SOCIETY

The wedding of a popular young couple of Pendleton was celebrated Saturday evening at nine o'clock when William Garlen Gray claimed as his bride Miss Edna Kennedy. The ceremony was performed at the Christian church by Rev. Tolbert F. Weaver, pastor. The couple were attended by Miss Ethel Smith and Victor Hansen. Only a few friends were present. The bride is a very pretty brunette and is the youngest daughter of J. B. Kennedy, well known retired farmer. Mr. Gray is a popular young man in business and social circles. For the past three years he has been employed as salesman in the Gray Bros. Grocery. Mr. and Mrs. Gray will make their home at 402 Tustin street.

Mrs. William R. Scott of Seattle, who, with her husband, has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Scott near Athena, left today for La Grande to visit for a short time. Her mother, Mrs. Carey Foster, left for home in Prineville this morning. Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Foster are daughters of Dr. H. S. Garfield of this city.

Mrs. G. Bohanan and son, Vernon, of Neugena, Missouri, who have been in the city for a number of days visiting relatives left Sunday on No. 17 for Pendleton where they will visit with friends for an indeterminate time.—La Grande Observer.

Mrs. George Hanson of this city, left yesterday morning for La Grande to attend the funeral of Mrs. Alkine of that city. During her stay there she will be the guest of Mrs. P. Viever.

Mrs. Clara G. Hall of this city and Mrs. C. M. Shields of Milton, were among the delegates to the state Sunday school convention in La Grande last week who returned home yesterday.

Mrs. Stephen A. Lowell returned yesterday from La Grande where she had been to attend the state Sunday school convention.

Mrs. Frank Frazier and Mrs. Charles Hamilton are visiting with friends in Spokane and Wenatchee.

Mrs. Sam Jenkins and Mrs. A. J. Owen have returned from the Sunday school convention at La Grande.

Mrs. W. C. E. Pruitt arrived home this morning from Portland where she had been visiting for a week.

The Care of Children

Set aside one hour a day out of the twelve to play with the children. Go fishing with the boy and umpire his ball game, play dolls with Little Sister, sit on the floor and make scrap-books and build block houses and make sand-piles with the baby.

Initiate the children into the plays that you enjoyed when you were a little girl and the time that you spend with the children will be golden time, paid for in compound interest.

"Somehow, I can't put through a crooked business deal," a man of large financial interests said recently.

"I always remember the games of checkers that my mother and I used to play on the kitchen table, evenings when I was just a little chap. She wouldn't stand for any cheating. She made me realize that an honest game is usually a winning one."

Follow the example of this mother and teach your child through playing with him. Enjoy his blocks, his games, his stories just as much as he does and so develop his great faith in you.

Home Hints and Recipes

Banana Pie.

Bake a pie crust and let it cool. In this slice three bananas; arrange nicely on the bottom. Make a cream of one cupful milk, one half cupful sugar, yolks of two eggs, two tablespoonfuls cornstarch. Boil until thick. Let this cool, then pour over the bananas. Beat the whites and eggs stiff, adding one tablespoonful sugar. Put over top of pie and brown.—Los Angeles Express.

Light Linings.

The dark-colored muff linings are prone to soil light-colored gloves. To prevent this, make separate linings of sheer lawn or muslin and slip them into the muff, says the New York Press. These should be a trifle shorter than the lining itself, so as not to show against the dark background. At the opening of the muff. These linings are easily tucked into place, and, when soiled, can be removed and laundered.

Women as Army Recruits.

LONDON, May 4.—Although Great Britain is not yet ready to give women a voice in the government, the war office authorities are not at all backward in accepting their services in persuading young men to enlist in the regular army.

A naval recruiting campaign was begun today in the London borough of Camberwell in which 300 women

Baby of Future is Considered

Much thought has been given in late years to the subject of maternity. In the case of maternity hospitals equipped with modern methods. But most women prefer their own homes and in the towns and villages must prefer them. And since this is true we know from the great many splendid letters written on the subject that our "Mother's Friend" is a great help to expectant mothers. They write of the wonderful relief, how it seemed to allow the muscles to expand without undue strain and what a splendid influence it was on the nervous system. Such helps as "Mother's Friend" and the broader knowledge of them should have a helpful influence upon babies of the future.

In a little book for such women these points are more thoroughly brought out and a copy will be mailed to anyone who will send us their name and address. "Mother's Friend" is sold in all drug stores and highly recommended for its timely usefulness, its safety and the real help it affords. Ask for it at the store and write us for the book. and girls of that section are playing leading roles. They are distributing from house to house an attractively printed and illustrated pamphlet drawing attention to the delights of army life. There are 27,000 houses in the borough, and before the week is out it is planned to place a copy of the publication in the hands of every man in the place. Besides the women have agreed to do all they can in a personal way to procure enlistments in order to stimulate the recruiting.

The war office has arranged for daily parades and drills of various branches of the service in the streets, and the display of the army moving picture films in the local picture palaces.

The Chamberwell plan will be followed in other London boroughs and provincial towns if it proves a success there. The war office has been frankly worried of late on account of the remarkable falling off of enlistments in recent months and the increasing number of desertions.
