PERSONAL MENTION

C. C. Connor is in from Helix today. Ed Wetzel of La Grande, is at the Bowman. Henry Knaus of Helix, spent yesterday in Pendleton. J. D. Kirk of Ukiah was down from the south end of the county yesterday. Eldred B. Casteel, well known young merchant of Pilot Rock, was a visitor here yesterday. Ben L. Burroughs, Henry W. Collins and Will Wyrick left yesterday for Portland on a short business trip. Sam R. Oldaker, well known Hermiton resident, was in the city last evening. He stopped at the St. George. J. N. Suliste, was in town yesterday from his ranch near Nye and reports the need of more moisture in that section. Carl E. Engdahl, manager of the Farmers Union grain agency at Helix is in today, to attend the meeting of the union. J. M. Gilbert, well known Pilot Rock resident, was in the city yesterday and last evening, stopping at the Pendleton. R. E. Grosschlag, formerly a farmer of this county and who is now located at Greterville, Canada, is here for a few days. James Johns, president of the Hartman Abstract Co., arrived home this morning from Spokane where he had been since Wednesday on a business mission.

NEWS OF FARM AND RANGE

Weston Wheat Sold—Wheat market records are being broken in other important markets of commerce and trade, so that Weston felt impelled to make a bid for fame by a record-breaking wheat deal the latter part of last week. Frank Price, agent of the Western Warehouse company, bought two lots of club wheat, at $1.20, which at the time was about two cents above the market and represented the highest price ever paid for Weston wheat. The sellers were J. M. Banister, 14,000 bushels, and Jim J. Cully, 5,000 bushels and they have since been busy receiving congratulations. But little wheat now remains here in growers' hands, although several good-sized lots of barley are still being held for a bigger boost in this cereal—Weston Leader.

Round-up Cattle — The McBride brothers have rounded up 137 head of their 141 cattle which have been ranging in the Blues, and are feeding them at the home ranch. On February 15 they expect to take the bunch to Hudson Bay.—Weston Leader.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Following the admission by stock exchange officials that the brokerage firm of Stringer and company was unable to meet its obligations, C. F. Stringer Junior, the junior member of the firm shot himself dead in his office.
The failure is the first since the stock market reopened. The company was composed of father and son. The failure wasn't considered important and will have no effect on the market.
It was reported on the exchange floor that the firm was short 6000 shares of Reading securities. The younger Stringer, it was said, was speculating heavily on his own account in the grain market and that his losses wiped out not only his own fortune but his father's too.

SOCIETY

A social time was had last evening at the home of Mrs. G. W. Rugg by the recently organized boy scouts of Pendleton. Fifteen boys and their girl friends were present and games were played and a general good time had.
Refreshments were served late in the evening.

Report comes from Portland that Mrs. Frank B. Clifton, formerly of this city, is very gravely ill in that city. She has been sick almost continuously for the past three months.

Mrs. Walter Markee and baby left on No. 17 today enroute back to Portland after a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom B. Swearingen.
Mrs. Markee was formerly Miss Fay Gibson of this city.

ALL REGARD WILSON'S TALK AS SHOWING 1916 ATTITUDE

PRESIDENT DID NOT INTEND IM-PRESSION BUT MAKES NO CORRECTION.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Democrats and republicans alike generally regarded the president's Indianapolis speech as an announcement of his candidates for re-election.

Democrats said the single term plank in the Baltimore platform will be brushed aside to clear the tracks.

ABOARD THE PRESIDENT'S TRAIN, Pittsburgh, Jan. 9.—President Wilson was much pleased with his reception at Indianapolis.

"There may come a time," the president told his audience in Indianapolis, "when the American people will have to judge whether I know what I'm talking about."

This was generally accepted as meaning that Wilson will be a candidate for reelection but it developed today the president didn't intend the remark should be so interpreted.

"I didn't intend to start anything" he said.

No correction of the impression was forthcoming however.

MONTEREY BOMBARDING

LAREDO, Texas, Jan. 9.—Villista forces under General Angeles are attacking Monterey. Refugees reported heavy cannonading, preliminary to a bombardment of the positions occupied by 15,000 Carranzistas.

GOLD IN LARGE QUANTITIES FOUND IN CENTRAL OREGON

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 9.— Gold has been discovered in central Oregon along the Deschutes and the Crooked rivers, and Squaw creek.

J. B. Rosman, Thomas Hart, C. F. Peck, Edward D. Whitney, W. H. Bard and C. W. Clapp of Portland and C. W. Hyman of Lincoln, Nebraska, have completed investigations which they declare proves that Oregon is richer in gold than Alaska.

Clapp, a mineralogist, declared gold mining in central Oregon will dwarf every other industry.

The men are preparing to build a mill at Deschutes near Terabone, which will be in operation in four months. They expect to build others also. Locations covering an area of 20 by 40 miles have been filed with the clerk of Jefferson county.
