PENDELTON HIGH PLAYS FIRST GAME ON SATURDAY

FOOTBALL WARRIORS WILL LEAVE TOMORROW TO MEET WALLA WALLA.

Pendleton high team leaves for Walla Walla tomorrow, for the first interscholastic game of the season, fully determined to bring back the victory, or be brought back on their shields, as the warriors of old.

The team is composed of Emil Stebert, half; Harold Brock, full; Ernest Boylen, quarter; Charley Russell, tackle; West Mimms, end; Sheldon Ulrich, end; Russel Wilbur, guard; Wilbur Badley, tackle; Enoch Friedly, guard; Ned Fowler, center; Paul Kerrik, half. The suits are Paul Calison, center and guard; Clarence Dean, guard, and Fred Russell, tackle. One other man will be chosen this evening.
Coach Livingston expresses great faith in the ability of the boys to carry away the victory, declaring emphatically that "there isn't a yellow streak in any man on the team. He also declared in assembly this morning that if such a thing should happen that Walla Walla should win it would be because they had a mighty good team to represent them, and not on account of lack of ginger, lack of hard work in careful training, or lack of knowledge of the game on the part of the Pendleton team.
A good many rousing yells were offered in assembly under the leadership of Tom Murphy, the newly appointed yell leader.
