Party Dress Is Undoing.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Marie Muldring, 18 years old, sat weeping in her home one night recently because she could not go to a dance. She said she could not go because she had no dress to wear.

At least, that is the story Mary told Municipal Judge Sabath in the Chicago avenue court this morning when asked why she had taken a dress from Mrs. Frances Schmidt, who lives on the same floor with Marie at 603 North State street.

"I did want to go to the dance at the Lincoln Turner Hall," Marie said. "I had nothing but my working clothes and no money. I knew Mrs. Schmidt had a cream colored party dress that I would look pretty in, and I intended to return it. So I borrowed it and when I got home Mrs. Schmidt had me arrested."

Here Mrs. Schmidt broke in. "She is a bad girl to be stealing peoples' clothes, judge," she said. "I want her sent to the Bridewell for six months."

"Not in this court," said the judge. "She is just a young and foolish girl. I am going to continue the case for two days."

A policeman was detailed to investigate her story.

Irish Guards Rough It.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—In a letter to "all the boys at home," an Irish Guard says: "I can tell you we are having a rough time as regards marching. I shall soon be marching on the stumps of my legs, what with sore heels and blisters. We do about 15 miles a day, with Germans annoying us at night, so we cannot get any rest, I go to sleep on the march. "I want to ask one favor of some of the 'boys' and that is to put one half pennyweight each and send us a little bit of tobacco now and again, as we have had no pa yet and not likely to get any. I'm sure some of them will not mind doing a good turn. Tobacco is very scarce; if one is with a 'tag' about 20 ask for the end."

Kin's Illness Fatal.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.—Shocked by the news that her favorite granddaughter had been removed to a hospital, critically ill, Mrs. Sarah Levering died suddenly.

Mrs. Levering, who was 81 years old, boasted frequently that she had never been seriously ill in all her long life. Yesterday, shortly after arising, she was informed that her granddaughter, Mrs. John Williams, who lived only a short distance from her home, had been taken to the German-town hospital.

Mrs. Levering was stricken immediately, and by the time a physician had arrived she was dead. He said death had been caused by heart failure.

MINE SWEEPER LOST FIRING NEAR ENGLAND

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The British mine sweeper Mary was sunk by a mine in the North Sea. Six of the crew of 14 were rescued. The survivor, who was landed at Lowestoft reported heavy gun firing off the Yorkshire coast.

Last evening a meeting of Pendleton men who are members of Greek letter national college fraternities was held in the offices of B. L. Fifteen were present at the meeting last evening. A banquet will be held some time next week at which a formal organization will be effected. ### CONFEDERATE MONUMENT PRESENTED TO ST. LOUIS

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 7.—A twenty-year struggle by the Confederate Monument association of St. Louis to place a shaft here as a monument to the soldiers of the confederacy ended today when Mrs. H. N. Spencer, president of the association, delivered the completed monument to the city of St. Louis in a presentation address to Mayor Henry W. Kiel. The mayor replied in a speech of acceptance. General Bennett H. Young of Louisville, Ky., made the unveiling address. The shaft will stand in Forest Park. The funds for the monument were given by three chapters of the United Daughters of the Confederacy and the Confederate Memorial Association, comprising the Confederate Monument association.

George W. Zolnay, a sculptor, formerly of St. Louis, designed the monument. The unveiling closed the annual reunion of the Missouri members of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, which was in session for three days.

COPPER KING HEINZ DIED, LEAVING NO WILL

SARATOGA, N. Y., Nov. 7.—F. Augustus Heinz, the copper mine owner, who died here last night. This became known when the Heinz lawyers obtained from Surrogate Osterlander an order appointing Mrs. Lida M. Fleitmann, of New York City, Mr. Heinz's sister, administratrix of his estate.

The papers filed with the court placed a nominal valuation of "more than $10,000" on his estate. The lawyers intimated that the estate's affairs are somewhat complicated and that public estimates which have been made heretofore, are largely in excess of its actual value.

Autolists See Highway.

ASHLAND, Ore., Nov. 7.—Scores of automobilists met in Ashland and conveyed a large party from various sections of the valley to view the graded portion of the mountain unit of the Pacific highway over the Siskiyou which has been completed. This unit is 12 miles in length. The graded surface is 24 feet wide. Every railway crossing at grade has been eliminated. People were shown over the line by the resident engineer.

MRS. GLYNN DONATES PET COLLIE TO RED CROSS FUND

Mrs. Martin Glynn, NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Before leaving for Albany to start on an automobile trip to Montreal, Mrs. Martin Glynn, wife of the governor, made arrangements to have sent from her summer home, Cedarhill, some of her choicest White Plymouth Rock chickens, and Carriek, her famous Scotch collie, long the canine pride of the Glynn family, to the Red Cross Bazaar, which is now in full blast at Grand Central Palace here. Members of the committee realize that Mrs. Glynn was making a great sacrifice in donating her favorite dog, and they predict that fashionable dog lovers will make the bidding very spirited when Carriek is placed on the auction block.

OHIO FOLKS TO MAKE HOME AT HERMISTON

DEVELOPMENT OF ORCHARD TRACT WILL BE MADE AT ONCE—OTHER NOTES.

(Special Correspondence.) HERMISTON, Ore., Nov. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Himmelman of Akron, Ohio, returned Wednesday to take up the development of their orchard tract, half a mile north of town. Mrs. George Briggs returned the first of the week from Portland where she was the guest of Mrs. C. K. Bland, formerly of this city. Mrs. George Uphogrove, also a former resident, entertained for Mrs. Briggs during her stay, when many of the ladies of Portland, formerly of Hermiston, gathered for a reunion. Miss Beale McPherson and Miss Harriet Harris entertained at cards Wednesday evening, the first of a series of parties they will give during the season.

Mrs. E. P. Dodd is the hostess this afternoon at her home on Highland avenue of an informal card party. A dance was given in the Hermiston Mercantile Hall last evening by the management of the hall, the United Orchestra of Pendleton furnishing the music. Mrs. Anna Sapper was the hostess of a delightful luncheon at her home east of town Thursday. John D. Rice of Pendleton was here Tuesday. Mrs. Jas. Bedale was a Pendleton visitor in town Friday.

ARMY OFFICER FALLS WITH GLENN MARTIN; ARE SERIOUSLY HURT

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Nov. 6.—Captain L. E. Goodyear, United States aviation corps, and Glenn Martin, famous aviator and airship manufacturer, were confined to beds in a hospital here suffering from serious, if not fatal injuries as the result of a 50 foot fall from Martin's 90 horsepower biplane at the North Island aerodrome. That both men were not killed was considered remarkable by Captain Cowan, U. S. A., in charge of the aviation station here, and other skilled aviators.

Goodyear, it was announced at the hospital, received a broken leg and numerous minor injuries. Martin was cut and bruised about the body and he will soon be on his feet. He was rendered unconscious and picked up for dead but soon came to and said he was not seriously hurt.

Martin and Goodyear were making a slow speed test, as outlined by the government in its competitive contests. The government prize was withdrawn because of the failure of any manufacturing concern to live up to specifications, but Martin has since been demonstrating the merits of his machine at North Island along the lines laid out by the government. The engine was little damaged and Martin announced that he will rebuild the machine as soon as he is well enough.

Spies Are Captured

PETROGRAD, Nov. 5.—A German colonist, driving toward Warsaw, was stopped by a Cossack patrol. Asked what were the contents of the car, he replied "Vegetables." The Cossack pierced a sack with sword, producing a "resounding cry." "That kind of vegetables," said the Cossack, hastily examined the contents of the sacks. In the upper ones two Germans were found, one wounded by the sword, then a few sacks of cucumbers, and underneath German proclamations calling on the inhabitants to revolt against Russia. The spies were handed over for court-martial and the proclamations burned.

Centipede Enters School.

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 7.—A great big eight-inch centipede, an old fellow with black body and light brown claws, invaded the French class at the high school here. When first noticed he was crawling up Madame Muenier's dress. The French class of nine girls screamed simultaneously, but Miss Lucie Wooten was the heroine of the hour, knocking the centipede from the teacher's clothing. One would have thought a mouse was loose in the schoolroom by the way the young women hopped upon the benches.

Taylor Is Thankful.
To My Democratic and Republican Friends:

I wish to thank my republican and democratic friends who so loyally supported me in the recent election and at the same time extend my congratulations to Hinkle and Kitter, my republican opponents. I feel proud of the fact that I conducted a clean campaign, free from mud slinging or any kind of abuse, and in view of the overwhelming republican majority in this county, I am grateful indeed for the splendid vote which I received.

If the republican members of the legislature need my assistance at the next session of the general assembly, I assure them I shall be glad to represent them as an active member of the third house.

Sincerely yours,
H. J. TAYLOR.

Greatest Event in Woman's Life

All human experience looks back to motherhood as the wonder of wonders. The patience, the fortitude, the sublime faith during the period of expectancy are second only to the mother love bestowed upon the most helpless but most marvelous creation—a baby.

Women are quick to learn from each other those helpful agencies that aid to comfort, and yet are perfectly safe to use and among these they recommend "Mother's Friend."

It is entirely an external application designed to lubricate the broad, flat muscles and skin that protect the abdomen. It has been in favorable use for nearly half a century and is known to mothers in almost every settled community in the United States who highly recommend it. You will find it on sale in drug stores. "Mother's Friend" is utterly harmless, contains no deadening drugs, very beneficial, very soothing and a wonderful help.
