy Bee Club will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Greulich, 319 West Court street.

A daughter was born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Norvell a popular young Helix couple.

Home Hints and Recipes

Wash Blankets on a Windy Day.
Wash your blankets on a clear, windy day, if possible, says the Dallas News. Prepare strong suds by melting half a bar of any good white soap and putting it into half a tub of hot water, then add half a cup of salt and two tablepoonsful of ammonia. Shake the blankets free from dust and line, put them in the tub of water and sop up and down until the dirt is removed; rub the dirty spots with the hands. Squeeze the water out, put the blankets in a second tub prepared the same as the first, and treat the blankets to the same as when in the first tub of suds. Rinse in a third tub, then put the blankets through a wringer. Stretch them slightly while drying. When dry, lay on the ironing board and with a very stiff brush brush the blankets the same direction as the wool nap.

Candle Sallets Lasts Longer.
A woman took her dinner candles from the crocer boy, lit each until the point burned down, then placed them on a newspaper in a row on the oven edge. When they had lost a degree of hardness they were removed to the table, still on the newspaper, dusted slightly with fine salt, the salt pressed in and a pinch put in the cap next the wick, says the New York Press.

"Why do you season paraffin candles?" she was asked. And the answer was: "Because they burn much longer." But you must use glass candlesticks. Silver and salt do not pair well. It is an old-time economy, but not much approved by our grandmothers, who took their sterling silver so calmly, but thought too much of it to salt their candles.
Dinner candles kept in the icebox will not sputter or run.

The Care of Children

Handcraft—Sand Play.
There is magic for little folks in a pan of clean, white sand. An azarware dripping-pan of very large size and with handles is a most satisfactory and inexpensive sand tray, and may be found in any kindergarten shop. Cover a low sewing table with oilcloth, set the pan, filled two-thirds full of sea sand, upon it, and the home kindergarten baby will be happy with this new play material for days.

The sand should be dampened that the small fingers may mold it into balls. One large sand ball with a smaller one set carefully on top makes a very real little snow man. Later, with mother's help, some top landscapes may be laid out.

The damp sand can be smoothed and patted into miniature roads, streets and small city squares. Pebbles and small sea-shells may outline the streets in this toy village; pine and hemlock twigs stuck into the damp sand make trees, and the little wooden houses from the child's Noah's ark may line the streets.

A camp for the toy soldier may be laid out in the sand tray also—a delightful occupation for February, our patriotic month. The child first smooths the sand carefully and presses it flat to form a parade-ground.

Next comes the tents, small oblongs of stiff white paper bent once through the center and placed in evenly spaced, neat rows in the sand parade ground. A penny flag may stand in the sand beside the first tent to mark it as the captain's. If no toy soldiers form part of the playroom population very satisfactory soldiers may be made of the colored wooden kindergarten beads which should form part of the home kindergarten play equipment. Three of these colored beads, a cube, a cylinder, and a sphere fastened together with a toothpick or a burnt match, make a very realistic little soldier, especially if a tiny colored paper soldier cap be perched on the little round wooden head.

These soldiers will stand by their tents or parade the sand camp ground with all the dignity, in little folks' eyes, of a real army. That is, after all, the chief educational value of kindergarten play—the element of imagination which the child puts into it.

Another sand play may be the making of an arctic scene. Rounded mounds of sand with doorways shaped by the child's fingers represent arctic huts. An icebound sea may be

ANSWER THE CALL

Pendleton People Have Found That This Is Necessary.

A cold, a strain, a sudden wrench. A little cause may hurt the kidneys. Spells of backache often follow. Or some irregularity of the urine. A splendid remedy for such attacks. A medicine that has satisfied thousands.

Is Doan's Kidney Pills, a special kidney remedy. Many Pendleton people rely on it. Here is Pendleton proof:

G. W. Knight, retired farmer, 513 Franklin street, Pendleton, Ore., says: "For eight or ten years I was troubled by pains through my back and kidneys and sometimes in my sides. I had to get up several times at night to pass the kidney secretions and there was a great deal of sediment in them, that looked like brick dust. I tried a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they soon relieved the backache and regulated the action of my kidneys. All I said about Doan's Kidney Pills when I recommended them several years ago, holds good. You may continue to publish my statement for the benefit of other kidney sufferers."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Knight had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

DRUGS EXCITE YOUR KIDNEYS, USE SALTS

IF YOUR BACK HURTS OR BLADDER BOTHERS, DRINK LOTS OF WATER.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking and no doubt you will wonder what will become of your kidney trouble and backache.
