Home Hints and Recipes

Dictates of Fashion. Yellow in any shade is fashionable. White buckskin shoes are already in the shops. Artificial silk will be much used with white voile. All the costumes a pouf seem to be a tremendous success these days. Even now tete de negro is one of the best colors to choose for a hat. The best tailored shirts for sports wear are those with an extra large armhole. Checked skirts with solid colored coats will be much seen among spring suits. Large women should avoid the bright colors; modified colors are the safest for them. A distinct fluffiness begins to show in the lighter costumes, but the size of the silhouette is increased less than one might suppose, simply because the ruffles are so flimsy.

The dainty bonnets for little girls are made of lace and tulle and the favored trimming consists of narrow bands of tailless ermine fastened with small satin flowers.

Leaf green and sapphire blue are two favorite colors for the elaborate flowers which are being worn in Paris with evening tiilettes. The petals are rimmed with tiny rhinestones and the veins of the leaves are traced over with metallic threads. These flowers give a touch of deep, often somber color to a white evening dress.

Shellac Shines Brass. When brass beds become tarnished as they often do, you can lacquer them and make them like new. First rub the brass vigorously with a flannel dipped in whiting, then set 10 cents worth of shellac, dissolve it in enough alcohol to make it thin. Apply with a small brush. It can be done quickly and the bed will look as pretty as if sent to the factory and is much cheaper.

PREPARATIONS BEING MADE FOR HOLDING CONVENTION

OAKLAND, July 31.—Plans of Oakland's $1,000,000 auditorium and $2,000,000 city hall have been sent to Durand W. Springer, of the National Educational association, in Ann Arbor, Mich., to enable him to more readily make plans for the obig convention of the association, which will be held in Oakland in 1915. With them were sent plans of the various other halls and public buildings in Oakland as well as data concerning the chalets and lodging houses, so that reservations for rooms and other necessary arrangements can be made in advance. The huge size of the convention makes this work necessary far in advance. The International Congress of Education meets at the same time as the National Educational Association and the two conventions will bring more than 60,000 persons to Oakland. The former association includes delegates from every civilized country in the world, and congress, at the request of President Wilson, already has sent invitations to educators of every land to attend the convention, naming Oakland as the meeting place.

AUSTRIAN LIETENANT MAY TAKE HIS HORSE

PORTLAND, Ore., July 31.—Austria's zeal to have ready for emergency all the available officers and men on its army reserve list involves not only the paying of expenses of such men from all corners of the world on their trip back home, but includes other inducements befitting the station of the individual.

If Lieutenant J. von Makdych receives the call to leave Portland to go back and fight, he will be allowed to take with him a horse and a personal servant. The lieutenant would have to buy his own horse, because the Austrian army does not supply the chargers for the use of its officers, but if he does buy it in America his government will pay the transportation charges. Lieutenant von Makdych had not received instructions to prepare to go back to Austria. If he does, however, he repeated his declaration that he will be ready at a moment's notice.

Experienced Women Advise Mother's Friend

Because it is so perfectly safe to use and has been of such great help to a host of expectant mothers, these women, experienced in this most happy period, advise the use of "Mother's Friend." Applied externally to the abdominal muscles, its purpose is to relieve the undue tension upon the cords and ligaments resulting from muscular expansion. Beneath the surface is a network of fine nerve threads and the gentle, soothing embrocation, "Mother's Friend," is designed to so lubricate the muscular fibres as to avoid the unnecessary and continuous nagging upon this myriad of nerves. Applied to the breasts it affords the proper massage to prevent caking.

ASSASSINATION OF DUKE LED TO WAR

FORMER AMBASSADOR TO RUSSIA AND TURKEY DISCUSSES CONFLICT.

LITCHFIELD, Conn., Aug. 1.—William W. Rockhill, who has served as United States ambassador to Russia and Turkey, and who left Constantinople last November, said today: "War between Austria and Serbia is but a natural result of the situation looking to the combination of Slav elements into a kingdom of their own. It is a racial question, the development of the creation of nationalities that has been coming on for years. National honor and race pride are involved.

"If Austria carries her point and crushes the southern Slavs it will be hard for Russia to bear, and I doubt if the Slavs can be kept down permanently. Russia is their great protector. She has a sentimental interest in them as well as a political interest.

"The Slavs in Bosnia and Herzegovina have been better administered under the Austrians than they were under the Turks, but they have not laid aside their racial feeling. That is a feeling that cannot be ignored. "Everyone in Turkey and elsewhere knew that the peace as arranged last year for the Balkans could not be maintained. It was too unstable.

"The United States and two battle-ships to Greece. They will add fuel to the fire. They will be heard from. "Austria in the south is not homogeneous as to population. The racial agitation meant the breaking down of the Austrian empire, which is largely made up of Slavs in the south.

"Then Austria has lost prestige in the last two years. Everything went wrong for her in the Balkan wars. She saw Serbia broaden. The Slavs in the south were getting more and more grip. The killing of Archduke Ferdinand and his wife was the spark that fired the final trouble. "Political murders are common in the Balkans. The people are imbued with the idea that they can always have recourse to slaying. Murder is a method of propaganda.

"Serbia did not want war. She is in a tight place economically. The Serbians went pretty far in accepting Austria's terms. Italy was not desirous of getting into it, and I don't believe Germany induced Austria to take the step. "It is not a question that can be arbitrated. It might be mediated."

FIGHTING RESUMED IN CENTRAL AMERICA.

Conditions in San Domingo and Haiti Worse, Says Reports Received at Washington From Naval Officers. WASHINGTON, July 31.—Conditions in Haiti and San Domingo were worse again according to advice from naval commanders in the waters of the two republics.

In Haiti it was said fierce fighting was still in progress between government troops and rebels, despite the former's capture of the towns of Trou and Caracola. In San Domingo the truce arranged between the government forces in the capital and the rebels having expired, the latter were again closing in on the city. At the same time another rebel faction was making good its defense of Puerto Plata against President Bordas.

GIRLS BATHING AT NATURE CLOSE RUBBERNECK'S EYES

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 1.—Seven nude girl steno-graphers, seeking a swim, resented a "rubberneck" fellow, trapped him on the bank and beat him unmercifully. Then, when his eyes were so badly bumped up that he could no longer see whether the seven stenographers had donned their clothes or not, the girls called a policeman.

The "rubberneck" fellow is said to be a son of an exclusive family, who heard the seven stenographers on a street car plan to take a swim in the Milwaukee river, north of the city.

Treats His Auto Like Horse. CHICAGO, July 30.—Samuel Burnham of Burnham, real estate dealer of the village which bears his name, bought an automobile last Monday. Yesterday, on his second trip with the new car he drove through South Chicago and was arrested and charged with driving past a standing street car in such a manner as to violate the ordinance.

When he was brought before Judge Ryan he said: "Judge, I'm 62 years old and this is my first experience with automobiles. For forty-seven years I've driven a horse and whenever I had to turn out for anything all I had to do was to pull on one rein a little. We don't have any street cars in Burnham and I didn't know there was any law requiring me to turn out so far to pass one. I gave the steering wheel of the machine a twist, but I guess I must have been thinking of the old horse and didn't make it strong enough. There's a whole lot of difference, your honor, between driving an auto and driving a horse." "I guess that's right," said the judge and he dismissed the case.

The court house is usually full of visitors during the morning and the audience was composed of court house attaches and visitors. These filled the corridor in front of the justice office to get a look at the couple.

Habitual Criminal Loses.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Aug. 1.—Chief Justice Crow denied the application of Peter Miller, King county's former prisoner, for a writ of error for an appeal to the United States supreme court. Miller was convicted recently of being a habitual criminal and was sentenced to serve from 20 to 40 years in the state penitentiary. He may now take his case direct to the high court at Washington, D. C., in an effort to get that tribunal to force the state supreme court here to issue the writ. If that fails he must go to prison.

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Aug. 1.—Robert Selby, formerly a deputy sheriff in Muskogee county showed up at the federal jail here with commitment papers and three cents in his pocket to serve a term of four months for introducing liquor into Indian country while he was a state officer. He went alone to the jail and turned the horse he had ridden loose in the streets to find his way back to the Selby farm.

Bonfires Ban Is Placed.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 1.—Because of the danger of house and forest fires, Mayor Albee has instructed Fire Chief Dowell to issue no more permits to build bonfires in any part of the city until after the city has a rain storm. The order was transferred to all battalion chiefs and will be enforced.

YOUR BLOOD

is the canal of life but it becomes a sewer if clogged up. All life consists of building up and tearing down and just in the same manner that the blood carries to the various parts of the body the food that the cells need for building up, so it is compelled to carry away the waste material that's torn down. These waste materials are poisonous and destroy us unless the liver and kidneys are stimulated into refreshed and vigorous life.

DR. PIERCE'S Golden Medical Discovery
