WOULD CRUSH ROCK SO AS TO PROVIDE WORK

Pendleton, Ore., Nov. 30.

To the Editor of East Oregonian: I want to say in regard to the unemployment of this city which there seems to be so much worry at present why not the city and county get together and set one of the rock crushers going on the bluff by Lee street bridge, as the county owns two and the city one. Give employment to those with families at $2.00 a day and $1.50 to those that have no families. Let them board themselves and they would not starve by doing so. Pile up the crushed rock until it is needed, for we have roads leading to the city from all directions that the county could use it on, and it could be crushed during the winter much cheaper. I am not in favor of the coffee house proposition for I fear that it will bring many more of the hoboes here to our city. The writer of this article has worked many a day for $1.00 and did that after I had a wife and one and two children in California and we did not go hungry at that. If I have set the wage too high for the winter work say $1.75 and $1.25 but our home people should be looked after first and have the preference. Why not work the city prisoners? The city could use the rock also.

Yours Truly,

H. J. TAYLOR.

COMMISSION WILL TAKE UP COLORADO STRIKE TROUBLE

MEMBERS NAMED BY PRESIDENT WILSON WILL START WORK AT ONCE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Members of the commission to settle the Colorado coal strike, named by the president, will begin work immediately. The committee is composed of Seth Low, president of the national civic federation; Patrick Kilday, an officer of the United Mine Workers, and Charles Mills of Philadelphia.

The president is confident the commission will be as successful as that appointed by Roosevelt to settle the anthracite miners strike in Pennsylvania.

MAN TAKEN TO CALIFORNIA TO ANSWER CHARGE

ed that he had been in company with Clay in Rio Vista on the day of the crime. Meanwhile Sheriff Taylor has been tracing the man back from his criminal record and he now has it complete along with photographs from a half dozen different cities. He proved to be a safeblower of many aliases known sometimes as James Cary, sometimes as Harry Edwards and sometimes as John Muff. A far back as 1896 he was arrested in Seattle for robbery. He has served several terms in the penitentiary at Walla Walla, the last time for blowing a bank at Euphrata, Wash., in 1907, at which time he was captured by a cowboy posse at Willow Lake. More recently he was sentenced to the Missouri penitentiary, was afterwards transferred to the asylum and escaped from that institution. A letter from the Kansas City police characterizes him as a dangerous criminal who will shoot to kill upon the slightest provocation. He is suspected as having shot two policemen in Joplin, Mo., in 1901.

He had denied to Sheriff Taylor all along his identity but before leaving this morning admitted he was the original of all the photos. As he bade Sheriff Taylor goodbye, he remarked, "I suppose you will be coming down to California if they top me."

NEWS OF FARM AND RANGE

LOCAL FARMERS GO TO STATE MEETING

ANNUAL FARMERS UNION SESSION STARTS WORK AT THE DALLES TOMORROW.

Bound for The Dalles to attend the annual meeting of the state association, Farmers Education and Co-operative Union, a number of well known farmers left here today. Among those making the trip are R. O. Barnhart, alternate from the Pendleton local; C. P. Strain, delegate from the Pendleton local; W. W. Harrah, an official in the state association; C. C. Conner of Helix, Barney Anderson, Dr. W. R. Campbell, John F. Gentry, James R. Porter, and others.

The convention meets tomorrow and will be in session for three days. Several subjects of interest will be up for discussion, the open river question, being among the live topics on the program. The subject of rural credits is also to be discussed and the matter of cooperation will come up for consideration. The Washington farmers with whom the Oregon union men are associated in the warehouse business operate on a different basis from what is used in this state. They desire to have the Oregon men adopt their plan but there is objection to that course.

Onions to Europe — For the first time in the history of the trade, a foreign market has been found for Oregon onions. Supplies are now being collected for shipment to England by way of New York.

Space has been secured for 16 carloads on the American-Hawaiian steamer Pennsylvania, sailing from Portland on December 6 for New York via the Panama canal. A part of this supply is now on the dock, and the remainder will be on hand in a few days. California has been shipping onions to New York, and as they carried through in good shape, there is no doubt the Oregon onions will do even better on the long trip.

Big Land Deal Closed—The deal whereby Norman A. Humphreys acquires the Charles Reinhard and leasehold rights on the Umatilla Indian Reservation, and Rinehardt buys the Pierce Sawyer farm of 4500 acres in Union county, was consummated in Pendleton today. Mr. Rinehardt moves this week to Union county.

Umatilla county loses a good man and farmer, who takes with him the best wishes of a host of friends. The deal was put through by N. Berkeley and is one of the biggest in eastern Oregon for some time.

WAR TAX IN EFFECT DEC. 1.

specified in the act. This is done to keep the government's books straight as the fiscal year ends July 1.

Terms of Act Draught. Bankers are compelled to pay $1 for each $1000 of capital employed; theater proprietors pay according to the seating capacity of their playhouses; cigar manufacturers, according to their sales; proprietors of bowling alleys and billiard and pool tables, for each alley and table, while brokers of all classes pay flat sums.

The terms of the act are drastic, making it most advisable for those who have war taxes to pay to do so before Tuesday, while those in doubt should make inquiry of the collector's office.

Not only do these occupation stamps go into effect Tuesday, but the special documentary and proprietary tax stamps provided by the act also.

Documentary tax stamps are required on certain legal papers, on contracts, on bonds (save those required in legal proceedings), on all agreements to sell, sales memoranda, etc., bills of lading and manifests, certificates of all description, entry of goods in customhouse, insurance premiums, passage tickets to foreign ports, all telegraph and telephone messages costing over 15 cents and sleeping and palace car tickets.

Chewing Gum is Taxed. The law requires that all documents must be stamped before delivery, and it is illegal to file a paper unless it is stamped.

The proprietary stamp tax affects all classes of perfumery and cosmetics, the term "cosmetics" being understood to include hair preparations, dentifrices and the like.

The tax also applies to that great American institution—chewing gum. Every time you chew a stick of gum after tomorrow you chew up one-twenty-fifth of a cent in tax.

Proprietary stamps must be procured by dealers and affixed to articles before delivery to customers. Under the act postmasters are empowered to purchase stamps without prepayment on furnishing a bond. It is probable that the new stamps will be on sale at all postoffices throughout the state. They may be obtained direct from the office of the collector, however, in any amount on receipt of price.

HARD SURFACE ROAD WILL CONNECT IMPORTANT POINTS

UMATILLA AND COLUMBIA COUNTY SEATS TO BE LINKED BY HIGHWAY.

With the completion of the stretch of macadam highway between Adams and Athena, for which funds are in hand and the stretch between Weston and Milton for which money is provided for in the budget for 1915 in Umatilla county, there will be an unbroken stretch of hard-surfaced road from the Umatilla county seat to the county seat of Columbia county. Work in Walla Walla county now is being done on the last of the macadam road, known as the Inland Empire highway, between Walla Walla and Walsburg, and when that is completed there will be a good macadam road between these two points.

The macadam road from Walla Walla to Milton has been ready for traffic for some time past, and, with the exception of a short stretch between Adams and Athena extends to Pendleton. The Columbia county officials are working on a road toward Walsburg, and it is the intention to connect it with the Inland Empire highway from this point.

With the completion of the Inland Empire highway westward from Walla Walla, it will be possible for travelers to use this point as a junction and to make the trip to Walla Walla and other points in the western part of the county over a hard-surfaced highway. Ultimately the Inland Empire highway will extend northerly from Dayton and into Spokane, but it probably will be some time before this work is completed.

Serbs Claim Advantage. NISH, Serbia, Nov. 30.—In the battle in northwest Serbia, which began November 20, the Serbs won the advantage although the outcome is still undecided, says an official statement given out here. On the Dazarevitz-Mlonitza line the fighting is described as most desperate.

Some Toys Will be Scarce—Buy Early

American manufacturers have risen to the emergency and supplied any threatened deficiencies in the toy stocks.

The Children's Merry Christmas is assured.

Nevertheless there is more reason than ever this year for shopping early. There will be few if any belated imports.

American manufacturers have been taxed to the utmost limit of their capacities.

Today the advertising columns of The East Oregonian are an index to the full stocks of the stores as they will be every day from now until Christmas.
