TRAIN AND ESCAPES

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 5.—Sam Levikow, alias Sam Bowers, who was arrested in St. Joseph, Mo., and was being brought, back to Seattle by a Deputy Sheriff, jumped from a rapidly moving train near Auburn, Wn. and escaped. Levikow was alleged to have stolen $2000 worth of woolen cloth from a large importing firm here and shipped it to himself under an assumed name at St. Joseph. Levikow, according to the police, rented an office near the woolen store last November, obtained a wax impression of the lock of the store, effected an entrance with a key, and loaded the cloth on a wagon in plain view of passerby, who did not suspect

GOOD ANIMALS.

European Agents Here and in Canada Are Trying to Buy All the Available Stock—Only Horses of High Quality May Be Profitably Raised at This Time.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—During the next decade there will probably be an increased demand for American horses in the countries now engaged in the European war. The demand may even continue much longer, according to investigators of the U. S. department of agriculture, as not only will horses be needed for armies, but when peace is restored, more will be needed for agriculture. Already European agents are said to be endeavoring to purchase horses in this country and Canada, and there is an increased interest in many sections in horse breeding.

To meet this increased European demand American farmers may well endeavor to raise well-bred horses, although the department of agriculture does not advise them to purchase a surplus of horses merely for breeding purposes. It merely advises that ordinary farm work should be done whenever possible by good mares which should be bred to good stallions. It also desires to emphasize the fact that only horses of high quality may be profitably raised today. Inferior horses are a drag on the market and their production is to be discouraged as much as the production of good horses should be encouraged.

The United States has previously been drawn on to supply European countries at war. In the Boer war over 100,000 horses were bought here by the British government. It may be doubted whether a foreign government could not obtain a similar supply in this country, except at excessive cost. However, if farmers take pains to utilize their good mares during this winter to breed them to good stallions, in the course of several years (time enough for the foals to develop), America will be better able to meet the European demand.

It is natural that European countries should look to the United States for horses, as next to Russia, it has more of these animals than any other country in the world. The United States and Russia possess 53 per cent of the world supply. Strange to say, however, there were no horses originally on our continent and the present supply came from stock brought over from Europe. Canada's supply is small compared to our own.

CITIES PROTEST TODAY ON RESERVE BANK LOCATIONS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Rival claims of Richmond, Va., and Baltimore, Md., for financial and commercial supremacy were aired here today.
 Hearings were begun by the federal reserve board upon the protest of Baltimore against the location of the regional reserve bank at Richmond instead of Baltimore. Failing to win out in a fight with Richmond to have the regional bank located at Baltimore, interests of the latter city, as one alternative, that Baltimore be included in the Philadelphia instead of the Richmond banking district.

Other protests of geographical divisions of the new banking system were heard by the board later. The regional banks were assigned by the "original committee" before the board was appointed. The board has authority to redistrict and change banking districts at any time. As secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and Comptroller of Currency John Skelton Williams were members of the organization committee making the original selections and are now members of the board, it is thought that important changes in the present geographical makeup of the new system are doubtful.

Prominent bankers and business men of both Baltimore and Richmond appeared today. They filed reams of documents pro and con.
 The oral arguments today, however, were the first held by the new board.

TRAMWAY FALLS WITH
FOUR MEN AT CAMAS

CAMAS, Wash., Jan. 6.—Four men were injured, two of them quite seriously, when a part of a tramway fell with a carload of heavy timbers at the Crown Willamette Paper mill. The two most seriously injured had their legs and feet badly crushed, but both will recover. One workman escaped almost certain death by jumping and holding to a trolley wire, until the car had gone down.

You feel fine in a few moments.
 Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone. Your clogged nostrils will open.
 The air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely.
 No more dullness, headache; no hawking, sniffling, mucous discharges or dryness; no struggling for breath at night.
 Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly.
 It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable.

ORGANIZATION AMONG NEUTRAL
COUNTRIES IS SUGGESTED
IN NEW YORK.

Former Assistant Attorney General of the United States Says That Concerted Expression of 220,000,000 People Might Bring European Conflict to a Close.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—A peaceful army of 220,000,000 soldiers of both sexes recruited from neutral countries as the best method of stopping the war was the startling suggestion put forward at a noted banquet here.
 The guests waited until nearly midnight to hear all of the demonstrative speech of Mr. Beck, formerly assistant attorney general of the United States, who was introduced as the greatest authority on the cause of the war. The climax came near the end of Mr. Beck's address when he proposed that the United States, as the greatest of neutral nations interested in the European struggle, should call an immediate conference of all neutral nations with a view to at least limiting the scope of the war if not end it altogether. Mr. Beck said in part, "In my judgment the United States could and should ask for an immediate conference of the neutral nations of the world in order to see that if anything can be done, if not to end a disastrous war, at least to modify and soften its horrors and reform its methods. Have you realized how many, how large, the population of these neutral states is?
 And I am eliminating now the semibarbaric nations that could give us little actual moral co-operation, but I refer to nations like Italy, Holland, Sweden, Switzerland, Norway, the United States, Argentina, Brazil, and so forth, and I find that in those countries there are 220,000,000 people. So that if these 220,000,000 of people speaking through these neutral nations under the primacy of the United States could meet at once to discuss what might be done—not necessarily with any immediate action, not necessarily to interfere by any display of force but simply to express their collective judgment either upon the causes of the war or, at all events, upon the methods of the war—I take it, and I believe it to be true, that the nations that are now struggling at each other's throats would not dare to ignore the voice of so many nations thus formally expressed."

Santa Claus was an early arrival in New York Christmas day. He made his first stop at the City hospital on Blackwell's Island. There, amid Christmas bells, holly and happy faces the genial old fellow dispensed presents to 900 patients of the institution, beginning with the oldest folk and working down to the children.
 And they were not any hit-or-miss presents that he delivered, as is often the case. Instead, by some wonderful arrangements of the powers that be, the wants of every person had been ascertained beforehand and Santa was able to place in the hand of each the gift he or she most craved. Among the many gifts distributed the most remarkable was a bottle of table sauce that some patient, weary of the joys of the season. Ten roasted turkeys occupied a prominent position in Santa's pack, showing that ten persons, for once in their lives, were going to have enough turkey, even at the risk of spending more time in the hospital. A copy of the Talmud, another of Koran, and a volume of Longfellow's poems were there, too. One woman got a pair of specially made shoes, and still another a pair of glasses made upon prescription. It has seemed the most natural thing in the world to ask for the thing one wanted most, and there was no one to remark upon the strangeness of some requests. Sweaters were among the favorite gifts. Suits of clothes, underwear and many pairs of shoes completed the list of the older patients. But the children did not ask for clothes. One had only to visit the children's ward to see what their hearts craved. There were all sorts of toys from tin drums to fire engines and dolls. Some of the youngsters who are to be discharged from the hospital shortly received roller skates.

URGE WILSON TO PUSH
RURAL CREDIT MEASURE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—President Wilson has received pressing requests from different parts of the country that rural credits legislation be taken up during the present session of congress, and is considering the advisability of changing his plan to put the subject over to next December. Chairman Glass, of the house banking committee, told the president it would not be advisable to take up the subject until time had been allowed for the working out of the farm loan features of the federal bank law.

Governor Inaugurated.

CARSON CITY, Nev., Jan. 6.—In the presence of a large audience, Em-met J. Boyle was inducted into office as Governor of Nevada at the capitol here. With one exception the entire staff of state officials took the oath of office jointly.
 Joe Joseph, elected clerk of the supreme court, is critically ill and the oath was administered to him by Chief Justice Norcross at his home. The official oath was changed for the first time in 40 years by omission of the clause forbidding state officials from taking part in duels, either as principals or seconds.
