LIVESTOCK RUN SMALL

(Courtesy Sunday's Journal.) PORTLAND, Ore.—In every line of livestock, with the exception of mutton, reduced receipts were shown in the North Portland market for the week. The condition of the mutton and lamb trade ruled very firm, with tops in the lamb division selling rapidly at $6.25 and the demand better than current offerings.

While the arrivals of the week were greater than during the preceding week at North Portland, totals were somewhat lighter than during recent weeks.

Killers were out in force every time there was mutton offering and quality considered, all sales were made at better prices than last week.

Situation in the mutton here is similar to that shown in other stockyard markets of the country, except perhaps that the strength elsewhere has been even more pronounced recently than here.

General mutton market: Best yearlings $5.50 @ $5.60 Old wethers 5.25 @ 5.50 Best ewes 4.35 @ 4.50 Best east mountain lambs 6.00 @ 6.25 Valley light young lambs 5.75 @ 5.85 Heavy spring lambs 5.00 @ 5.50

Hog Market Higher. With much fewer hogs offering in the North Portland yards during the week compared with the previous six days, the trend of the market in general was somewhat better. Higher prices were forced with limited sales reported toward the latter part of the week up to $7.19 @ $7.35. The bulk of the real good stuff commanded the lower figure during the week's end trading.

Market for hogs was firm at practically all stockyard points in the country. Advances of moment were scored at nearly all centers.

General hog market range: Best light $7.05 @ 7.15 Medium light 6.90 @ 7.00 Good and heavy 6.50 @ 6.75 Rough and heavy 6.05 @ 6.25

Cattle Situation Better. While prices reflected practically no change at North Portland for the week, simply because there was not sufficient good quality to enable the trade to pay more, the market situation in the cattle pens was improved during the six days. Tops sold during the week at $6.75 @ $6.85 in the steer division, but in some quarters the belief prevails that real good stuff, if available, would have brought closer to $7.

Extremely light run of cattle was shown in the yards during the week. In fact it has been many a week since such a small total supply was shown. Naturally this caused buyers to get into the market early whenever stuff was available.

Conditions in the cattle trade at points east of the Rockies were somewhat stronger during the week, with prices generally elevated for average quality.

General cattle market range: Selected steers $6.75 @ 6.80 Good to prime 6.50 Good to choice 6.60 Ordinary to fair 5.75 @ 6.25

GREAT MASS OF PROOF.

Reports of 30,000 Cases of Kidney Trouble, Some of Them Pendleton Cases.

Each of some 6000 newspapers of the United States is publishing from week to week, names of people in its particular neighborhood, who have used and recommended Doan's Kidney Pills for kidney backache, weak kidneys, bladder troubles and urinary disorders. This mass of proof includes over 30,000 recommendations. Pendleton is no exception. Here is one of the Pendleton cases:

J. D. Morrow, rancher and butcher, 517 Marie St., Pendleton, Ore., says: "I had pain in the small of my back for about three months. If I did any work that obliged me to stoop, sharp twinges darted through my back, just over my right kidney. The kidney action was very irregular and the kidney secretions pained when passing. A friend told me to take Doan's Kidney Pills and one box removed all these troubles.

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Morrow had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

What the Press Agent Has to Say of Present and Coming Attractions

Orpheum—Tuesday and Wednesday "Through the Flames." Two reel Rex drama rife with thrilling situations. Herbert Rawlinson and Anna Little are featured.

Bert Daly and Bill Hampton, firemen are close pals although Bill is years older than Bert. Bert's sweetheart Anna is a seamstress and lives in a tenement house with her tiny sister Olive. Frank Carter, owner of the tenement, calls and becomes fascinated by Anna, who, however, meets his advances with disdain. He persists and Bert comes in and throws him out. Later he spends the night in the tenement and accidentally sets fire to the place. Bill and Bert heroically rescue Anna and Carter, who dies, however, and Bill is reinstated after being put out by Carter.

"Hypnotic Power." Sterling Ford Sterling appears in his usual eccentric characterization. Jealousy of a rival leads him to study hypnotism. He makes the rival jump into the lake. All goes well until the professor of hypnotism shows up. Then the real excitement begins, with fast and furious fun in evidence every moment. Universal Boy, Jr. in the "Mystery of the New York Docks." Matty while viewing the ships from the docks discovers a mystery and rescues a pretty girl.

Pastime Today.

Produced with infinite care and a deep sentimental regard for the affectionate esteem in which this great novel is held by the reading public "St. Elmo" made its initial screen appearance at this theater yesterday. This wonderful masterpiece in six reels of perfect photography will be repeated tonight for the last time.

Pastime—Tuesday-Wednesday.

In "My Official Wife," the Broadway star feature picture, which was the vogue at the Vitagraph theater, New York City, for four solid weeks, Richard Henry Savage has given to the screen a story of intense human interest, whose scenes are worked out in logical sequence, and a story that holds the attention to the very end. The final scene in "My Official Wife" is one of thrilling intensity—the blowing up, by a torpedo, of the "Zweaba," a Russian pleasure yacht owned by Sacha, a nobleman who has fallen in love with Helene Marie, queen of nihilists, and who renounces wife, children, country and honor to die with the charmer. Clara Kimball Young, a popular Vitagraph star, is too far ahead now to figure any other way than that both of these pieces are sure to be hits. The company will appear at the Oregon theater for three nights, starting Sunday, November 8th, with a change of opera each performance.

WHEAT CLOSES 5 CTS UP

Chicago Wheat Doubtful at Start of Session but Ends With a Fair Advance.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—Wheat closed Saturday at 5c up. It was a big bull market in wheat before the close. Trade was in a doubtful frame of mind during the morning because the receipts looked large and export business doubtful for Saturday. Two hours later the trade learned Chicago houses alone had sold 500,000 bushels for export, that foreign bids were the most important of the week at Kansas City and northwest centers, and that export sales in all positions might easily reach 1,250,000 bushels. It was reported placing big orders for both winter and spring wheat in this country. Snow, familiar with Argentine conditions, declares that the frosts reported this week are sure to bring damage reports later. For two days Minneapolis has not increased stocks a bushel. This is the first let up since the big movement started at harvest. Leaders are predicting much smaller receipts in the near future and a continuation of the European

Best Cough Medicine for Children

"Three years ago when I was living in Pittsburgh one of my children had a hard cold and coughed dreadfully. Upon the advice of a druggist I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it benefited him at once. I find it the best cough medicine to take. They do not object to taking it," writes Mrs. Lafayette Tuck, Homer City, Pa. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.—Adv.

Juvenile Bostonians.

Stardom is beckoning vigorously to two young members of the Juvenile Bostonians Opera Company, and if the substantially founded hopes of that happy pair are realized next season will see one, and probably two, at the head of "her own" company in musical comedy. The two threatened young artists are Patsie Henry and Halcyon Clark. How formidable is the threat may be judged from the fact that a team of co-authors of international fame for several months past have been engaged in the building of pieces fitted to each. Manager Lang has approved of the plans and has given his promise that if a satisfactory vehicle is offered he will back either or both productions.

The project became a double undertaking—almost a race between the two misses—because of a peculiar turn a story the authors were weaving for the first piece happened to take. They had started this with the intention of "fitting" it to Miss Henry. Just then they happened to see a performance in which Miss Clark used a fetching and particularly funny piece of "business" and right there the unfinished story started on a new angle. The idea suggested by Miss Clark's antics was just what was needed to fill out a big second act, and no one but a person of Miss Clark's meager dimensions would be suitable for the main role.

That was not very satisfactory news for Miss Henry but she was reconciled when it was proposed to abandon all the first draft of the play, and use the two different roles, each of which was so happily suited to the individual talents, for two entirely different pieces. Although Miss Henry and Miss Clark are dandy chums right now, if it came down to a disposition where stellar glories waited for only one of them—well, it

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

USE GRANDMA'S SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR RECIPE AND NOBODY WILL KNOW.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out of date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well known downtown Druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two it becomes beautifully dark, glossy and abundant.
