SWINE PRICES ARE LOWER

(Courtesy Tuesday's Journal)

PORTLAND, Ore.—Hog prices lost the advance of yesterday at the opening of the North Portland trade this morning. There were practically no offerings of top quality but some stuff that would ordinarily sell at a dime below extreme figures went at $8.50. Hog run for the day was very moderate and the weakness displayed recently in the east trade had its effect by bringing forth lower bids. This seemed to be the time for killers to make a small raid on the high prices of swine and they took advantage of the situation. General hog market range: Best light $8.60@8.75 Medium light 8.50 Good and heavy 8.35@8.40 Rough and heavy 7.60@8.00 Light Steers Held Firm. For light steers of quality the market at North Portland continues in excellent shape and further sales are reported around yesterday's top at $7.25. Run of cattle in the yards overnight was a very moderate one and killers quickly took hold of the better class offerings at yesterday's values. General cattle market range:

Selected steers $7.25@7.35 Good to prime 6.85@7.10 Good to choice 6.50@6.75 Ordinary to fair 5.75@6.00 Fancy cows 6.00 Good to prime 5.75@5.80 Ordinary 5.25@5.50 Selected calves 8.00@8.25 Heavy 7.50 Fancy bulls 4.50@4.75 Ordinary 4.00@4.25 Mutton Strength is Good. Strength continues to be shown all through the market at North Portland. There was only a small run reported in the yards over night, supplies being chiefly from Willamette valley points. Wethers and ewes are in principal call around recently advanced quotations. Further showing of weakness is indicated by the trading at leading mutton markets of the east. Omaha, which is considered the prime mutton market of the country, was today showing a loss of 10c to 15c in addition to several similar losses recently. Top wethers sold there this morning at $6.40 for yearlings and $5.80 for older stuff, lambs $8.50 and ewes $5.40. General mutton range: Best yearlings $5.35@5.50 Old wethers 5.25@5.35 Best ewes 4.85@4.50 Best east mountain lambs 6.00 Valley light young lambs 5.65@5.85 Heavy spring lambs 5.00@5.50 Livestock Shippers. Hogs—E. G. Sloan, Parma, Idaho, 2 loads; Lewis Pankey, Roseburg, 1 load; J. B. Walter, Prescott, Wash., 1 load; L. S. Himes, Hay Canyon, 1 load. Cattle—C. A. Merrill, Deer Island, 1 load; F. C. Oxman, Robinette, 4 loads. Sheep—P. A. Smith, Yamhill, 1 load; Will Block, Independence, 1 load. Mixed Stuff—John Dysart, Condon, 1 load hogs and sheep.

CHICAGO WHEAT SHOWS SHARP RISE IN MARKET

Market Recovers Portion of Monday's Big Slump; Foreign Demand Less. CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—Sharp recovery was shown for wheat yesterday in the local pit with closing prices 2-3 to 2-7-8c per bushel above Monday's finals. The market opened rather firm with an advance of 1 to 1-1-4c in the active months and 1-2c for September. Some that sold on the soft spots were eager bidders at the opening. Broomhall cabled from Liverpool of an abatement in the urgent demand and cargoes were more freely offered. In some instances they were being pressed for sale. The demand from France has for the time been satisfied. Wheat. Sept.—Open, 102 1-2; high, 104 3-4; low, 100 7-8; close, 104 3-8. Dec.—Open, 106; high, 107 7-8; May—Open, 113; high, 115; low, 110 1-4; close, 114 5-8. (From Tuesday's Journal.) PORTLAND, Ore.—Further sharp losses in the price of cash wheat at practically all leading world's centers forced general dullness at Pacific northwest points. While some of the interior mills continue to purchase a few lots here and there at extreme prices, the general trade is not keen to take hold and most bids are therefore lower. The greater offerings of cargoes to the European trade caused buyers there to lower their bids, affecting the world's cargo trade in general and forcing inaction here, because country interests were not inclined to let go at the lower figures. Flour market continues rather quiet. No change in prices is shown for the day and patent values are still badly mixed. No export business of moment reported. Oats and barley markets are quiet, the latter being weak and generally lower. Clover seed—No. 1, re-cleaned, 15c; ordinary, 11 1-2@12 1-2c pound. Flour—Selling price: Patent, $5.50@5.80; Willamette valley, $4.40; local straight, $4.40; export, straight, $4.40; cutoff, $4.20; bakers, $3.50. Hay—New crop, producers' price: Willamette valley timothy, fancy, $13; eastern Oregon-Idaho fancy timothy, $15; alfalfa, $12.50@13; vetch and oats, $9.50@10.50; clover, $8@50 per ton. Grain Bags—No. 1 Valcutta, $5.50. Wheat prices showed but a fractional decline generally in the bidding on the Portland Merchants' Exchange today. Bluestem was down 1c, fortyfold 1c, club unchanged, red Russian 1-2c and red life 1-2c. No sales were made during the session as holders were asking higher prices. Oats market was quiet on the exchange with no change in the bids from yesterday but feed barley bids were down 50c a ton while brewing was firmer at an advance of a quarter. Bids for millstuffs were firmer with bran showing an advance. Official noon bids on Merchants' Exchange:
