BUCKS NOT AT ALL CHAMPIONS YESTERDAY

BRAVES TAKE OPENING GAME WITH EASE; PETERSON OUT-PICHED LEWIS.

The first game of the last series in the race for the pennant ended yesterday with the Buckaroos three runs behind North Yakima, the final score being 6 to 3. The Braves got a lead of three tallies in the opening inning, another run in the third, and Lodell's men were unable to overcome the handicap.

What seemed a good chance in the eighth to tie the score fizzled out and all the Bucks were able to do were to put over two runs. The Braves meanwhile in the sixth had added another run and at the beginning of the ninth the score stood five to three. The Braves again scored in the ninth and in their half the Bucks failed to do anything.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK, THICK, GLOSSY

TRY GRANDMOTHER'S OLD FAVORITE RECIPE OF SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

Peterson pitched good ball for the visitors allowing seven hits while Lewis for the Buckaroos weakened several times allowing the Braves to get a total of 13 hits from his delivery. Krause and Peterson both made two baggers while Briggs was the sole one of the Buckaroos to pole the ball out for a second bag.

A good sized gallery watched the game and lent its aid toward supporting the league leaders. Despite all, however, the finks seemed to be on and Pendleton couldn't break the spell sufficiently enough to carry off the bacon.

STATE GAINS MUCH BY OWNING PLANT OF STATE PRINTER

SALEM, Ore., July 22.—State ownership of a printing plant is said by State Printer R. A. Harris to have saved the taxpayers of Oregon $16,332.56 in 10 months.

In a statement issued by Mr. Harris, the saving by the plant is given as $7657.99 for the quarter ending June 30, or $2552 for each month of that time.

Mr. Harris' statement, addressed to the taxpayers of Oregon, follows: "The sum of $7657.99 for the quarter ending June 30, last, or $2552 for each month of the quarter, is the gain due to the present state ownership system in the state printing department."

"Every item of printing has been carefully computed at the rates fixed by the old law and the difference of cost under the present law in your favor, is as shown above.

"These figures are higher than any estimate or prediction of mine, and are a surprise to me.

"Detailed records of cost, showing minutely every item of overhead and general expense, is at your disposal in the printing department.

"The complete record of gains to date by virtue of state ownership is as follows:

Sept. to Dec. 31, 1913.....$ 3,257.34

January 1 to March 31, 1914 5,417.23

April 1 to June 30, 1914.....7,657.99

Total.....$16,332.56

"The amount saved to date, at the end of 10 months, is nearly $1600 in excess of the initial cost of the printing plant, although liberal depreciation and interest has been regularly charged to the cost of public printing."

See No Reason for a Duel.

PARIS, France, July 22.—The seconds appointed by Paul de Cassagnac of the Auturite and Carl Lahm of the Leipzig Hageblatt decided there was no adequate reason for a duel to which the Frenchman had challenged the German.

The cause of the quarrel was the publication in Germany of some remarks approving the imprisonment of an Alsatian cartoonist, upon which Lahm was told by Cassagnac to leave France in forty-eight hours.

MRS. CARMAN BELIEVED INDICTED FOR FIRST DEGREE MANSLAUGHTER

Mrs. Florence Carman, MINEOLA, L. I., July 22.—Although the grand jury which investigated the murder of Mrs. Louise Bailey adjourned without making any official announcement as to whether or not an indictment had been found against Mrs. Florence Carman, it is said, on unquestioned authority that the woman had been indicted for first degree manslaughter. The grand jury reported after two and a half hours of wrangling. The findings of the grand jury did not particularly please District Attorney Smith, for when asked if satisfied with the jury's work he said, "I will have to be." The district attorney had hoped for an indictment for first degree murder. Smith said he would not oppose bail for Mrs. Carman.

CARTOON OF UREN WILL BE BARED FROM PAMPHLET

SALEM, Ore., July 22.—Secretary of State Olcott, as editor of the state election pamphlet, today rejected a cartoon depicting W. S. Uren of Oregon City, operating a shell game.

In the cartoon, which was tendered by Robert E. Smith, of Roseburg, secretary-treasurer of the Oregon National Tax Reform association, Mr. Uren was shown at a table juggling three shells. One of the shells is labeled, "Graduated Surtax Amendment," another "Poll Tax" and the third, which is in the center, is labeled "Single Tax."

Under this shell, which is slightly raised, is the pea, which is labeled "Single Tax." The cartoon has the operator of the game saying: "I'll surely buffalo them this time." "Find the pea" is the caption.

Mr. Smith tendered with the cartoon an argument against the 11500 tax amendment. He argued that it would exempt more than $150,000,000 worth of property from taxation but that no farm land would be exempt under the law. If $150,000,000 of property is exempt, said the argument, land owners will have to pay a higher tax on what is left.

Another argument filed by the same association is an appeal to the voters of the cities to oppose the amendment.

Mr. Smith informed Secretary of State Olcott that the Oregon National Tax Reform Association had a membership of 8000 farmers, and that 21 counties were represented.

Mr. Smith said first he would institute mandamus proceedings against the secretary of state.

He said later, however, that he would be satisfied to have the arguments without the cartoon used in the pamphlet.

HUSBAND SO "DIRTY" WIFE DESECTED HIM

NEW HAVEN, Conn., July 22.—The neighborly relations of the families of James Plew and William O. Wakefield while both men were employed on a farm in Middlebury were described to the jury today at the second trial of Mrs. Bessie J. Wakefield, charged with murder of her husband in June of last year.

Plew died upon the scaffold last March for the actual killing of Wakefield.

Dwight L. Wheeler, the farmer who employed both Plew and Wakefield, also told of the occasion when Mrs. Wakefield left her husband and went to Waterbury. Wheeler went to Mrs. Wakefield and asked her again to live with her husband, but she refused on the ground that he was "too dirty."

On cross-examination, Wheeler explained that Mrs. Wakefield's reason was not surprising, as he, the witness, thought that "Wakefield was not the neatest man in the world."

During an illness of Plew's wife Mrs. Wakefield, acted as her nurse.

Samaritan Gets $37,500.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., July 22.—Maxwell Ward, a telephone lineman, living at Columbia Cross, Bradford county, has fallen heir to $37,500 in return for help rendered to Oscar J. Wanderlaur of Montana, when Wanderlaur was sick and penniless in Sioux City several years ago.

In 1904, while working in Sioux City, Ward was asked by a stranger to "stake" him to a meal. The stranger claimed he was the son of a wealthy Montana man, but that he was sick and without funds. Ward took him to a hotel, ordered breakfast for the man and instructed the clerk to furnish dinner and supper besides.

Wanderlaur recently died and search has been made through the country for Ward, to whom was left $7,500 in cash and $3,000 a year for ten years. Ward still had the receipt for the food he bought for Jones.

Kentucky Tornado Kills 2.

HENDERSON, Ky., July 22.—Two persons were killed, several others injured and scores of buildings damaged when a tornado struck this city. It is estimated the damage will reach $150,000.

The municipal electric light plant was partly destroyed. Fires started in two sections after the tornado had passed, but were quickly extinguished.

The dead are Mrs. William Sewell and her thirteen-year-old nephew, Bonnie Prior. Both were crushed to death when a three-story brick building was blown over on their home.

The tornado swept a path four blocks wide and twelve blocks long through the main business and residential sections. It lasted only one minute.

Ruined by a Drink of Water.

CHICAGO, July 22.—Once an artist in Chicago, now a consumptive, unable to support his family, James McKee, 38 years old, 2010 Fremont street, faced Municipal Judge Torrisson, charged with non-support. His wife sought to have him sent to Oak Forest, where he could be treated.

"Two years ago I took a drink of water out of a glass that had been used by a consumptive," McKee told Judge Torrisson. A short time later I began to notice traces of the disease. I have failed rapidly and am unable to work."

"No, no, judge; don't send me to Oak Forest," said the man when the place was mentioned. "The place is so quiet, and I would be so lonesome that I couldn't stand it."

Judge Torrisson, however, believed that a trip to Oak Forest would be of benefit to the defendant; so he was ordered to try it.

Bride 17 Years Old is Slain.

DYBUQUE, Iowa, July 22.—Mrs. John Allen, 17 years old and seven days a bride, was murdered. The police and relatives of the young woman are searching for George Delain, her cousin, who is said to have paid her attention before her marriage. Bloodhounds have been sent to the scene of the crime.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

HOOD RIVER, Ore., July 22.—E. C. Owens is harvesting one of the finest strawberry crops in this district from his ranch near Bald Butte at an elevation of 3000 feet. The place probably is the highest berry ranch in the state.

Snow still covers a portion of Mr. Owen's place, the white banks glistening not more than 200 feet from the fruit.

The first crate of the big berries was sold for $11.

SALEM, Ore., July 22.—The supreme court today upheld the decision of the circuit court of Clatsop county in declaring unconstitutional the so-called act to protect cooperative associations by preventing the use of the "cooperative" by any firm, association or corporation as a part of its associate, corporate or business name, as a trade mark or designation, passed by the legislature of 1913. The decision is made in the case of H. M. Lornsten against the Union Fishermen's Cooperative Packing company, the plaintiff contending that the company was not doing a cooperative business.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 22.—Fire at 1:15 o'clock this morning in the home of George F. Vahl, 1217 East Yacenta street, north, forced him to jump out the window with his two children in his arms to save the lives of the trio. Mrs. Vahl is spending the summer in the country for her health and was not at home.

Vahl was over town last evening, returning shortly before midnight. He was awakened by smoke in his sleeping room. The man's first impulse was to protect the two small children, who were sleeping in an adjoining room. Vahl seized them around the waist, carried both to the window and was outside before they were awakened. The blaze started in the attic of the one-story home, apparently from cross electrical wiring.

Damage is estimated at $300.

Congregational Conference On.

BURTON, Wash., July 22.—With a seven days program scheduled that embraces many topics of vital importance to the church and the public, the annual Congregational conference of the northwest began sessions on Vashon Island today. A large number of churches of Washington, Oregon, Idaho and British Columbia were represented, besides hundreds of clergymen and laymen, interested in the work to be considered. Practically every one attending is living in tents, and the meetings have all of the features of a summer camp.

The Hot Weather Test makes people better acquainted with their resources of strength and endurance.

Many find they need Hood's Sarsaparilla, which invigorates the blood, promotes refreshing sleep and overcomes that tired feeling.

Doctor on Mayflower Weds.

NEW YORK, July 22.—The wedding of Dr. Robert Cathcart Randall, U. S. N., who is attached to the president's yacht, the Mayflower, and Miss Dorothy Abbott Layman of Indianapolis was celebrated at the Church of the Heavenly Rest here. The Rev. Edward Matthews of the church conducted the service.

Miss Layman was escorted to the altar by the father. Her attendant was Miss W. Elizabeth Hughes, of Indianapolis. Dr. Randall's best man was Paymaster Hervey Randall, his brother.
