SENSATIONS OF DYING ARE TOLD IN A DIARY

LONDON, Sept. 17.—A diary found beside the body of Hermann Schley, a German who ended his life by severing the arteries in his arms, has aroused the greatest interest in medical circles as describing the sensations of a man bleeding to death. Schley was employed at the Cafe Royal. The coroner held that as everyone was distressed by the war, it was possible the German had worried over the conflict in which his country was engaged until he became insane.

The diary follows: "I am dying! Treat humanely the German when in trouble. My heart no longer beats, but I am still living, as I am breathing. Goodbye, my friends from the Cafe Royal and my old father. Ah, how beautiful. For the insults I forgive you all. Au revoir. 3 pounds 2 shillings 9 pence will be for rent for Mr. Hurtena. "Oh, what a disaster war is! "4:25 a. m. Wednesday, 6th (sic) August—21st eclipse of the sun; great slaughter. My pals may enjoy themselves and sing my memories. "4:30—Goodbye, old Judah (manager of the Cafe Royal), and L., the old miser. No Christmas box wanted. "4:35—I feel so happy now. No more worries now like yesterday. Thank you. All getting dark now, but beautiful. I say good-bye to all. Don't think unkind of me. Ah, my head! "4:40—Old Mons. Maitre Chef, see to your Chaetau. It is dark, and I forgive you all insults, and there were many from some of you. Goodbye, my good friend Gassard, Graff, etc. "4:55—I cannot see, but I am not able to light the gas."

WESTWARD HO PARADE WILL BE BETTER THAN BEFORE

MORE BRILLIANT, MORE SPECTACULAR WILL BE LAST DAY FEATURE. More brilliant and more spectacular than ever before will be the Westward Ho parade on the last day of the Round-up next week. There will be prettier floats and more of them, more cowboys, more Indians and more special features symbolical of the old west. This is the promise of Fred Earl, director of parade.

Director Earl has been working quietly but none the less diligently for the past month preparing for the gorgeous pageant which is one of the prettiest features of the Round-up. The floats this year will eclipse anything heretofore seen in Pendleton and will typify in tableaux the passing of the frontier, which is held between 10 and 11, on the Saturday morning of each Round-up week. There is always a parade each day of the show, and this, too, Director Earl has in charge.

Six Churches Firetraps. MEDFORD, Ore., Sept. 17.—According to Fire Chief Lawton, who has completed a fire survey of the city, six of the Medford churches are firetraps. Chief Lawton has ordered them to make changes in conformity with the city ordinances. The exit doors open in instead of out, and other regulations are not observed. One hundred and sixty property-owners have been notified to bury their gasoline tanks as prescribed by city ordinance.

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Dining Room and Buffet Open.

The dining room and the buffet of the Hotel Pendleton are now open to the public, the dining room opening Tuesday and the buffet yesterday. Both are elegantly furnished.

Sheriff Picks up Man.

Sheriff T. D. Taylor yesterday arrested Jesse Durbin, wanted in American Falls, Idaho, on a statutory charge. The man was located on the ranch of Walter Cresswell.

Administratrices Appointed.

Laura Monterastelli was yesterday appointed administratrix of the estate of her mother, Amanda Latourelle, and Blanche Moorhouse was appointed administratrix of the estate of her husband, Mark Moorhouse.

Tags for Hospital.

The local graduate nurses are planning to make the second day of the Round-up a tag day for the benefit of St. Anthony's hospital. It is planned to have tag sellers stationed at different places and to sell tags at 10 cents each.

Waters Baby Dies.

Lucile Eletha Waters, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Waters, died yesterday of intestinal trouble and the funeral was held today at the family residence on the north side, Rev. C. A. Hodshire officiating. The little one was born May 3 of this year.

Suit to Collect.

Edison Thacker has commenced suit against T. F. Howard to collect $12.75, alleged to be due on a note executed to E. Alexander and assigned to plaintiff and $23.20 alleged to be due for merchandise purchased. J. R. Perry is attorney for the plaintiff.

To Attend Laundrymen's Meeting.

J. F. Robinson, proprietor of the Domestic Laundry, will leave Saturday noon for Portland where that evening he will attend a banquet given by the Portland laundrymen to the laundrymen of the Willamette valley. All of those present will Sunday go on to Seattle to attend the convention of the laundrymen of the northwest.

Milton Youths Brought Here.

Deputy Sheriff Joe Blakely returned home last night from Lewiston with Claude Givens, arrested there upon a statutory charge, and Deputy Sheriff West of Freewater arrived this morning with Herman Cochran, who was arrested in Dayton on a similar charge. Both are Milton youths and are implicated in the same case for which Joe Bellier was recently arrested.

Didn't Mean to Deny Guilt.

George Geonakopoulos, who was fined $25 in police court for speeding, declares today he did not mean to plead not guilty to the charge. He says he stated to the court that he didn't know how fast he was going but estimated his speed at 15 or 20 miles an hour. He was ignorant of court procedure, he says, and was not trying to enter a denial to the charge. The collision with the car of Lou Johnson he explains by stating that his foot slipped on the brake. He stopped after the collision to examine his car, he states.

Letter From English Mother.

J. W. Darby, one of the butchers at the Central market, is in receipt of a letter from his mother, who is a resident of Farthington, North Hampshire, England, in which she pictures very clearly the effect the European war has had upon that country. Business is demoralized, she writes, and the villages are almost deserted of young men who have answered Lord Kitchener's call for volunteers. Mrs. Darby does not want her son to come home to join the army and, unless a graver danger threatens his native land than does now, the son will be very contented to remain in Pendleton.

City Has Good Fire Protection.

That the fire protection afforded Pendleton by the new water system, the electric fire alarm and the auto truck is exceptional for a city the size of Pendleton is the statement of M. R. Colwell, one of the surveyors of the Underwriters' Equitable Rating Bureau who is here to re-rate the city. He has made a thorough inspection of the water system and the equipment of the fire department and declares that no city in the northwest that he has visited has superior facilities for fire protection. He and his associates are now almost through with their work here.

Opens Waffle Cafe.

Madame Louise has just opened "The Paris Waffle Cafe" at 225 East Court street and will give both day and night service.

BOYS WALK FROM PORTLAND TO SEE THE ROUND-UP HERE

Having walked the entire distance from Portland to Pendleton in order to take in the Round-up, Buster Love and W. L. Morgan, Jr., two Lincoln high school boys of Portland, arrived in the city at 2:30 this afternoon, somewhat dirty, somewhat tired but in high spirits over their experience. Young Love is a brother of Miss Marian Love, one of the teachers in the Pendleton high school, and will visit his sister while here. Both boys intend walking back to Portland after witnessing the frontier show. They left Portland at 5 o'clock in the evening of Friday, Sept. 4 and thus took a little less than two weeks for their trip. They carried a complete camping outfit on their backs, their packs weighing about 30 pounds each. In addition each carried a rifle. They camped out every night but were fortunate enough to find hospitable farmers along the road who were glad to invite them to their tables. They came up the Columbia highway to The Dalles and from that city to Umatilla followed the railroad track most of the way. They encountered some very stormy weather which slowed their progress some. The boys are enthusiastic boosters of the Round-up and carried on their packs signs indicating the reason they were making the long hike. Hiking, by the way, seems to run in the Love family, George Love, an elder brother of the boys, having walked from Portland to Mexico a few months ago.

RELATIVES OF LATE A. J. STURTEVANT CONTEST WILL

On four different counts the instrument, purporting to be the last will and testament of A. J. Sturtevant was yesterday contested in a petition filed by Vivian I. and Lowell E. Sturtevant, minor children of Clark Sturtevant, deceased, by Myrtle F. Carnes, their mother and guardian. Acting upon the allegations set forth therein, County Judge Maloney has cited Mark A. Sturtevant, his wife, Alma, and his daughter, Fay, all of whom are named as respondents, to appear in court at 10 o'clock on the morning of September 23 to show cause why the letters testamentary issued to Mark Sturtevant should not be cancelled and the will declared invalid, void and fraudulent.

The first grounds upon which the instrument is attacked, as set forth in the petition, is that A. J. Sturtevant was mentally and physically ill for a long time prior to the executing of a valid instrument. In the next paragraph it is set forth that deceased was susceptible to suggestion and persuasion and that under influence was executed by the testator the will. It is further set forth that the will was made from memoranda compiled by another and that the testator was not mentally capable of distinguishing between a will and a petition for the removal of a guardian. Furthermore, it is set forth, for several years prior to the making of the instrument, A. J. Sturtevant was an adjudged incompetent and was, therefore, to all intents, an insane person incapable of transacting business. The fourth grounds, as set forth, is the alleged fact that the testator had for many years suffered from delusion that the father and mother of the contestants had buried money belonging to him.

The last will and testament, as admitted to probate, cuts off the contestants with $2.50 each and gives to the respondents the $40,000 estate. Contestants claim that they should be entitled to half of it. S. A. Lowell, W. M. Peterson and Frederick Steiwer are attorneys for the contestants.

CHARGES ARE MADE AGAINST GERMAN SOLDIERS

LONDON, Sept. 17.—"These Germans are not soldiers; they are murderers in uniform," writes an Ostend resident to an English friend. "It has been proven that they kill the wounded and shoot women and children. At one of the charges at Liege the colonel of the 9th Belgian regiment of the line killed at the head of his troops by a shot through the head. When his body was recovered later in the day it was found to contain twenty bayonet stabs."

MONEY CAN'T BUY BACK MEN LOST IN FIGHTING

LONDON, Sept. 17.—"If I were a rich man," said an Englishman the other day, "I would donate large sums for relief in Belgium. Those Belgians fought the Germans thinking that, almost any day, the English and French troops would come to their relief. But the English and the French didn't come and the Belgians were almost wiped out. I think rich Englishmen ought to make very generous donations to Belgium." "Money doesn't buy new daddies," answered an American. And the Englishman went away thinking.

WARREN CONSTRUCTION CO. TO MOVE TO WALLA WALLA

CONTRACT SECURED FOR PAVING STREETS IN WASHINGTON CITY.

After operating for three years in this city, during which several miles of gravel bitulithic pavement was laid the Warren Construction Co. will soon move its plant to Walla Walla, having secured a contract in that city for paving Clinton street and Alvarado Terrace. The company will have Johnson street completed within a week and does not anticipate any more work until spring.

The fact that the Warren Construction Co. secured the Walla Walla contract at $1.48 a square yard in open competition with a number of other hard surface pavements is a refutation of the charge that the Pendleton city charter and the council have prevented competition and given the Warren company the work at its own price. All of the gravel bitulithic laid in this city cost $1.45 a square yard, three cents less than the price Walla Walla secured in open competition.

According to Walla Walla papers, there were three other bids received there. One from a home contractor for a six inch concrete pavement quoted 98 1-2 cents a yard, another for an asphaltic concrete surface with crushed rock base quoted $1.20 a yard and the same surface with a concrete base was quoted for $1.40 a yard. All of these bids were under the bid for gravel bitulithic yet the property owners wanted the latter. A delegation of Walla Walla property owners came to Pendleton recently, inspected the pavement here and interviewed many residents. Most of the pavement now in Walla Walla is of concrete or asphalt and the change now being made indicates that Pendleton's judgment has not been a bad one.

Noted Violinist on Guard.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 17.—A letter from Albert Stoessel, a St. Louis musician who is studying in Germany received by his father here, says that "Kreiser is guarding bridges in Vienna."

This is supposed to refer to Fritz Kreiser, the well known violinist who recently made an American tour. A letter tells of German victories and adds: "For the first time the Germans used their new cannon which they kept a secret from the world. One shot weighs 120 pounds and destroys a fort, goes through the strongest steel and costs $9,000 marks. Two locomotives are required to transport the cannon."
