UMATILLA LODGE, 40, A.F. AND A.M. HOLDS ITS ANNUAL ELECTION

OFFICERS CHOSEN FOR THE YEAR AND INSTALLATION PLANNED JAN. 2.

Zoeth Houser Meets With Accident at Echo—Cold Snap Continues—Thermometer Reaches Zero on Monday Night—An Inch of Snow Affords Protection to Crops.

(Special Correspondence.) ECHO, Ore., Dec. 22.—Umatilla Lodge No. 40, A. F. & A. M. of this place, held its annual election on Saturday. The following officers were elected: W. M., W. B. Hinkle; S. W., R. R. Lewis; J. W., Jacob Trott; secretary, Allen Thomson; treasurer, R. B. Stanfield. Louis Scholl Jr., the retiring W. M., installed the new master while the remaining officers will be installed at a public installation on January 12, 1915.

Zoeth Houser, ex-county sheriff and prominent farmer of the Meadows, had the misfortune of slipping on the paved sidewalk while in town last Saturday and broke his right knee-cap. The injury was very painful and quite serious as it will necessitate him being confined for two months.

Charles R. Lisle, who has been at his sister's home, Mrs. J. H. Young, for the past two weeks, threatened with appendicitis, was removed to Portland on Sunday.

J. W. Messner, president of the Western Land and Irrigation Co., has been here the past several days making a personal inspection of the company's new reservoir site and proposed dam in Alkali Canyon, a mile above Echo.

Hadley Barker of Buhl, Idaho, is here this week looking after business interests and visiting with his mother and sister, Mrs. Mary A. Barker and Miss Beulah Barker.

This has been the longest continued cold spell experienced in this vicinity for many years. The coldest weather so far of this winter was Monday night when the mercury reached zero. There is about an inch of snow on the ground which affords some protection to the crops. While it is believed there has been no damage to the growing crops, some apprehension is felt by the growers should the cold weather continue without more snow.

"NOT GUILTY" VERDICT AGAINST KENWORTHY

WALLA WALLA, Dec. 21.—L. S. Kenworthy was found "not guilty" of perjury by the superior court jury which returned a verdict after 24 hours' deliberation.

Kenworthy was charged with having made false statements at the damage suit he won against Frank Richmond and Elizabeth Garrett. An affidavit which he signed afterwards said the case was a "frame-up" and that he gave false testimony. Kenworthy insisted that this was done to clear his wife and that he had little knowledge of what it contained. He insisted throughout the trial that the evidence he gave at the first hearing was the truth.

CHEER BROUGHT TO PATIENTS BY ELKS MINSTRELS

LODGE PRESENTS PERFORMANCE LAST NIGHT AT OREGON BRANCH HOSPITAL.

A night long to be remembered by the patients of the eastern Oregon state hospital was last night, made so by the minstrel show which the local Elks repeated for their entertainment in the auditorium of the big institution. The unfortunates listened to the songs and jokes and watched the antics of the antlered herd with such manifest joy that the amateur performers felt more than repaid for their time and trouble.

The show went off with as much snap as it did either night in the Oregon theater last week. On account of the illness of Walter Rose, the "Pendleton in 2000 A. D." sketch was eliminated but the remainder of the program was given just as it was originally. In the absence of Glenn Scott, Walter Jackson sang his solo number. The substitution of the names of officers and attendants at the hospital for those of Pendleton men in the jokes made them appreciable by the patients.

After the entertainment, the entire cast was ushered into the dining room by Supt. McNary and seated at a table laden with good things to eat. J. V. Tallman, exalted ruler of the Elks, spoke on behalf of the lodge, expressing the pleasure it gave the lodge to be able to give a little Christmas cheer to the patients of the hospital. Supt. McNary extended the thanks of the institution to the Elks for their charitable act, declaring they had brightened the lives of the unfortunate people whose fate it is to be inmates of the hospital.

Youth Found Guilty.

ROSEBURG, Ore., Dec. 21.—The grand jury returned an indictment charging Roy Farnum with statutory rape on the person of Edna Morgan. A body believed to have been that of Miss Morgan, badly charred, was found in a burned barn near Glen Dale. She was Farnum's sweetheart. Farnum seemed pleased when informed he was charged with a lesser crime than murder.

Germany Interns French

BERLIN, via London, Dec. 22.—Following the enforcement of a similar measure against Englishmen, the German government will intern all French males between the ages of 16 and 60 who are residing in Germany. They will be taken to a camp near Holoeminden.

Mothers Tell of Mother's Friend

Experience is or should be our best teacher. Women who have observed the highest and noblest of all sacrifices, the struggle for the life of others, should have a better idea of helpful influence than those who theorize from observation.

At any rate when a prospective grand-daughter to do as the old—use "Mother's Friend," there is ample reason to believe it the right kind of advice. Its purpose is to furnish pliancy to the muscles, to take away the strain on the cords and ligaments, to relieve the tension of nerves and tendons so apt to provoke or aggravate nausea, morning sickness, twitches of the limbs and so on. It is applied externally.

Although, in the nature of things, a woman would use "Mother's Friend" but rarely, yet so effective has it been found that this splendid remedy is on sale in most drug stores throughout the United States. It has been prepared by Ewald Regulator Co., 206 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., and advertised by us for over twenty years. Ask at the drug store for a bottle of "Mother's Friend." It is worth while.

SPORTS

BASEBALL CHATTER

(By Hal Sheridan. Written for the United Press.) NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—They all wear out if used continuously. This is true of any kind, shape or form of machine, be it army, automobile, boat, football or baseball machine. Old Doc Time gets 'em all. Whether their parts simply wear away or whether they pull apart and fall to work together the Old Man gets them just the same. And so it was that Connie Mack bowed before the inevitable and cast out the keystone of his far famed $100,000 infield. It is reported that one and possibly two other members of that once invincible machine are to be replaced, if this action hasn't already been taken by the time this epistle goes to the printer and from them to the pressmen. Mack claims to have good reasons for disjoining his infield. He refuses to tell what they are, but Old Lady Rumor persists in whispering that friction between Ira Thomas and Eddie Collins was the chief cause. Collins, according to rumor, jarred the first bean from the pot when he wrote a story telling in great detail how the Athletics studied and learned the signals of opposing teams. Then when Thomas protested that the old bugaboo of managers—rival cliques—made its appearance. Many folks believe it was this lack of cohesion due to team cliques, that put sand in the wheels of the once great Athletic machine and spilled all the beans.

If these stories be true, Connie Mack cleared $50,000 on the deal which sent Collins to the White Sox, for the conditions as reported. Collins was no good to Mack despite the fact that he is worth a million dollars to any other manager in the league. It is admitted by all baseball managers that a one-armed, wooden-legged short-stop is of more value to a team than a "beef" and a leader of an anti-manager or an anti-anything clique. It may have been that Collins was not at fault. It really is mighty hard to believe he was and some stories are that other heads organized the clique against Collins and two others. Even so, Mack had to get rid of one of the parties to the rivalry. He did not want to sell his whole team when he could sell Collins for just as much if not more.

Girl To Dance For Jury INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 22.—Was it or wasn't it? Was the dancédone by Lottie Oates at an Indianapolis burlesque theater, for which she was arrested two weeks ago, the kind that requires distinctly Oriental music with a "ta-ta dum, dum, dum" motif, or was it just a regular dance?

Jobs as jurymen will be at a premium, when Miss Oates will be tried before a special judge and a full set of jurymen for Lottie is not the one to let her terpsichorean gifts be so maligned without being given a chance to square herself. It will be such a sight as the walls of the city court never seen before.

Francis Joseph Anceved, VIENNA, Dec. 22.—Emperor Francis Joseph summoned Count Berchtold, the premier of the dual monarchy, to the palace and had a long secret conference with him in regard to the reverse in Serbia.

The emperor is said to be indignant over the Austrian defeat by the Serbians and it is determined that General Potiorek, the commander-in-chief of the forces in this operation, shall be relieved of his command and court-martialed, despite the fact that the invasion of Serbia was planned and urged by the German staff.

Coo's Grand Jury Acts. MARSHFIELD, Ore., Dec. 22.—No indictments were found by the Coo's county grand jury against any of the men who were accused by the Simpson girls. Mrs. Ruby Nosler and Mrs. Mary Pfortner, who were indicted, were released on bond, and Miss Lolita Simpson was given into custody of her parents and will be dealt with in the juvenile court.

The blind indictment was for A. Harrison, a Myrtle Point man, who is too ill to attend court. He is charged with following veterinary practice without proper credentials. J. W. Blair, a timekeeper in Camp Three, north of Coo's Bay, was fined $50 for conducting a gambling resort.
