Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Improving Residence.

G. W. Byers has taken out a permit to remodel and improve his residence on East Court street. The work will cost about $1600.

Giving House Stucco Finish.

Virgil F. Moore is having a stucco finish put on his residence at 115 Lincoln street and the improvement will make his home much more attractive.

Out of Hospital.

Fred George, well known Echo merchant who has been confined to St. Anthony's hospital for several weeks with rheumatism, was able to leave the hospital for the first time yesterday. He is recovering slowly.

Well Known Attorney Here.

Roscoe R. Johnson, former well known Pendleton attorney who is now practicing in Portland with J. P. Winter, arrived this morning to look after matters in which he is interested.

Two New Members.

Dr. Thomas C. Ohmart and Dr. W. C. Ingram, both dentists, were made members of the Commercial association last evening. The membership committee intends commencing its yearly campaign at once and expects to increase the roll considerably.

First Frost Last Night.

The first heavy frost of the season visited Pendleton during the early morning hours and early risers saw the city glistening in a coat of white. As a result of the frost the autumn leaves are beginning to fall fast and bonfires will soon be in order.

Takes Brother's Place.

During the absence of Claude Barr, O. W. R. & N. ticket agent in the east, his brother, Lester Barr, will have charge of his work. The latter was appointed to the same position at Baker several months ago but recently went east on a visit and will remain here until he is given another assignment.

Pasco Has New Theater.

Pasco's new $15,000 theater will be opened to the public next Sunday evening, according to Conductor Gus Bertholet of the N. P. train, and he thinks the building of a new opera house in his home city may well be a good example for Pendleton. The Pasco theater is on the John Cort circuit.

Building Partnership Garage.

N. D. Swearingen and Gus La Fontaine have let the contract for the construction of a wood and concrete garage on their Jackson street residence lots. Mr. La Fontaine has just completed a handsome bungalow on his lot and Mr. Swearingen will follow suit in the near future. The garage will cost about $400.

Institute Last Days of Month.

The annual Umatilla county teachers' institute will be held in this city on October 29, 30 and 31, according to Supt. I. E. Young who declares that the erroneous impression has gone out that the dates are October 12, 13 and 14. The convention of school directors will be held on October 30. All teachers of the county are required to attend the institute and school will be suspended on those days.

Out to Sell Lyceum Tickets.

The citizen committee, having in charge the annual lyceum bill of attractions for winter entertainment, met yesterday and decided to start at once upon a canvass of the city to place season tickets. The list of attractions this year is, without any question, the best that has been booked in Pendleton, and any one of the five numbers will be worth the price of admission to all. Season tickets will be sold at $3 each or two for $5 and tickets to the high school students will be sold for one dollar each.

Wheat Still 84 Cents.

The price of wheat in the local market remains unchanged with the market not active. For club the price of 34 cents is quoted.

Night School Opens Tonight.

At 7 o'clock this evening the night class at the high school in manual training will meet to commence work. Classes will be held at that hour every Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Already eighteen have enrolled to take the work.

Bond-Burchill Nuptials.

A marriage license was issued this morning to Charles E. Bond and Frances Ireland Burchill, a popular young couple of this city. They were married this morning at 11 o'clock in the Episcopal church and left on No. 17 on their wedding journey.

County Court Meeting.

The county court is holding its regular monthly meeting today and most of the time has been taken up with the auditing of bills. Late this afternoon several road petitions are to be considered.

Assaulted Collector Fined.

Because he took pugnacious objection to being dunned for payment of a bill presented by Edison Thacker, Ed Long, who works at the Turner bottling works, was arrested this afternoon and fined $5. The alleged assault occurred yesterday, and this morning Thacker swore out a warrant for Long's arrest.

May Endorse Hygiene Society.

Acting upon the solicitation of Dr. M. S. Kern last evening, the Commercial association authorized the committee on public policy to investigate the work done by the Oregon Dental Hygiene Society in an educational way and to endorse it with resolutions if it saw fit.

Milton Case Up Tomorrow.

Another case from Milton in which the defendant, Jess Harrington, is accused of a statutory charge, will occupy the time of the court tomorrow. Judge James A. Fee will act as counsel for the defendant. The principal witness of the prosecution will be a 17 year old girl.

Gave Booze to Prisoners.

Because they passed whiskey into the city jail to the prisoners, Harry Dupuis and Douglas McDonald were arrested and charged with vagrancy. Upon their representation that they wanted to leave town to accept jobs offered them, Judge Fitz Gerald suspended sentence for two hours and they were notified that if they were seen in the city after that time they would be brought back for sentence.

Naughton Signs Up.

The Portland Journal of yesterday contained the following item concerning George Naughton, second baseman on the champion Pendleton Buckaroos:

"Outfielder Naughton, the youngster who came from Pendleton to the Beavers, signed yesterday for next year and will be taken to the spring training camp of the Beavers. Naughton had a long conference with Judge McCredie and then departed for his home in Seattle."

Demurrer Is Sustained.

Judge L. T. Harris of Lane county, acting for Judge Phelps, has just handed a decision sustaining the demurrer to the amended complaint in the case of the Northwestern Steel Co. vs. School District No. 16 in which the corporation seeks to collect from the Pendleton school district for materials used in the construction of the new high school and for which the bankrupt contractors could not pay.

Prisoners Wanted at Prosser.

The local police have just been notified that Tom O'Brien and John Williams, two men arrested here during the Round-up and held as suspects, are wanted in Prosser, Wash., for burglary and that an officer would be sent for them at once. When arrested by Officer Alex Manning, several knives were found upon them with marks showing they came from Prosser. Their pictures were taken and photos sent to Prosser where a merchant identified one as that of a man who had been in his store on the day of the robbery. The knives were also identified. The two men have been held here on a vagrancy charge.

Scheel Vs. Hansen Case Up.

Today the case of Rudolph Scheel vs. Carl Hansen has been before the circuit court and at press time was just going to the jury. The plaintiff at one time had the farm land of the defendant leased and at the expiration of the lease, it seems that there was some disputed verbal understanding. Scheel seeded 185 acres of summerfallow and afterwards moved on to the Caldwell place. When he went to harvest the 185 acres he found that Hansen had leased the place to another man. He is suing for two-thirds of the crop. J. A. Fee and R. R. Johnson are his attorneys, while Col. J. H. Raley is representing the defendant.

Attention, All Elks.

There will be an important meeting of Pendleton Lodge No. 238, B. P. O. Elks on Thursday evening, October 8th. Voting on candidates, followed by taking up proposition of new Elks' temple with architect who will be present. Call and see the tentative plans. Social session and refreshments. All are urgently requested to attend.

FOOTBALL PROSPECTS AT LOCAL HIGH GROW BRIGHT

35 HUSKIES PRESENT THEMSELVES CANDIDATES FOR STRONG TEAM.

Football prospects are growing brighter each day for Pendleton high school, and at present Coach Livingston has thirty-five live, husky men from which to choose a team. Most of the men are recruits, but are fast learning the secrets of the game, and it is the general opinion of those connected with foot-ball that though the team may be handicapped by the loss of many experienced players, and by lighter weight, it will have the advantage of greater speed.

The first game of the season for Pendleton will be played at Walla Walla on the seventeenth of this month, and though not much time is left for training, Coach Livingston says that the team will be in no wise unprepared for the struggle. A game has been arranged for practice with the town team next Saturday in which the men showing up best at present will take part.

The men in training for football at present are: Roscoe Bond, Wilbur Badley, Clark Myers, Joe Narkaus, Harry Hayes, Charley Russell, Harold Brock, Ernest Boylen, Sheldon Alrich, Emil Seibert, Paul Kerkick, West Mimms, Arnold Minns, Vernal Backman, Enoch Friedly, Ned Fowler, Russel Wilbur, Fred Russel, Glen Gligson, Everett Daubner, Paul Callison, Owen Kelly, Ralph Hargette, Theodore Haden, Hugh Bowman, Olen Hughie, Tom Murphy, Henry Latourelle, Burton Greulich, Clarence Bean, Tom Searcy, Chell Brown, Irvin Mann, Allen Simpson.

Twenty minutes are spent every noon in Coach Livingston's laboratory for studying signals. The evening practice is devoted to scrimmage, signal practice, and new formations and plays.

FARMER FAILS TO APPEAR.

from Navin to ride to Athens and, as they came opposite Anderson the latter stepped out and presented a revolver. Then the unexpected happened. True to racial characteristics Dempsey, instead of meekly obeying, jumped from the wagon and grappled with the highwayman. Thereupon Navin leaped upon his back and tried to assist Anderson but Dempsey made his escape and hid in a field, Navin taking several shots in the general direction of his hiding place.

Anderson was discovered the day following by Sheriff Taylor hiding in a haymow and Navin was traced to Adams where he was arrested. Both denied their guilt. Navin admitted having been drunk but declared Dempsey had not ridden out of town with him. Later, however, Anderson turned state's evidence and confessed the whole plot.

PENDLETON AS HUB FOR COMMERCIAL MEN. SLOGAN

male, railway facilities, progressiveness and spirit of optimism, Pendleton has no equal in this section and, if there is to be a Spokane of eastern Oregon as I believe there will be, Pendleton should be it."
Others spoke along the same line and the result was that the pamphlet was ordered printed and a resolution urging the merchants to point out the superior advantages of Pendleton as a place for headquarters ordered drawn up.
A. J. McAllister made a very pertinent suggestion when he referred to the need of apartment houses here. "The traveling man who is away a week at a time does not care to leave his family in a house alone. He wants his wife to be relieved of the man's work about a dwelling and also to have the social and protective advantages of apartment house life. I can personally guarantee to bring five families to Pendleton if an apartment house is built and reasonable rental is asked."
Others mentioned the same matter with the result that Mr. Lonergan and A. H. Cox, who are in the building business, promised to investigate the practicability of putting up an apartment house.

Japs Plead Guilty.

The two Japs arrested night before last for having guns in their possession this afternoon pleaded guilty and Justice of the Peace Parkes took the matter of their sentence under advisement. Frank Sisco, charged with larceny from the person, was also brought before the justice of the peace this afternoon and was bound over to the grand jury.
