EDISON FACTORY WILL BE REBUILT; LOSS 2 MILLION

NEW STRUCTURE WILL BE EN-TIRELY OF CONCRETE DE-CLARES INVENTOR.

WEST ORANGE, N. J., Dec. 11 .-After planning all night on rebuilding his factory destroyed by fire, Edison declared his chief problem was the question of furnishing employment for his employees rendered idle. Several thousand, he said, will be employed in clearing away the debris. Edison announced all his new buildings will be of concrete, saying the fire taught him a valuable lesson in the matter of concrete construction. He estimated his loss at two million dollars.
