NEWS OF FARM AND RANGE

Seeding Almost Finished.—Reports from various parts of the county show that the fall seeding work is almost completed and that conditions for farm work have been favorable. The dry weather until recently has permitted of seeding and of the killing of weeds. The present rain is very beneficial to the seeded grain.

Walla Walla Land Deals.—Three good sized land deals have been closed at Walla Walla recently. The Cox-Barnett ranch of 1442 acres north of the city nine miles was sold to Ed Kelly for $57,700; W. D. Paul bought 320 acres of Whitman college, two miles north of Valley Grove for $19,200 and Mike Davis sold 150 acres of land at Twin Grove to Mr. and Mrs. Ira Troyer for $17,500.

Portland's Livestock Exposition.—The Commercial association of this city is in receipt of letters from Portland boosting the Pacific International Livestock Exposition which is to be held in North Portland on December 7-12 of this year. Admission to the exposition is free, the expenses being provided by the Portland business men for the sole purpose of helping the livestock industry.

More Appeals to "Buy a Bale"—Another letter has been received by the Commercial association from William B. Starr & Co., cotton dealers of Dallas, Texas, urging local people to join in the "Buy a Bale" movement for the relief of southern cotton growers whose product has been hard hit by the European war. The letter declares that England is expecting to make big profits by buying when the market strikes bottom and appeals to American citizens to get the profits for themselves by making investments now.

Quarantine Hits Local Dealer.—Tracy Layne, who has been buying and selling horses in Pendleton for some time past, has been hard hit by the quarantine for foot and mouth disease being placed upon some states and railroad lines by the federal inspectors. He had bought 45 head of horses for the German government and thinks now that his sale has been knocked in the head. It means a considerable loss to him.

"SOCIAL REVOLUTION" PASTOR OUT OF JAIL

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Bouck White, pastor of the Church of Social Revolution, was discharged from the Queen's county jail. He had served his six months' sentence for raising a disturbance in Cavalry Baptist church. A delegation of 50 friends, each wearing a red flower, welcomed him enthusiastically in the jail yard. An automobile draped with flags, took him away.

Standing uncovered in the court yard, White led in singing "The Hymn of Liberty" and "I'm Coming Here Tomorrow." He has announced his intention to try again to discuss with Rev. Cornelius Woolf, of Cavalry Church, where John D. Rockefeller, Jr. worships, the grievances of the strikers at the Colorado mines.

In a short address, White told the crowd he had replaced ash heaps in the jail yard with flowers and had done other things to make beautiful the institution's "unsightly features." He will resume his church duties.

*THREE RICH INDIAN PRINCES FIGHTING THE GERMANS IN FRANCE

Major General Sir Pertab Singh.

Maharajah of Patiala

Maharaja of Bikaner

Three wealthy Indian rulers, men who, under the British government in Hindoostan, rule over populations as large as that of England herself, have gone to France with their troops to fight for the allies. Some weeks ago reports were circulated that some of the native princes Britain had engaged in the war with Germany and Austria would be helpless in face of a native uprising, and a rebellion might be successful. It was said that some of them might lead their people against the rule of the British government in India. The reports caused instant action by some of these rulers. Three of them at least demanded to be sent to war. In all, twelve states of India raised troops or money. One of them gave more than $1,500,000 in cash for Great Britain's war fund.

ST. LOUIS GOING AFTER SOUTH AMERICAN TRADE

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 12.—A line of five barges to operate between St. Louis and New Orleans, connecting there with a line plying to Calao, Peru, is expected to be put into operation probably in the spring, to aid St. Louis and surrounding territory in picking off a portion of the widely advertised South American trade. The plans are to be annexed soon according to Claude Wetmore, Peruvian consul at St. Louis who has been in communication with Alphonse Pezet, the Peruvian minister to Washington.

The tentative plans are that from Calao, St. Louis goods will be transported to Lima and through much of the territory west of the Andes. Calao is several hundred miles south of the Pacific terminus of the Panama canal through which the vessels probably will ply.

Some Cities to Be Spared.

PARIS, Nov. 13.—A dispatch to the Temps from Saint Omer says:

"A map prepared by the German general staff was found recently in the possession of a German officer, who had been made a prisoner. On the drawing certain districts of Roubaix and Tourcoing were specially indicated by marks made in red pencil."

"When asked for an explanation of the markings the prisoner said he had received an order from Emperor William to spare these two cities, which are important industrial centers."

YOUNGSTOWN PUPILS MAY STUDY AGRICULTURE

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, Nov. 13.—An agricultural high school amidst the grime and dirt of Youngstown's steel and iron factories is the plan that Dr. N. H. Cheney, Youngstown physician will bring before the school board here today.

"My desire," says Dr. Cheney, "is a high school course to include an academic curriculum with special instruction in agriculture. I want to prepare children of the city for occupations which will take them into the pure wholesome air of the country and develop them into sturdy, self-reliant men and women."

Dr. Cheney's plan as submitted to the board contemplates a sixteen room building with ample farm land adjoining on the outskirts of the city. The course would include four years of academic and practical farm training.

PROGRAM AT APPLE SHOW WILL BE DELIGHT TO ALL

SPokane, Nov. 12.—Dr. Ira D. Cardiff, director of the agricultural experiment station, and his associates of the State College of Washington are arranging a pretentious program for their participation in the Seventh National Apple Show and Fruit Products congress in Spokane November 16 to 21.

A large space will be reserved for the college for exhibits and demonstrations in horticulture, plant pathology, entomology, dairying and home economics.

The horticultural exhibit will comprise sprayed and non-sprayed fruit, value of cover crops, methods of grafting, methods of storage, planting for pollination, methods of handling blight, methods of pruning and possibly types of spraying apparatus.

Demonstrations of diseases of horticultural plants will be shown in the plant pathology division, while the entomology work will include demonstrations of insects of economic significance in horticulture.

In the dairying division the college will have demonstrations showing the relation between dairying and horticulture, and possibly of other livestock to horticulture.

The home economics department will feature cooking demonstrations with reference to fruit products, canning demonstrations, etc. Four or five demonstrators will be on duty in the state college's department.

Death of Indian Is Mystery.

CENTRALIA, Wash., Nov. 13.—The mystery surrounding the death of Jack Choke, an aged Indian, whose body, with the skull crushed, was found near Rochester recently is still unsolved. Choke's fellow tribesmen are strong in their contention that Choke was killed by six runaways from the state training school, whom Choke was chasing in a canoe when he was last seen alive, but the Choke county sheriff is backward in believing the boys responsible and no arrests have been made.

Civil War Hero Dead.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Nov. 12.—General George F. Dick, a brigadier-general in the civil war and leader of the historic charge of the federal soldiers up Missionary Ridge, died here, 86 years old.

A KIDNEY REMEDY ADVERTISEMENT BROUGHT GREAT HAPPINESS

I take pleasure in stating that I have used Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, that I was greatly benefited by the same and have used it in my family. I had a son when quite young he suffered from bladder or kidney affliction. I called in my physician, he attended him but did him no good. Almost by accident I noticed an advertisement about the curative properties of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. I procured a bottle and gave it to him according to directions. It cured him of what we thought was almost impossible and the same with others of my family. I have such strong faith in Swamp-Root that I have never done without it in my family since the wonderful cure of my son as well as myself. I recommend it to all who suffer from kidney or bladder troubles and I am led to believe that it is one of the best medicines for the purpose for which it is used, that has ever been discovered.

This is my experience from the use of Swamp-Root. Wishing the promoters of this wonderful medicine a large sale to the suffering public, I am,

Yours respectfully,
W. H. McAFEE,
