DEWET PROBABLY WILL BE EXECUTED

CAPETOWN, Union of South Africa, Dec. 5.—It was thought here that an excellent chance existed of the execution of General DeWet, the rebel Boer leader now a prisoner in the British loyalist hands.

The capture was made by an automobile contingent under Colonel Brits. With DeWet, 52 of the latter's followers were taken on a farm near Waterburg. They surrendered without a shot.

the mountains and because of the slow. Two six horse teams with im-

Thursday and his horses were driven in a band. Mr. Rhinchart himself brought up the rear with his cattle.

GIRLS IN BILLET FOR BENEFIT OF UNEMPLOYED

(Miss Eunice Clapp in costume she will wear in the ballet.)

One hundred society girls and young matrons appeared in the Greek lyric ballet, "Pandora's Box," at the Seventh Regiment armory in New York on Dec. 4 for the unemployed women of New York. The ballet is the most ambitious thing of its kind attempted this season. Miss Anne Morgan has turned over her home for the rehearsals.

The flockmaster. The association also recommended that, inasmuch as the present state livestock sanitary board has served efficiently and at an expense of only $500 for 18 months, it be retained as it is.

Want Wool Standard.
One of the resolutions passed asked the department of agriculture to establish a wool standard just as it now has a cotton standard inasmuch as there are a number of grades of wool. Another resolution incorporated a call for a meeting at the Oregon Agricultural College for February 2, 1915, for the purpose of discussing methods of marketing wool. Another or extended a vote of thanks to Pendleton for the hospitality shown the delegates and finally there was a general resolution urging state and national legislators and the public at large to show by voice and vote a more favorable attitude toward business and industry.

The report of the financial committee showed a deficit of $700 and a roll call subscription resulted in the collection of over $1000. The contributions ranged from $5 to $150. An assessment of one dollar upon every thousand sheep shorn in 1915 was levied to provide funds for the next year. Secretary Hoke was reimbursed for the money he advanced during the year with twenty per cent interest.

An amendment to the constitution was adopted to permit bankers and merchants interested in the sheep industry to become members of the association and the executive committee was instructed to extend an invitation to such as they should determine upon.

Aside from Congressman Sinnott the principal speaker yesterday arternoon was F. A. Clark of Enterprise, who urged the necessity of maintaining a strong working organization. He also paid a strong tribute to Dr. S.
W. McClure, secretary of the national association and editor of the National Wool Grower. "If the Oregon woolgrowers have done no other thing than to send Dr. McClure to his present position, their organization has been worth all of the money and all of the effort expended," he said.

Just before the meeting adjourned, Mr. Sparling, an English horse buyer, presented some statistics showing the cost of the sheep industry in this state, the amounts paid the railroads, the taxes paid, the capital involved and other figures that were a revelation to many.

LOCAL HIGH GIRLS DEFEAT WAITSBURG TEAM 25 TO 20

CLOSELY CONTESTED GAME WITNESSED LAST EVEN-ING AT H. S. GYM.

Last night the high school girls succeeded in taking the victory from the Waitsburg girls by the score of 25-20, in the liveliest basketball game that has been played in the local gym for a number of seasons.

In the first half the score ran alternate, first in Pendleton's favor, then in favor of Waitsburg, but ended with Pendleton in the lead. In the second half the local girls bonded ahead by ten points and remained in that position until the last part of the half when Waitsburg succeeded in bringing their score within five of the locals. The game ended with the score 25-20 in favor of Pendleton. Throughout the game Alta Mentzer succeeded in making sixteen points and La Velle Rugg made nine. Vera Temple and Grace Rugg substituted for Ida Ar-cheron and Lois Hampton in the last half. The Waitsburg girls played hard and put up a good game, but were forced to acknowledge the superiority of the teamwork and training of the local girls.

The junior and senior game which was played before each half of the Pendleton and Waitsburg game, was an interesting feature of the evening. Some of the best talent in the school was represented in both teams.
The seniors ended the first half with the score 14-7 in their favor and in the last half succeeded in running their score up to 23. The seniors raised theirs to 12 and the game ended 35-12 in favor of the juniors. West Mims starred for the juniors and Charles Russell for the seniors.

The lineups for the two games were as follows:

Waitsburg—Emma Scherer and Elma Thompson, forwards; Ruth Colburn, jumping center; Ruby Ward, center; Claphane Gullford and Esther Scholl, guards; Ida Wells acted as sub and Miss Snell as coach.

Pendleton—Ida Anderson, jumping center; Claire McDonald, side center; La Velle Rugg and Alta Mentzer, forwards; Lois Hampton and Vivian Carsey, guards. The subs were Grace Rugg, Vera Temple and Vanita Beek.
W. K. Livingston was the local coach.

Seniors—Charles Russell, center; Leland Mentzer and Harold Brook, forwards; Allen Simpson and Ivan Mason guards, with Earnest Crockett for sub.

Juniors—Wesley Mims, center; Fred Peters and New Fowler, forwards; Paul Kerlick and Charles Gordon, guards.

Youth Is Killed in Car.
NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Dec. 5.

—A young man, identified as Stephen Tucker, aged 27, was found in a refrigerator car in a westbound northern Pacific train at Toppenish with his skull fractured in three places from blows with a coupling pin. He died at the moment of the discovery.
His mother lives in Oklahoma and a sister in Waldport, Ore.

Tucker's diary shows he has been working at Laurel, Mont. The car had come from Pasco with but two stops. There is no clue to Tucker's assaulters. Doctors say the assault may have been committed seven or eight hours before death. A gold watch was found in Tucker's pocket, but his shoes and stockings were missing.
