

SOUR, SICK STOMACH, INDIGESTION OR GAS

"PAPE'S DIAPESPIN" MAKES UP-SET STOMACHS FEEL FINE IN FIVE MINUTES.

Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapiespin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapiespin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapiespin which costs only fifty-centa for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

Pastor Jails Negriss. TACOMA, Nov. 19.—After he was accosted Sunday night on the steps of the First Baptist church, at South Ninth and D streets, as he was entering to conduct services, Rev. Sylvester McAlpine, assistant pastor, called for assistance from members of the congregation and detained Ethel James and Nellie Washington, both colored, until the police arrived.

"Soliciting of members of the congregation has become so flagrant while men are entering the church to attend services and leave, that something had to be done in self-protection," explained Mr. McAlpine, to the police. "Church services are interfered with, and the women, who live near the structure, are a source of constant annoyance. An organized campaign should be begun against the denizens of the underworld, at least in that neighborhood." The women were fined $50 and costs in court this afternoon.

Noted Writer Divorced. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—Judge Graham granted a divorce to Inez Hayes Gillmore, short-story writer of note, from Rufus H. Gillmore of New York. The couple have been separated for a year and a half and Mrs. Gillmore, since November 15, 1913, has been residing in this city. As soon as the decree was granted Mrs. Gillmore left for the east, according to friends.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gerberding, prominent club woman, appeared in court with Mrs. Gillmore and testified to the unhappiness of the couple and the mutual agreement to separate.

As evidence of the incompatibility of the couple, a letter written by Gillmore to his wife in October of last year was introduced.

It is rumored among Mrs. Gillmore's friends here she is to wed Wallace Irwin, the writer.

La Grande Y. M. C. A. Fund Needed. LA GRANDE, Ore., Nov. 19.—Simultaneous with the formal opening of the new Y. M. C. A. building in this city for inspection by the public, will be launched a "finish-the-job" campaign for the purpose of raising funds for the equipping and furnishing of the new building. About $9000 will be needed and the task of obtaining donations will devolve upon the committee of 100 which in May, 1913, put through the campaign for a building fund of $40,000.

GERMAN DEAD BURNED FAST. GENEVA, Switzerland, Nov. 17.—The National Swiss publishes a long letter from a Swiss who is doing Red Cross work at Brussels. An extract from the letter says: "The number of German wounded arriving here is unimaginable. Trains, which we call cemetery trains, full of filled-up dead soldiers continue to arrive from the front. They contain bundles of dead, that is four bodies tied together to facilitate transportation. The bodies are burned promptly in special furnaces erected just outside Brussels."

WHAT the Press Agent Has to Say of Present and Coming Attractions

Orpheum—Thursday and Friday. "The Perils of Pauline," Episode number ten.

Pauline has taken her life in her hands in several episodes but in none before has she taken so many chances as in this one.

Harry plans to take Pauline to see some smugglers work and has fixed up a plan with some friends to show her something near enough the real thing to impress her. However, Owen overhears the plan and gets men of his own and drills them in their parts. They come to the house and Pauline readily goes with them. Thinking they have been sent by Harry, she is taken to a deserted lighthouse where Harry after several thrilling adventures, succeeds in rescuing her.

"The Law of the Lumberjack," two part Bison, featuring Marie Walcamp and Wm. Clifford.

If you like a play with swift moving action, tense and human with strong men fighting out hand to hand to hold one of the oldest yet ever-present problems that arise between man and woman, then don't fail to see this.

Bill Jones and Tom Jackson, one a foreman and the other a mill hand, are rivals in love and bitter enemies. Mary, the girl, favors neither, but when her brother is injured and Jackson saves his life she is naturally grateful. The two fight it out. Mary falls in love with Clifford, the doctor and when the lumberjack discovers that he intends to leave her, he forces him to marry her and proves his honest heart.

Regain the Mastery Over Blood Trouble. No Matter How Disheartening You Can Overcome It.

Blood disorders are quickly checked by S. S. S., the famous blood purifier. It rushes into the blood and in three minutes has traversed the entire circulation. It penetrates in where the blood is made, it washes out those spots and places where stagnation has settled, it cleanses the membranes, drives irritation from the joints, fills the blood stream with antitoxic influence and from head to foot creates conditions that make for blood health. There are people in every community who know this to be true. They have used S. S. S. for severe forms of rheumatism, for indolent, ulcerated spots, for eruptive skin diseases, for any and all those bodily conditions caused by blood loaded with impurities. Being a pure product of Nature it can not hurt the stomach and has therefore been the refuge of a host of people misguided in their dilemma by first trying to those dangerous mercantile drugs which have claimed so many unfortunate. If the skin breaks out in a rash, if boils or other eruptions appear, if there are blood stains of any other indications of impure blood get a bottle of S. S. S. at once of any druggist. But beware of substitutes. If in doubt as to your trouble or you wish competent medical advice free, write to the medical department, The Swift Specific Co., 58 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. War Ignored in Plans. WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Plans for the international naval parade through the Panama canal to San Francisco, which is to mark the formal opening of the canal, are going steadily ahead, despite the fact that on account of the war most of the great maritime powers may have to recall their acceptances of invitations to participate.

The state department has just asked the governments that have accepted for information of vessels that will be designated to join the fleet when it assembles in Hampton Roads early in the new year.

POPE APPEALS FOR PEACE IN EUROPE. ROME, Nov. 17.—The pope issued an encyclical appealing for peace in Europe. He attributed war to lack of mutual tolerance contempt for authority, class injustice and the worship of material wealth.

His holiness promised to devote his entire pontificate to overcoming these menaces to society, as he termed them.

"This spectacle of blood and misery," said the encyclical, "induced me to hearken to my ministry to praying the princess and people of the conflicting countries to end fratricidal warfare."

"I pray to God that as at the birth of the Redeemer, so at the dawn of my pontificate, the voice of peace may resound throughout the earth."

The supreme pontiff also renewed the late Pope Pius' protest against Italy's denial of political liberty to the church.

Episcopal Women Named. PITTSBURG, Nov. 19.—Woman, for the first time in the history of the Protestant Episcopal church, was recognized for service on one of the important boards of that denomination when the synod of the third province decided that the provincial board of social service shall hereafter be composed of one bishop, four presbyters, four laymen and two women. The day was principally devoted to a debate over the laws and rules which are to govern the newly created third province. The question of giving the synod a name resulted in considerable discussion, it being finally decided in favor of Washington City, with the province being known as the province of Washington.

The synod also decided to elect the presiding bishop for three years. He will also be eligible to succeed himself.
