OREGON EGGS SHIPPED BY PARCELS POST
Experimental shipments by O. A. C. Both Successful and Profitable.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Ore., Aug. 12.—By properly packing eggs in a suitable container parcels post shipment direct from producer to consumer has proven to be both feasible and profitable. Experimental shipments made by the poultry department of the Agricultural College from Corvallis to Portland, a distance of 199 miles, have established the feasibility of this method of marketing eggs. Since the same rates are applicable up to a distance of 150 miles, eggs can be marketed as cheaply by this method from all points within 150 miles of Portland or other large city. In anticipation of this phase of the poultry business manufacturers have put a number of satisfactory containers on the market at reasonable prices. The weight of one kind having a capacity of ten dozen eggs, when packed with eggs of good standard size and quality, is about twenty pounds. Postal rates on this package in the second zone, from fifty to one hundred and fifty miles, are 24 cents. The weight of the case is about four pounds and return postage on this is eight cents. This makes the entire cost of sending and returning the ten dozen eggs by parcels post 32 cents—which is slightly over three cents per dozen eggs. It is thus quite evident that the cost of sending eggs by parcels post direct to the consumer is considerably under the total charges of handling agencies for the cost of handling the profits of the transaction by the local buyer, by the commission man and by the retailer. However much these charges may vary, the sum of them all could hardly be expected to be within the three cent cost of marketing by parcels post.

But eggs to be marketed in this way must be of good quality and they should be supplied regularly to the consumer. This requires that the eggs be gathered at least every day and twice a day in hot weather. They must also be stored properly and shipped promptly. At the time of packing, the over-sized, undersized, dirty and cracked eggs should be discarded, for other use and only eggs of reasonably uniform size and quality placed in the packer.
Another important factor in this direct marketing is establishing trade relations between the producer and the city consumer. As a part of the extension service plans are being tried out and matured for a general and satisfactory method of bringing the consumer and producer together.

Home Hints and Recipes

Health and Beauty.
Cultivate the spirit of contentment; all discontent and dissatisfaction bring us furrows prematurely to the face.

More infants' lives are taken by overfeeding than by starvation. Never liken an infant's digestion or diet to your own.

Do not use a common pin in the nursery. The safety pin or none for all nursery folk—babies, mother, nurse or maid.

Do not fear the sunshine if you desire to keep young. The most beautiful things of life do not grow in the darkness.

Hard water should not be used on the face. If living where soft water cannot be obtained add a pinch of borax or a handful of oat or almond meal to the wash water.

Concerning Women.
Auburn, N. Y., has just elected its first woman school commissioner, Miss Julia C. Ferris, a teacher of long experience.

Of the eight members of the board of the Maryland Training school for girls recently appointed by Governor Goldsborough, five are women.

Belgians Destroy Beautiful Castle Captured by Germans

Berry Pudding.
Any berry may be used for this dish. Pickover and spread them generously upon the bottom of the bake dish; cover liberally with sugar. Now prepare a plain sweet cake batter and pour over the berries. Stand the bake dish in a pan of water in a hot oven and bake until the cake is well puffed up, dry and nicely browned. Serve each portion of cake with berries and juice dipped over it.

Stiffening Curtains.
When doing up curtains at home, if flour is used instead of starch, the iron will not stick so much, and the curtains will have more the appearance of new ones. One good tablespoonful of flour for each curtain is sufficient. Mix the flour to a thick paste, with cold water, then put in the tub and pour on as much boiling water as required for rinsing the curtains.

TWO 10-INCH GUNS SENT CANADIAN PORT

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 12.—Fearing that Vancouver may be attacked at an early date by German cruisers thought to be in northern Pacific waters, orders issued resulted in the arrival here of two 10-inch guns and 39 bluejackets and gunners to man them. Not So Strange After All.
You may think it strange that so many people are cured of stomach troubles by Chamberlain's Tablets. You would not, however, if you should give them a trial. They strengthen and invigorate the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Mrs. Rosie Rish, Wabash, Ind., writes, "Nothing did me the least good until I began using Chamberlain's Tablets. It is decidedly the best medicine for stomach trouble I ever used." For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

The county central committee is making arrangements to conduct a strenuous campaign for their party leaders. Each precinct in the county will be under the supervision of a live precinct committee. ### Planning for the Stork's Arrival

Among these things which all women should know of, and many of them do, is a splendid external application sold in most drug stores under the name "Mother's Friend." It is a penetrating liquid and many and many a mother tells how it so wonderfully aided them through the period of expectancy.

Its chief purpose is to render the tendons, ligaments and muscles so pliant that nature's expansion may be accomplished without the intense strain so often characteristic of the period of expectancy.
At any rate it is reasonable to believe that since "Mother's Friend" has been a companion to motherhood for more than half a century to more timely advice could be given the inexperienced mother than to suggest its daily use during expectancy.
Ask at any drug store for "Mother's Friend," a penetrating, external liquid of great help and value. And write to Bradford Regulator Co., 303 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their book of useful and timely information to expectant mothers. It contains many suggestions that are of interest to all women.
