KUBS DROP SATURDAY GAME TO BUCKS, 7-2

POOR SUPPORT BY BAKER PUTS THEIR SOUTHPAW AT DISADVNTAGE.

Baker had a system full of boots Saturday and it did not require a great deal of effort for the Buckarooes to win a victory. It was an off day for the Kubs while the Bucks showed improved form. The score at the end was Pendleton 7, Baker 2.

The greater part of the game was a battle of southpaws with the Baker southpaw working under difficulties by reason of poor support. Lodell sent Shroeder, who worked the first four innings of Friday's game, was in for another tryout and he delivered the goods this time. He went along with smooth sailing until the eighth when he encountered a little rough water. Gravelle was sent to his relief thereupon.

Boeller really pitched shutout ball for the first six innings despite the fact that Pendleton hung up four markers in that period. In the opening inning, the Kubs played more rotten ball than thy had in the whole four previous games. Lind started the series of blunders by dropping Naughton's fly ball. McKnight, playing third, helped matters along by making a wild peg to first after Lodell had laid down a bunt hit. Naughton scoring on the play and Lodell reaching second. Varian sacrificed his captain along and when Pritchard booted Brigg's grounder, the second circuit was completed. This was all in this inning but in the third, another pair of Buckaroo runners scored. Naughton again started the trouble by waiting for four wide ones. Lodell tickled one in front of the plate and McKeen dropped King's throw. With two on, Briggs drove out a pretty hit to right, scoring both.

Boeller weakened in the seventh. Colvin led off with a single and stole second. With two down, Lodell brought him home with a clean hit. In the eighth, Pendleton made it seven for herself. Varian and Briggs led off with hits and Pembroke broke into the hit column with a safe blow that scored both runners.

OSBORNE SPELLS WIN FOR BUCKAROO TEAM

OLD FAVORITE GLADDENS THE HEARTS OF THE FANS, PITCHING GRAND GAME.

Pitching in the form that has endeared him to the baseball bugs, Chief Osborne yesterday celebrated his return to the Buckaroo field by twirling the first shutout game of the season and thereby enabling Pendleton to take the long end of the opening series. The score was 3 to 0 at the end, 0 to 0 until the last of the fifth and 1 to 0 until the last of the eighth. It was a beautiful game to watch and there was a pretty good sized attendance despite the fact that two lodges ran excursions out of the city.

Osborne never was in better form for slab duty. His curves were breaking nicely, his fast one smoked like a hot dog and he had a slow ball that fooled more than one batter. He was tickled for one hit in each of the first three innings but from then on improved with each ball delivered, and ended by striking out all three batters in the ninth.

While passing the doughnuts around, Sutherland, who did the chucking for Baker, must not be overlooked. This elongated sapling has a choice assortment of benders and really pitched winning ball. It was the second hard game of the week he has lost and he has ample excuse for cursing the luck that attends him.

While Osborne's pitching and the support given him never gave the Kubs much of an opportunity to circle the bags, their failure to prevent the Buckarooes from making the circuit must be ascribed to the fact that they did not play good baseball at the critical times. King has a new third baseman and a new second sacker in the game and Watts was playing his first game at short. Perhaps this was one reason why the "heads up" stuff was lacking.

Sutherland was lucky to get by the first frame without a score against him. He issued his only walk of the game to Naughton, first up, and that player immediately stole second. Lodell bunted to Sutherland, who mussed up the ball, making all hands safe. A double steal was then started but a perfect peg from King to Togneri and back again caught Naughton at the plate. Two flies to McLinn ended the inning.

It was not until the fifth that the succession of ciphers on the score board was broken. In the last of this inning a lone marker was hung up. With one down, Pinkie Colvin clouted out a clean single and stole second. Naughton hit the ball to Watts who overthrew first, allowing Colvin to reach home. Lodell stung the ball for a hot one down the third base line and Sigsbee was lucky to knock it down. Naughton slid into third on the play and Lodell stole second. With two down, it looked as if Varian were slated for a walk but the umps called him out on alleged strikes which aroused Varian's ire and almost precipitated trouble.

In the eighth came the other two. Osborne opened with his second single of the day. Naughton bunted. King fielded the ball, turned and whanged it to first without hesitation. Togneri, however, had gone to sleep and failed to cover the bag, thus permitting the ball to pass on to the bleachers. With men on second and third, Lodell hit a ground ball at Watts who cut Osborne off at the plate. Lodell stole second. Briggs hit over second and Naughton scored. Watts threw to first too late to catch Brigges and Lodell took advantage of the momentary hesitation after the decision to dash for home which he reached safely by a pretty slide.

SATURDAY'S GAME IS LOST BY N. YAKIMA

BRAVES UNABLE TO WIN AGAINST BEARS DESPITE EXCELLENT PLAYING.

WALLA WALLA, April 13.—With everybody playing ball, all runs earned and no balloon ascensions to mar, the fifth game of the Yakima-Walla Walla series Saturday afternoon saw Yakima still in the three cipher column, for in spite of the steady work of the Braves defense and their attempted hitting rallies, the Bears tucked another scalp under their belts by a 4 to 2 score.

Joseph Jonas was probably the principal reason of their fifth failure, his Harveyized steel whip from the mound being invincible in the pinches, while the Bears infield responded nobly whenever called upon. The result was that the Braves had about as much chance as a rabbit in a den of wolves.

Kile pitched a good brand of ball but was frequently landed upon in a shocking manner, Johnson, Lundstrum, Sheely and Schmidt all adding two hits to their averages.

DERRICK USED IN NICK OF TIME SAVES GAME FROM WALLA WALLA.

WALA WALLA, April 13.—(Special)—With the score 3 to 2 in his favor at the end of the seventh inning yesterday, Fullwidter, Yakima's new hurler from Vancouver, began to weaken in the eighth inning, in the same manner that all the Brave pitchers have been doing in every game of this series, and came near losing the game right there but Ford used the derrick in the nick of time. Peterson went to the mound with one down, the score tied, Gardner having walked and Childers having hit for two bases. Peterson struck out Lundstrum and pitched steady ball thereafter winning the game in handy style.

The Bears were weakened by the loss of Cap Brown, account sickness and Early Sheely, whose foot was hurt Saturday, and Lund, a recruit pitcher was unable to stand the pace of Ford's Braves. He was also derricked in the seventh, Bridger going in with the score tied and two men on. One more hun came in on Bridger and the Braves got another in the eighth on Harrod's walk and Taylor's two-bagger.

It was the most exciting game of the series, the features being brilliant fielding by both clubs.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 13.—San Francisco ball fans are jubilant because the Seals are riding in first place in the percentage column, one-half a game ahead of the Venice Tigers.

San Francisco knocked out a 5 to 3 victory in the morning, but it is harder to chronicle the happenings in the afternoon yesterday. It could scarcely be termed a baseball game by any stretch of the imagination.

It was simply a continuance of the slaughter of the innocent and it gave the Seals the series, five games to one. Such a game on so opportune a day was not in order. There was a packed crowd of 12,000 in the Recreation Park and there was hardly room enough for the hearty laughs that were raised at the expense of the Portland champions.

FAN FODDER

We took the opening series, something we have never done before.

It was Easter Sunday and Osborne, as was proper on the occasion, presented the Kubs with a pretty row of goose-eggs.

The sound of the umps announcing the battery as "Osborne and Pembrooke," brought back happy memories. The combination has brought about more than one victory.

King has a good man in Sigsbee at third and he has another good man coming up in Grant. Also he has Carson, a Vancouver cast-off pitcher, slated to report this week and Pembrooke is responsible for the statement that he is a winning southpaw.

Bowden was the last man up in the sixth and hit into a double play. He was the first man up in the seventh but no one noticed the fact. It didn't buy anything, though, as he struck out.

Varian had a run-in with the umpire yesterday when the umps called a second and third strike on him. He made a hostile demonstration which should have given him a bench ticket. President Ritner of the league levied a five dollar fine against Varian and declares he will fine every player who tries to pull any rowdy stuff.

Pinkie Colvin, who has already been christened "Ty Cobb" by the bleacherites, tried a one handed stab at a drive in the fourth and dropped the ball. He was so chagrined and so fearful of being panned that he skulked to the bench at the end of the inning by a roundabout route.

The Pendleton team left for North Yakima this afternoon to open the season there tomorrow. Senner will probably pitch the first game.

Baker yesterday released Pritchard and Lodell signed him up to play third instead of Nelson who, though a good fieler, cannot bat.

Chief Rooter Turner captured King's angora Saturday and the Baker manager was so wroth that he priced guns at several stores that evening.

Newsboy Missing Pennies Sets Watch and Thief Is Caught.

PITTSBURG, April 13.—Stealing 12 pennies from a newsboy's stand at Penn and Highland avenues brought woe to Elmer McCartney, aged 51, of 7017 Formosa way, who was fined $10 in the Frankstown avenue police court.

Henry Dieson, the little newsboy, told the court that for some time he had missed pennies. When he was away from the stand his customers would select their favorite newspaper and leave the pennies in payment. He said he set a watch and caught McCartney in the act.

HERE IS MILADY'S SPRING WALKING SUIT

Fashion has decreed this jacket suit for walking this spring. It is very long and very narrow at the bottom. In fact, walking in it must be done with care, for the step will not be within six inches of a natural stride. Of course, this makes walking more difficult, and thereby causes more exercise. But the maker of it calls it an "ideal walking suit."
