

The East Oregonian has the largest paid circulation of any paper in Oregon...

COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER.

VOL. 26.

DAILY EAST OREGONIAN, PENDLETON, OREGON, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 3, 1914.

NO. 8207

Forecast for Eastern Oregon, by the U.S. Weather Observer at Portland.

OFFICIAL PAPER

HUERTA PROMISES HE WILL GO WHEN STRIFE HAS ENDED

Mexico Must First be Pacified 'Politically' Declares Dictator—Next Move up to Carranza.

REBEL CHIEF KEEPS SILENT

Washington Administration Believes Way Has Been Paved for Clearing the Situation—Strong Pressure Is Being Brought to Bear on Constitutionalists.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—There is no crisis in the mediation situation, President Wilson told visitors today.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—The opinion in official circles was the question of peace or continued strife in Mexico is now up to Carranza to answer.

DURANGO, June 3.—Carranza refused to comment on the mediators' query put to him through Rafael Zúñiga, his representative in Washington.

NIAGARA FALLS, June 3.—Huerta's announcement that he is ready to retire when Mexico is 'pacified politically' is believed to mean that the Washington administration must bring strong pressure to bear on Carranza to get him to agree to an armistice.

INDUSTRIAL WORKERS PLAN TO INVADE J. D.'S TOWN

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., June 2.—Scores of armed constables are prepared to resist the threatened industrial workers' invasion of Tarrytown for an anti-Rockefeller demonstration in the oil king's home town.

COMMERCIAL CLUB MAY SECURE ROOMS IN NEW K-P BUILDING

If the Pendleton Commercial association wishes to secure adequate quarters in a modern building there will be an opportunity to do so in the Knights of Pythias building to be erected at the corner of Main and Water streets.

The proposition of new quarters was presented to the Commercial Club last evening by George Hartman, a member of the lodge building committee.

CITY TO OBSERVE FOURTH OF JULY

Businessmen Planning Celebration for Entertainment of Out-of-town People—All Invited.

Pendleton will celebrate the Fourth of July and will do it in a way that will leave nothing to be desired.

Last evening at the session of the Commercial association, President Tallman named his committees which will prepare for the holiday.

Executive committee—A. J. McAllister, chairman; Leon Cohen, J. F. Robinson.

Accommodations—Derwood Waffle, Dean Tatam, W. B. Humphrey.

Music—Dr. M. S. Kern, Dr. L. D. Ideman, Dr. David B. Hill.

Street decorations—Mark Patton, J. L. Vaughan, Edmund Mable, W. L. Dayton, Wade Privat.

Mounted parade—J. D. Taylor, Carl P. Wier, M. L. Gale, Jackson.

Auto parade—D. H. Nelson, Walter McCormack, Ben F. Trompley, Frank Fairbanks.

Motorcycle parade—G. I. La Dow, Hartman Long.

Grounds—E. C. Frazier, Max Korn, Earl Gillanders.

Spectacular parade—Ray Crystal. Meetings will be held immediately for the outlining of the celebration and the general program is expected to be announced soon.

FIRE-BLIGHT WILL COST FRUIT-GROWERS HEAVILY

MILTON FARMERS WILL LOSE MANY THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS THIS SEASON.

That the fruit growers of the Milton-Freewater district will this year lose many thousands of dollars from fire-blight is the statement made by County Fruit Inspector S. J. Campbell who is in the city today.

Most of the employees had left the building this afternoon else there might have been someone injured when the fall came.

Oil Is Struck at Lorane. COTTAGE GROVE, Ore., June 3.—Good prospects of oil have been struck at Lorane.

WELL KNOWN BANKER IS FOUND SUICIDE. SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—President George H. Luchinsinger of the Humboldt Savings Bank was found dead in the basement of his home.

Aviator Drowned. SESTO, Italy, June 3.—As the result of a bursting engine in the hydro airplane in which he was making a flight, Aviator Cavasco was drowned in Lake Maggiore.

FAMOUS ENGLISH ACTOR AND HIS WIFE LOST IN WRECK

Left to right: Lawrence Irving, son of Sir Henry Irving, and himself a great actor, and his wife, and co-star, Mabel Hackney Irving, who were passengers on the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Ireland...

ELEVATOR FALLS; BUILDING DAMAGED

A five-story elevator on the rear of the new hotel Pendleton collapsed this afternoon about 3 o'clock, falling over on a storehouse used by Gray Brothers and the Pacific Light and Power Co.

The cause of the accident is not known. The elevator was nearly ready to be torn down, it was said, and it was thought the wind might have played a part in weakening the structure.

When the crash came, wooden supports fell to one side, thus missing the hotel building, and fell upon the small storehouse in the rear of the Association building which stands next to the hotel.

Most of the employees had left the building this afternoon else there might have been someone injured when the fall came.

Oil Is Struck at Lorane. COTTAGE GROVE, Ore., June 3.—Good prospects of oil have been struck at Lorane.

WELL KNOWN BANKER IS FOUND SUICIDE. SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—President George H. Luchinsinger of the Humboldt Savings Bank was found dead in the basement of his home.

Aviator Drowned. SESTO, Italy, June 3.—As the result of a bursting engine in the hydro airplane in which he was making a flight, Aviator Cavasco was drowned in Lake Maggiore.

MILITANT SUFFRAGISTS HOLD UP AND BEAT PROMINENT MEN

LONDON, June 3.—Two suffragettes ambushed Dr. F. E. Forward, deputy governor of Holloway jail, where many militants have been imprisoned and seized and horsewhipped him soundly before a policeman rescued him.

BELFAST, June 3.—Two suffragettes last night assaulted Managing Editor Stewart of the Telegraph and Editor Anderson of the News-Letter, injuring Anderson so seriously that he couldn't leave his bed.

SECOND TEST RACE WON BY RESOLUTE

GREENWICH, Conn., June 3.—The yacht Resolute won the second test races from the Vanitie for the honor of defending America's cup.

DAMAGE 'PUT IN THOUSANDS. TOWANDA, Pa., June 3.—Two persons were probably fatally injured and property was damaged to the extent of thousands of dollars as a result of a severe wind and electrical storm.

WELL KNOWN BANKER IS FOUND SUICIDE. SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—President George H. Luchinsinger of the Humboldt Savings Bank was found dead in the basement of his home.

Aviator Drowned. SESTO, Italy, June 3.—As the result of a bursting engine in the hydro airplane in which he was making a flight, Aviator Cavasco was drowned in Lake Maggiore.

OFFER TO DISCLOSE HIS WHEREABOUTS DENIED. LOS ANGELES, June 3.—Is a telegram Mrs. F. Lewis Clark of Spokane denied she had received an anonymous letter in which information regarding the whereabouts of her husband was offered for $50,000.

NEWS SUMMARY. General. Industrial workers plan an invasion of home town of John D. Rockefeller.

Militant suffragists horsewhipped prison official and beat two editors. Huerta is said to be willing to resign as soon as Mexico is pacified.

Directors of New Haven feared to oppose late J. P. Morgan declares witness. Blanquet said to be ready to seize government from Huerta.

Well known Portland woman may die from injuries received in jump from bridge. Local. Big committee appointed to prepare for Fourth of July celebration.

Annual rose show to be held June 17. Big crowd in city to see Sells-Floto circus.

Long survivor of Custer massacre, John Buffalo Bill here. East end fruit growers will lose thousands of dollars from fire blight.

City and county will pave road to cemetery. Commercial club considers offer of new home made by K. of P.

Tire thief tried trick once too often. Excursion of Pendletonians to Union tomorrow. Walla Walla will send excursion to Sunday game here.

BLANQUET SAID READY TO SEIZE CONTROL OF MEXICO

HUERTA'S WAR MINISTER ON VERGE OF REVOLT ACCORDING TO REPORTS.

TORREON, June 3.—Huerta's war minister, General Blanquet is reported on the eve of seizing the Mexico City dictatorship and deporting Huerta.

WRECK OF LOST STEAMSHIP MAY BE RAISED FROM GULF

MONTREAL, June 3.—Government officials are considering whether to raise or dismantle the hulk of the Empress of Ireland. The original intention was to use dynamite, but numerous requests have been received that the ship be raised in order that bodies may be recovered.

Dog Leads Way to Bodies. NORTH BAY, Ont., June 3.—The peculiar actions of a collie dog led to the discovery of a drowning accident in which a whole family was lost.

It's So Different in Paris. PARIS, France, June 3.—A severe cold wave spread over southwestern Europe. Several inches of snow fell in parts of southeastern France, while heavy rains are reported from other regions.

A violent storm raged in the Mediterranean, where numerous fishing boats and other small craft were driven ashore.

Farmhand Drops Dead. VANCOUVER, Wash., June 3.—While working on the Snyder farm, three miles out of the city, John Price, 45 years old, dropped dead from heart disease.

Showers Make Big Berries. WHITE SALMON, Wash., June 3.—Contrary to expectations, the showers every day for the past week have not damaged the strawberry crop.

Aviator Drowned. SESTO, Italy, June 3.—As the result of a bursting engine in the hydro airplane in which he was making a flight, Aviator Cavasco was drowned in Lake Maggiore.

OFFER TO DISCLOSE HIS WHEREABOUTS DENIED. LOS ANGELES, June 3.—Is a telegram Mrs. F. Lewis Clark of Spokane denied she had received an anonymous letter in which information regarding the whereabouts of her husband was offered for $50,000.

NEWS SUMMARY. General. Industrial workers plan an invasion of home town of John D. Rockefeller.

Militant suffragists horsewhipped prison official and beat two editors. Huerta is said to be willing to resign as soon as Mexico is pacified.

Directors of New Haven feared to oppose late J. P. Morgan declares witness. Blanquet said to be ready to seize government from Huerta.

Well known Portland woman may die from injuries received in jump from bridge. Local. Big committee appointed to prepare for Fourth of July celebration.

Annual rose show to be held June 17. Big crowd in city to see Sells-Floto circus.

Long survivor of Custer massacre, John Buffalo Bill here. East end fruit growers will lose thousands of dollars from fire blight.

City and county will pave road to cemetery. Commercial club considers offer of new home made by K. of P.

Tire thief tried trick once too often. Excursion of Pendletonians to Union tomorrow. Walla Walla will send excursion to Sunday game here.

Pendleton wins twelve inning game from Walla Walla.

ROSE SHOW DATE SET FOR JUNE 17

Pendleton's Annual Exhibit Will be Held in Eagle-Woodman Hall—Home Grown Roses to be Featured.

Pendleton's second annual rose show will be held in the Eagle-Woodman hall on Wednesday, June 17, according to a decision reached last evening at a meeting of the floral association.

More and better prizes will be offered this year for the best exhibits, the merchants for the most part putting up the trophies.

Owing to the late frosts, the quality of the roses will probably not be as good as last year, according to a statement made by President I. U. Temple last evening before the Commercial association.

Every visitor to the show will be presented with a buttonhole flower and a number of pretty young girls have been named to attend to this detail.

WALLA WALLA FANS TO SEE GAME IN CITY ON SUNDAY. DRUM CORPS AND A BRASS BAND WILL ACCOMPANY VISITORS HERE.

With a fife and drum corps and a brass band that plays only German tunes to furnish inspiring music, Walla Walla Elks will next Sunday run a big excursion train to Pendleton for the Pendleton-Walla Walla ball game.

While the excursion will be directed by the Walla Walla lodge of Elks, it will be open to all residents of that city and reports have it that a big crowd will be here.

Invitations have been extended for the twenty-seventh annual commencement exercises of the St. Joseph's Academy to be held at the Oregon theater, Tuesday, June 9.

LEWISTON, Idaho, June 3.—The local land office here opened and 67 applications were made under the new 320-acre homestead act.

AMES, Ia., June 3.—Ralph Tidrick, in 1904 one of the greatest tackle players in college football, was mauled to death by a lion at his missionary post near Khartoum, Egyptian Sudan.

PARIS, June 3.—Baron Henri de Neuville and Baron Robert de Neuville were arrested on charges of fraud in connection with the failure of the banking house of de Neuville & Co., on May 4.

KEBO PLANS Y. M. C. A. KELS0, Wash., June 3.—Plans are being made for raising $1500 to be used in organizing a Y. M. C. A. for this place.

NEWS SUMMARY. General. Industrial workers plan an invasion of home town of John D. Rockefeller.

Militant suffragists horsewhipped prison official and beat two editors. Huerta is said to be willing to resign as soon as Mexico is pacified.

Directors of New Haven feared to oppose late J. P. Morgan declares witness. Blanquet said to be ready to seize government from Huerta.

Well known Portland woman may die from injuries received in jump from bridge. Local. Big committee appointed to prepare for Fourth of July celebration.

Annual rose show to be held June 17. Big crowd in city to see Sells-Floto circus.

Long survivor of Custer massacre, John Buffalo Bill here. East end fruit growers will lose thousands of dollars from fire blight.

City and county will pave road to cemetery. Commercial club considers offer of new home made by K. of P.

Tire thief tried trick once too often. Excursion of Pendletonians to Union tomorrow. Walla Walla will send excursion to Sunday game here.

Pendleton wins twelve inning game from Walla Walla.

DIRECTORS FEARED TO TAKE SIDES IN OPPOSING MORGAN

Witness Says That Scolded But Never Dared Openly to Cross Late Magnate at Meeting.

MELLEN DOMINATED BOARD

Through Him, Morgan Was Always Able to Keep Things in Control—James Elton Declares That He Did Not Know Money Was Given in Connection With One Deal.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Although directors of the New Haven sometimes scolded after the late J. P. Morgan left the meetings, none had the nerve to oppose him openly, Jas. Elton, a member of the board, related at the resumption of the commerce commissioner's investigation of the road's financial affairs.

ELTON SAID HE BELIEVED ALL THE MISTAKES WERE "ERRORS OF JUDGMENT AND NOT OF THE HEART" ON THE PART OF MELLEN AND MORGAN.

PORTLAND WOMAN TAKES LONG LEAP

PROMINENT SOCIALLY, MRS. SIMON TRIES SUICIDE IN 40 FOOT LEAP.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 3.—Disregarding the cries of passersby who saw her climb over the railing, Mrs. A. Simon, a widow, and a sister of Rabbi J. Bloch, dropped 40 feet from the Ford street bridge and received injuries which probably will result fatally.

FOUR TO FINISH FROM ST JOSEPH ACADEMY JUNE 9

Invitations have been extended for the twenty-seventh annual commencement exercises of the St. Joseph's Academy to be held at the Oregon theater, Tuesday, June 9.

LEWISTON, Idaho, June 3.—The local land office here opened and 67 applications were made under the new 320-acre homestead act.

AMES, Ia., June 3.—Ralph Tidrick, in 1904 one of the greatest tackle players in college football, was mauled to death by a lion at his missionary post near Khartoum, Egyptian Sudan.

PARIS, June 3.—Baron Henri de Neuville and Baron Robert de Neuville were arrested on charges of fraud in connection with the failure of the banking house of de Neuville & Co., on May 4.

KEBO PLANS Y. M. C. A. KELS0, Wash., June 3.—Plans are being made for raising $1500 to be used in organizing a Y. M. C. A. for this place.

NEWS SUMMARY. General. Industrial workers plan an invasion of home town of John D. Rockefeller.

Militant suffragists horsewhipped prison official and beat two editors. Huerta is said to be willing to resign as soon as Mexico is pacified.

Directors of New Haven feared to oppose late J. P. Morgan declares witness. Blanquet said to be ready to seize government from Huerta.

Well known Portland woman may die from injuries received in jump from bridge. Local. Big committee appointed to prepare for Fourth of July celebration.