

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

YOU CAN BRING BACK COLOR AND LUSTRE WITH SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wreth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. B. morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wreth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger.

RECEIPTS SLACK FOR LIVESTOCK

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 11.—(Special.)—Receipts for the week have been, cattle, 1845; calves, 14; hogs, 10,322; sheep, 6166.

CATTLE. With the exception of Monday's run the receipts have been slack. Prices continue on a par with Monday's market. Best steers brought $8.00; cows, $6.85; heifers, $6.50. Outlook is steady.

HOGS. Hog receipts were particularly heavy this week, over 10,000 head coming forward, prices accordingly dropped slightly. Tops being at $1.15 today.

SHEEP. All offerings in the sheep section are quickly taken, every thing available going at good prices. Lambs bring $7.50 while yearling wethers sell readily at $6.50.

Table with livestock prices: 104 steers $8.00, 27 steers $7.75, 26 steers $7.45, 30 steers $7.60, 4 bulls $5.50, 2 stags $5.50, 5 heifers $5.50, 2 calves $4.00, 1 cow $7.00, 72 cows $6.50, 13 cows $6.65, 24 cows $6.50, 218 hogs $7.35, 371 hogs $7.30, 1535 hogs $7.25, 669 hogs $7.15, 298 lambs $1.75, 111 lambs $1.74, 565 ewes $1.13, 841 wethers $1.11.

CHICAGO WHEAT SHARPLY LOWER

(Saturday's Market)

CHICAGO.—Wheat closed 2 1/2-3-4c lower. There was great action, both early and late today. The first decline in order this morning was a decline of 2c in the May price to $1.23 7/8, influenced by the curb rumors late yesterday and an uncertain feeling. After the early dip the trade seemed to take the buying side when a half dozen of the largest houses started buying. St. Louis claims of active buying on wheat by southeastern millers and a remarkable strong recovery in northwest markets led by Minneapolis, gave a bull turn here which carried May up to $1.41 and July to $1.26 3/4. Evidently the trade became overbought on this swell. La Salle street leaders who were sellers around top prices of the year yesterday, turned to the selling side again last hour today. This started local holders in a selling flurry and with no adequate short interest in the market there was a violent break of 2c from the high point.

WHEAT. May—Open, $1.39; high, $1.41; low, $1.35; close, $1.35 1/8. July—Open, $1.25; high, $1.25 3/4; low, $1.24; close, $1.24 1/8.

WHAT the Press Agent Has to Say of Present and Coming Attractions

Pastime Today. Hundreds were turned away yesterday. Last chance today to see Robert Warwick in "The Dollar Mark."

A thrilling picture from the first moment to the last is the Robert Warwick picture of "The Dollar Mark," a William A. Brady play. The George Broadhurst story of modern capital and its domineering ways are wonderfully brought out in this picture which is the most gripping an American director has made.

The scenic backgrounds selected are of unusual beauty and the call of the outdoors is felt in every inch of Eastman. The mining district of Cobalt, Ontario, is the setting for the greater part of the picture, and there is careful attention paid to the scenes taken on board the millionaire's yacht when Gresham is determined to get to his bank in time to prove to the clearing house committee that he is solvent and in so doing, tells the Bayliss attempt to take his mine from him. The conflict of determination and cleanliness in heart against the money power represented by Carson Bayliss is one that gives "The Dollar Mark" its breath of life and George Broadhurst has contrived some splendidly thrilling scenes which are as masterful as any he has ever made in his wonderful career as a playmaker. It is not alone for the control of the mine that there is a struggle, but there is a girl in the story who is sought after by the two big men. Alice Chandler as portrayed by Barbara Tennant is worth the struggle. For a long time, there seems little hope for Gresham but the great moment comes when he is able to save Alice's life by carrying her to safety through a wild day, in which both are at the mercy of overflowing waters from a dam. That unrehearsed, daring series of pictures is the work of a genius. None other could have planned such thrill producing moments, and only a genius could have found the means to carry out the conception that made so great a picture.

It is not alone on account of the gripping dam scenes that "The Dollar Mark" will mark an epoch in the motion picture world, but also because of the virility and unassuming Americanism with which the producer and author have filled the picture, that it is regarded by reviewers as one of the most genuine American pictures offered to feature film exhibitors. Admission, adults 10c, children 5c. Coming Tuesday, Francis X. Bushman in "The Plum Tree," the Ladies' World prize mystery story.

Cosy—Monday and Tuesday, "The Bridal Bouquet," a pretty one reel love story. "When Fate Rebelled," a one reel Princess drama.

"His Prehistoric Past," a two-part Keystone comedy in which Chas. Chaplin as the tramp goes to sleep and dreams that he is living in the stone age. If you like the Keystone style of comedy, don't miss this. No advance in prices.

JERSEY SCHOOLMEN TALK PEDAGOGY

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Jan. 11.—With State Commissioner of Education Calvin N. Kendall presiding the superintendent and supervising principles of the middle tier of counties of the state today assembled here at the Lord Stirling school and began a two days' discussion of school management. These meetings are the second of a series that Commissioner Kendall has arranged for the winter months. The first gathering of the school men took place at Atlantic City last month and was attended by the representatives of the southern counties.

WOMEN COMBINE TO SPREAD GOSPEL OF "TWILIGHT SLEEP"

Mrs. John Jacob Astor. NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Because they believe the "twilight sleep" childbirth method, originated in Frieberg, Germany, will insure painless birth, a group of far-sighted women, among them Mrs. John Jacob Astor, widow of the multi-millionaire who perished in the Titanic disaster, have organized an association to give the world of mothers authentic information concerning the treatment. "In the first place," said Mrs. Mary W. Dennett, temporary chairman of the new organization, "we shall establish an office with a secretary to answer all sorts of questions about 'twilight sleep.' We shall circulate pamphlets on the subject and arrange lectures. Then we shall further the introduction of the Frieberg method in the existing hospitals. It already exists partially in ten New York hospitals. But our greatest aim shall be to establish a teaching hospital where doctors from all over the country can come and learn this method of obviating pain at childbirth. It is our aim to establish a maternity hospital similar to the clinic at Frieberg, where a skilled group of doctors who have themselves studied at Frieberg will take charge of the work."

SPORTS

P. H. S. to Meet Walla Walla Friday Night

FIRST INTERSCHOLASTIC GAME OF SEASON—TOMMY BOYLEN MAY CAPTAIN U. OF O. QUINTET.

Pendleton high school's first real interscholastic basketball game of the season will be played next Friday night in Walla Walla when Coach Livingston will send his tilters against Tracey Cox's proteges. The local scholastics have had some good practice playing with such teams as lone, Echo, La Grande M. I. A. and the "College Kids" and should make things more interesting for the Garden City boys in basketball than they did in football.

Speaking of the Walla Walla team, the Morning Union of that city has the following to say: Thus far the real mettle of this year's high school team has not been tried out in an interscholastic game. The teams will be evenly matched.

McGrun is easily the local star with Rich playing a great game at guard. Schaeber looks pretty fair at forward and Zaring has lots of action at center. He is not yet a veteran in throwing baskets nor can he start a signal at the throw-up as well as high school centers of the past, but he is a fighter and is improving fast. Emigh has been doing good work at guard. Richmond has also been playing good ball for the squad. There is yet time for a change in the first team lineup but at present it looks like the first five mentioned.

Tommy Boylen, well known Pendleton athlete, bids fair to be captain of the University of Oregon basketball team this year. He is the only senior in the list of men likely to place on the team and, as no leader has been chosen yet, the position will naturally fall to him if he clinches a place on the team. Boylen has been playing at guard so far this year and, despite his being a lightweight, appears to have a hold on the job. He played guard in 1912 and was equal to all emergencies.

Boylen will also probably find a place on the university soccer team and Peter Crockett, another high school graduate of this city, is being mentioned as one of the leading candidates for a place in this branch of college sports.

The Cohen, the Frisco heavyweight whose knockout punch resulted in the death of Al Anderson of Everett in a bout held in Seattle Friday night, came to Pendleton a couple of winters ago for a battle under the direction of Dudley Evans. However, he

The "White Hope" crop still looks like it has for several years past—decidedly poor—but the big Westerner appears to have a good edge over any of the rest of the white fighters as an opponent for Johnson. If the champion beats Willard the hunt for a man to whip the negro might as well stop. Or at least a new crop will have to come up for inspection. Frank Moran, the Pittsburgh fighter who went against the black man in Paris, never was conceded a chance with Johnson. He was simply "picked" by the black and forced down the throat of the sporting public. Looking back over the crop of "Hopes" of the past few years Willard looms up rather well. Carl Morris, Jim Stewart, Al Falzer, Luther McCarty, Arthur Pelky and Gunboat Smith form about the most formidable of them. Morris never did approach the serious stage. Stewart soon blew up. Falzer fell before McCarty, who was later killed in a bout with Pelky. McCarty was about the best of the bunch and the critics wouldn't even concede him an outside chance with Johnson. Pelky was a dismal failure and Gunboat Smith has recently taken several beatings. All in all, Willard looks like a lone hope, and it is pretty certain that few fortunes will be wagered on his chances of winning. He is big and probably will stack up well against Johnson in size. He has a "punch" too but there is considerable doubt as to whether he has enough ability to land it on the negro. Many critics declare that Johnson will simply toy with Willard. Convalescence after pneumonia, typhoid fever and the grip, is sometimes merely apparent, not real. To make it real and rapid, there is no other tonic so highly to be recommended as Hood's Sarsaparilla. Thousands testify. Take Hood's—Adv.
