GOVERNOR WEST ARRIVES TO SEE THE ROUND-UP

EXECUTIVE OF STATE IS ENJOYING FIRST DAY OF SHOW IMMENSELY.

Governor West was one of the distinguished arrivals on the 8 o'clock train from Portland this morning and as usual he has been enjoying the first day of the Round-up to the fullest extent. The governor is a lover of horses and is never happier than when astride a good saddle pony or watching skillful riding. Hence the Round-up has always appealed to him strongly.

On the trip up from Portland last night the governor occupied an upper berth, which was all he could get though he applied for accommodations several days ago, thus showing the heavy traffic to the Round-up.

En route to Pendleton last evening the governor wired to W. J. Bryan in reference to an anti-Chamberlain move undertaken in Portland. The republican organization had induced R. A. Caples, the senator's former secretary and now a drunken wreck, to wire Secretary Bryan a statement derogatory to Chamberlain. The governor's message to Secretary Bryan was as follows:

Hon. W. J. Bryan, Washington, D. C. I hope you will not take seriously telegram in reference to Senator Chamberlain from one R. A. Caples, as he is absolutely irresponsible. He was not long ago released from our state insane asylum where I am advised he was twice committed. He has from time to time been in the employ of the republican machine and his weakness is now being taken advantage of for political purposes. OSWALD WEST.

DUCHESS SENDS HER EMPLOYEES TO FIGHT FOR ENGLAND.

The Duchess of Roxburgh, who has sent the twenty-four men employed on the Roxburghs estate at Floors Castle to join the British army. Besides promising the men that she will keep their jobs open for them on their return to England, the duchess has said she will provide for their families during their absence and will arrange additional pension service for both the survivors and the bereaved families.

Canada to Send 40,000.

OTTAWA, Sept. 24.—It is understood that by January, Canada will have abroad, either on the fighting line or in England, nearly 40,000 men. The 31,000 to be sent from Valparaiso probably will go to a depot in England, from which they will be sent to the front when thoroughly efficient.

Recruits to fill gaps in the ranks caused by casualties and sickness will be sent from Canada to the depot from time to time, probably bringing the total to 40,000 by January 1.

CALLS ON PRESIDENT TO INTERVENE.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 24.—Ridiculing the efforts of the police to assist Mrs. Mary McDonald, 40 years old, living on a farm near the city, set out in search of thieves who had stolen 200 of her chickens. Mrs. McDonald found the tracks of a crooked wagon wheel and a horse's shoe broken in a peculiar manner, and followed the marks for nearly 10 miles to a point on the outskirts of Niles, Mich. There she found four men with her chickens. She preferred charges against them in a local court.

Canadian Guns Are Gifts.

OTTAWA, Sept. 24.—More than 200 guns will be placed at the disposal of the British forces by the Canadian authorities, according to an announcement by Premier Borden. Of these 134 will be handed over outright to the British government, including 98 18-pounders, six 60-pounders and 30 machine guns. In addition the Canadian expeditionary force will carry 70 field guns and many machine guns as its own equipment. The overseas expedition, comprising 31,200 men, will be dispatched immediately, it was announced tonight.

President Penrose gave an address on up-to-date religion.

WARRAZZA IS DENOUNCED BY VILLA; LATTER INDEPENDENT

CARRANZA IS DENOUNCED BY VILLA; LATTER INDEPENDENT

CENTRAL GOVERNMENT CONDEMNED BY HEAD OF REBEL FORCES.

EL PASO, Texas, Sept. 24.—General Francisco Villa, dominant leader in Northern Mexico, denounced last night the central government headed by Venustiano Carranza and announced his independence. This placed the state of Chihuahua in open revolt against the party in power at Mexico City, as well as Sonora, the next border state to the west where Governor Maytorena previously has proclaimed his independence of the constitutional party as represented by Carranza.

Villa agents sent several carloads of munitions as well as troops to assist Governor Maytorena, of Sonora, who is in open revolt against Carranza. This was followed later in the day, according to reports received here, by the sending of 500,000 pesos in Villa paper currency to Maytorena officials. This money, it was said, was being placed in circulation in that part of Sonora dominated by the Maytorena forces to absorb the constitutionalist or Carranza issues.

Grab of Cash Denied.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—The British embassy received the following dispatch from its foreign office: "Germans are spreading reports that the British commander in Egypt has seized reserve funds of Egyptian Dette Publique and cash funds of national banks and of the minister of finance and has sent them to London, issuing equivalent amount of notes. This story is a pure invention."

Archbishop Is Shut Out.

ROME, via Paris, Sept. 24.—Cardinal Lucon, archbishop of Rheims, has sent a message from Paris to the Pope saying he is doing all in his power to reach Rheims where the great cathedral has been destroyed by shell fire.

He has been unable to do so, however, owing to the occupation of the town by the French forces. The pope has asked for a report regarding the destruction of the famous edifice.

FURLONG WRITES OF ROUND-UP

As one looks out on the swing and swirl of movement in the great sun-flooded oval framed by the Indian camp and the cottonwoods behind which the fertile hills curve gracefully against the September sky, if he did not know it before it does not take a citizen of Pendleton to tell him that the men, women and horses are the real thing. Some buckaroos are tall and rangy; some short and thickset, but all carry that simple, natural bearing of the men and women of the range, with the straight, quiet manner, fearless daring and generous nature which characterize them. They are a type—a type, too, in the passing which in time will go. But a type which the city of Pendleton holds at its true value and whose citizens are doing their best not only to perpetuate, but to let the United States—yes, the world—know the things for which they stand. To let the world know how much not only the United States but those who have found their way across the oceans to it, are indebted to pioneer, the explorer, the scout, and the cowboy for the winning of the west. You look out not only on the type of those who won the west, but actually on some of the old timers, old Hank Caplinger, for instance, and others who have taken part in that actual winning. So, too, as you walk the streets of Pendleton, you stranger, unwittingly rub elbows with many an old Indian fighter who now sees you come and go safely in a Pullman car.

But out in the arena you have seen in the sports of the range the play of the cowboy which has developed in his off time from his work. You have seen in the desperate daring, the whirlwind rush, and the marvelous dexterity an exemplification of endurance, grit and headwork in riding unequalled in any other form of sport. You have seen the hunch and the tussle of a beast doing his fiercest to shake his rider and the rider with an equal nerve and display of horsemanship doing his best to stay on—yes, and in most cases staying on. The fierce snort of the Texas longhorns which has sent those on foot scurrying to cover has shown that the old skill of the roper on the "throw" and the "bust" is by no means extinct. While in perhaps, the nerviest sport of all, the bull-dogging of the Texas longhorn, is revealed a feat which you must see to believe. A man single-handed jumping from his horse's back, seizing and throwing by the horns a full grown Texas steer. A sport though absolutely harmless in every respect to the four legged animal is one in which his two legged competitor must use consummate skill, strength and nerve to protect himself and "bulldog" his antagonist.

You have been held spellbound by the lurch and roll as the stage coaches have rumbled in a hair-breadth way to danger circling the hills and sped on twist and turn through canyon and gulch. You have been gripped by the excitement of "saw race" and "Roman." The wonderful skill of fancy roper, cowboy and cowgirl, has shown you an art which is magic in its character; the bulls have proved that they can buffalo their riders while the buffaloes have proved that they too can buffalo any buckaroo that tries to make a bull of them.

Of course, you went to Happy Canyon. No one stayed away for there you complete the portrayal of the old west. In the arena the active rip-roaring life and sports of the range were seen in their fullness and at their best. But at Happy Canyon is where you see the frontier town when the ranger, Indian fighter, sheriff are off duty but where the hotel proprietor barkeeper and John Chishman are decidedly on. Every phase of the town of Kit Carson, Buffalo Bill, Pegleg Smith, old Hank Caplinger and Dave Horn is shown.

Inside you will find every setting true to that life and outside you saw the life of badman and vigilante as they come riding in. It's an education and a drama in which in many instances the players themselves are the real characters who have taken part in the life of the period it typifies. Under the cluster lights of the broad Main street of Pendleton the crowds surge and pause move on all in that orderly happy holiday spirit for which the Round-up stands and you can turn aside to theater or cowboy dance and then turn in for the night with the satisfaction of the day well spent and the anticipation of evening two more wonderful days to follow.
