

Quality! Not Premiums

20 for 10c

STAKE a dime on the Camel Cigarettes, but don't look for premiums or coupons, as the cost of the tobaccos in them prohibits their use.

Camel Cigarettes—20 for 10c—are a blend of choice quality Turkish and domestic tobaccos. They do not leave that cigarette taste and cannot bite your tongue or parch your throat.

You haven't money enough to buy a more delightful cigarette.

If your dealer can't supply you, send 10c for one package or $1.00 for a carton of ten packages (100 cigarettes), postage prepaid. After smoking one package, if you don't find CAMELS as represented, return the other nine packages and we will refund your money.

BAPTIST CHURCH AT ADAMS IMPROVED BY ADDITION OF ORGAN

GIFT COMES UNEXPECTEDLY AND WHO THE DONOR IS REMAINS UNKNOWN.

Members of Congregation are Deeply Thankful for the Present Given the Church—Chapel Car Being Used for Services in Revival Meetings—Many Attend.

(Special Correspondence.) ADAMS, Ore., Dec. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Morrison and family were visitors at the county seat Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Harve Roseberry were in town Sunday.

One of the most unexpected and yet one of the most beneficial things that could happen to the Baptist church in Adams was the placing of a splendid new organ in it. Now where this organ came from and who was so thoughtful and kind as to get a new organ for the church is unknown. But nevertheless it is much appreciated by the people and the people of Adams thank the unknown friend very much. It is certainly a great improvement to the church as well as the singing.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krebs were visitors at the county seat Saturday. Miss Vesta Boylen, who is teaching in the Stone school house, was a visitor in Adams Saturday. She returned to Adams Sunday.

Miss Eleanor Stockton, who is teaching in Helix returned to her school. Mrs. Kyle McDaniel and little son Billy, were visitors in Pendleton this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Simonton and children, who live west of Adams, were in town Saturday evening. They attended the meetings which are being held in the chapel car.

John Adams, who lives near Adams was in town this week.

The Odd Fellows met Saturday evening. On account of special work, different Odd Fellows from different places were present. Five or six automobiles came from Weston, all bearing men equipped for the evening. Then, too, ten or twelve Odd Fellows came up from Pendleton, all bearing their various bundles. Refreshments, consisting of ham sandwiches, coffee, pickles, cookies and candy were served. A large crowd was present and all had a good time.

Jerry Stone was in town Saturday. The meetings that are being held in the chapel car are very interesting and beneficial. The meeting Friday evening was very good. Then the sermon preached Saturday evening by Mr. Driver the evangelist, was very interesting. His topic was: "What do ye think of Christ?" First as a "Human being," second as a "Teacher," and third as a "God who rules supreme. This sermon was put forth in a very forceful manner, and with splendid illustrations. Now these are only the beginning of these magnificent meetings and everybody are entitled and cordially invited to attend. Splendid singing is furnished, as Mr. Driver and his wife are both excellent singers. A meeting for the children, from eight to sixteen was held Saturday afternoon at the chapel car. Twenty children were present and listened intently to what Mr. Driver had to say. Little books of the gospel of John were given to the children, and they promised to read them.

Mr. and Mrs. Purl Hales and daughters Rena and Reta were in Adams Friday to attend the skating. Joe Benjamin was in town this week.

The Adams band met Monday evening with their instructor, Mr. Laddell of Athena. Favorable reports are heard from the instructor as to the progress of the pupils.

Ralph Wallen was in town Saturday evening.

Young peoples meeting was held Sunday evening in the chapel car, which was a treat to the young people. The topic, which was discussed Sunday evening was "The Life Verse."

Miss Nellie Darr, who is teaching school in Athena spent Sunday at her home in Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lavender and family were in town Sunday. Earl Simton motored to Pendleton Saturday.

L. L. Mann was in Adams last week. C. L. Woodward and family motored to Athena to do some trading.

Ike Christopher is busily engaged in sawing wood, chopping barley and cleaning wheat.

Eno Westersund and wife drove down to Cold Springs to visit his brother.

Dave Nelson is up from Pendleton on the ranch for the purpose of butchering his hogs.

Ben Hendrickson has completed all of his fall work. Fred Hendrickson motored to Pendleton this week to do some trading.

Abe Molstrom has just finished putting a new fence around his house. J. W. Schafer and family have moved to Walla Walla for the winter, where their children will attend school. The oldest son will remain on the ranch.

Mrs. Manda Hyde has just returned from the valley, where she has been visiting the past week. Elmer Pell and wife are now making their home on Matt Deimling's place.

King Peter Thanks Servian Troops. PARIS, Dec. 8.—King Peter of Servia, has visited the theater of war and has communicated to the troops an order of the day, in which he thanks them warmly for their efforts. This information is contained in a dispatch from the Nish, Servia, correspondent of the Havas Agency.

SILK UNDERWEAR FOR WORK GIRLS BANNED

OLYMPIA, Wash., Dec. 8.—A minimum weekly wage of $10 for girls employed in offices was recommended to the state industrial welfare commission by a conference representing employers, employees and the disinterested public here.

Silk underwear for office girls was put under the ban, and this blow fell on the girls from within their own camp, the three women representing the employees declaring that silk hose and silk petticoats are not a necessary adjunct to a working girl's wardrobe.

BAKER REFUSES TO PAY ACCOUNTS

BAKER, Ore., Dec. 8.—The county court of Baker county refused to pay the bill of State Insurance Commissioner Ferguson, for services rendered by C. M. Lockwood and other accountants in the employ of the commission, for expediting the county books, under the new law in effect for the first time this year. The amount of the bill rendered by the commissioner was $449.85 and County Judge Carter and Commissioners William J. Welch and George B. Saunders, after lengthy discussion, refused to allow it. "Let them go ahead now and sue the county," said Mr. Saunders, "and then we will find out how far they can get."

COURAGE IN WAR

WHAT WAR TEACHES—AS WELL AS BUSINESS LIFE.

Courage in war or business is born of good pure blood. Pure blood is the greatest blessing mankind can have.

Millions of people need this powerful vegetable remedy that puts the stomach, liver and bowels in fine condition; that clears the skin of pimples, rash, blemishes and eczema; that dissolves boils and carbuncles; that makes nerves stronger and steadier and gives to pale, weak, rundown people the fullest measure of health and happiness.

Dr. Pierce's golden Medical Discovery, free from alcohol or narcotics does just what is stated above, simply because it banishes from the blood all poison and impure matter. It is the world's great Blood Purifier; so enters joints, dissolves the impure deposits and carries them out, as it does all impurities, through the liver, bowels, kidneys and skin.

If you have indigestion, sluggish liver, backache over the kidneys, nasal or other catarrh, unsteady nerves or unsightly skin, get Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery today and start at once to replace your impure blood with the kind that puts energy and ambition into you and brings back youth and vigorous action.

A GREAT BOOK EVERY WOMAN SHOULD HAVE

If you will pay the mailing charges, Doctor Pierce will send you his cloth bound book of over 1000 pages newly revised with color plates and illustrations.

Everyone should read and have it in case of accident or sickness in the home.

Treats of so many subjects in such an interesting manner that knowledge of the human body is quickly and easily attained by all who read the book.

Send 20 cents in stamps for mailing charges to Dr. Pierce, Invalid's Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and enclose this notice.
