IN SUCH PAIN WOMAN CRIED

Suffered Everything Until Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Florence, So. Dakota.—"I used to be very sick every month with bearing down pains and back-ache, and had headache a good deal of the time and very little appetite. The pains were so bad that I used to sit right down on the floor and cry, because it hurt me so and I could not do any work at those times. An old woman advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I got a bottle. I felt better the next month so I took three more bottles of it and got well so I could work all the time. I hope every woman who suffers like I did will try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. P. W. LANSING, Route No. 1, Florence, South Dakota.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

What the Press Agent Has to Say of Present and Coming Attractions.

Orpheum. For Sunday's change the Orpheum presents "In the Northland," a splendid two part Lubin. Featuring John Lee and Rosetta Brice.

Jean Lecour, the handsomest young man of the French-Canadian village, is engaged to Celeste, the village belle. They are married but a city traveling man, Jack Hadley, comes her way and she becomes dissatisfied with her uncultured husband. Hadley persuades her to elope and when Jean returns he finds her gone in a blizzard and snow storm. He goes after her and she discovers his true worth and also the selfishness of Hadley and goes back to her husband, who freely forgives her.

"Sonny Jim at the North Pole." Vitagraph. Featuring Bobby Connolly, Dorothy Kelly and Tef Johnson. Sonny Jim's daddy becomes cross and so he decides to go to the north pole. He starts out in the snow but falls asleep on the railroad track. Daddy Jim finds him after a long search and brings him back home. After that nothing is too good for him and Shep.

Pastime—Saturday Only. "The Detective's Sister," a two part Kalem. How fate causes a burglar to fall in love with the sister of the detective who is relentlessly striving to put him behind the bars, makes the new Kalem two part drama, "The Detective's Sister," a story of rare heart appeal.

Alta Theater—Last Time Today. The second episode in Edison's "The Man Who Disappeared (The Hunted Animal)." See Marc McDermott free himself from handcuffs by letting a locomotive run over the connecting chain. Each of these episodes are complete in themselves.

"A Man's Soul." Kalem two part. J. P. McGowan and Helen Holmes in a powerful offering. A spectacular prairie fire adds the thrilling climax. "Bunny Hug Buys a Hat for His Bride." Vitagraph. Wherein John Bunny and Flora Finch make many laughs.

New program tomorrow.

PANAMA CANAL WILL BOOM AMERICAN TRADE

CAPE MAY, June 26.—"The opening of the Panama canal will mean two billion dollars more business each year for the United States," declared O. P. Austin, formerly of the Federal Department of Commerce, in an address before the convention of the Maryland bankers' association.

Mr. Austin suggested that the government construct an inland waterway in the great lake section of the country, "which would reach into the interior for 1,500 miles and send forth great amounts of freight."

Hearst-Selig No. 2.—News Pictorial. All of the events of international importance.

Pastime—Sunday Only. "Goodness Gracious," a three-part Vitagraph is our special feature offering for Sunday only. "Goodness Gracious" enjoyed a run of 240 consecutive nights at the Vitagraph theater on Broadway, New York City. We have secured this feature at extra cost but the usual 10c admission will be charged. Sidney Drew, Clara Kimball Young, Ned Finley, Kate Price, Etienne Girardot, James Lackaye and 100 others are in the cast. "Goodness Gracious" is the funniest picture in existence. The most villainous villain who ever possessed a heroic suit becoming all other heroes; horrible murder plot, slipped in the bud; dark, deep dungeons, dark and drear; exciting chase in which the villain still pursues her and everyone chases himself and somebody else. Curses upon curses, love triumphs. Villainy is vanquished. "Goodness Gracious" is a terrific plot. Too terrible for words. The picture tells it all. An extra one reel drama will be supplied to fill out the program.

Cosmo—Friday and Saturday. Brownie and Theresa will be here Friday and Saturday with matinee Saturday. They have a fine singing and dancing act, the Spanish dance and the "Texas Tommy" being especially good.

Fred and Eva Hurley have an extra good comedy singing and talking act, both their songs and stories being very funny and all new. They also put their stuff over in a way that keeps one in a continual laugh.

"Our mutual Girl." Reliance. The twentieth picture of the series. While hunting for her little girl friend on the East Side, Margaret falls into the hands of a gang of toughs, who make her a prisoner. Some interesting types of gangsters are seen and some good views of New York slums, also.

"For Her Child." Two reel Thanhouser. Irving Cummings, Ethel Jewett and the "Kidlet" in drama of modern home life that makes a great appeal.

"An Eavesdropper." Keystone. One of this famous company's funniest comedies.

Alta Theater—Last Time Today. The second episode in Edison's "The Man Who Disappeared (The Hunted Animal)." See Marc McDermott free himself from handcuffs by letting a locomotive run over the connecting chain. Each of these episodes are complete in themselves.

"A Man's Soul." Kalem two part. J. P. McGowan and Helen Holmes in a powerful offering. A spectacular prairie fire adds the thrilling climax. "Bunny Hug Buys a Hat for His Bride." Vitagraph. Wherein John Bunny and Flora Finch make many laughs.

MRS. MAYO AND HER SON AND DAUGHTER

Mrs. John Colhoun Mayo, John Mayo, Margaret Mayo. LEXINGTON, Ky., June 26.—In the little town of Paintsville, Johnson county, Ky., lives Mrs. John Colhoun Mayo, widow of the richest man in Kentucky. Her wealth is estimated at $20,000,000. She has two children to help enjoy it—John aged thirteen, and Margaret, aged eight. The Mayo home, where Mrs. Mayo will conduct her business, is the handsomest in eastern Kentucky. The home cost about $250,000. It is an interesting life Mrs. Mayo has mapped out for herself. After her husband died, after a struggle for his life which attracted attention of the whole country, she was bequeathed his entire estate without bond, without security of any sort. She has been a resident of the hills all her life. At her husband's death hundreds of poor people who have been helped by the Mayos thought that the would leave the hills. But she soon set these fears to rest. As she is going to conduct her late husband's business from the offices in her mansion, which are now being constructed.
