

BE PRETTY! TURN
GRAY HAIR DARK

TRY GRANDMOTHER'S FAVORITE RECIPE OF SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itchy scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and shiny.

CHICAGO WHEAT IS SENT UPWARD

KILLERS GET CATTLE DIRECT

(Tuesday's Market.)

CHICAGO.—Short sellers were most anxious to cover today and this forced the wheat market 3 1-8 to 3 1-4c a bushel higher than the close of yesterday.

All doubt in the minds of the trade that yesterday's spectacular losses were due to nothing else but the desire of the big interests to shake out the "tallers" disappeared at the opening of the trade when the principal sellers of yesterday became the most insistent buyers. Market started at an advance of 1 3-8c for May and 1 1-4c for July.

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool that the wheat market was irregular. American weakness of yesterday and the fact of winters being offered at 6d decline, was offset by the firmness in LaPlata offers, which are 6d dearer. Spot wheat was firm, 1-2 to 1 11-2d up with No. 3 Manitoba 1-2d lower.

WHEAT.

May—Open, $1.86; high, $1.88 2-8; low, $1.86; close, $1.88 1-8.

July—Open, $1.22; high, $1.24 2-4; low, $1.22 2-8; close, $1.24 1-8B.

Interest of Notes Denied

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 12.—Holding that the Illinois law declaring rates higher than 7 per cent to be usury applied, Judge A. W. Frater, of the King County Superior Court, awarded Peabody, Houghteling & Co., of Chicago only $270,000 of its $300,000 claim against the Seattle, Renton & Southern Railway an electric line on collateral trust notes held by the Chicago bank firm.

The $20,000 interest and discount, amounting to 8 per cent was invalidated because in excess of the interest allowed by the laws of Illinois, where the notes were drawn. On the other hand, Judge Frater held that bond issue of $225,000 made by the railway bought by Peabody, Houghteling & Co., was valid at 6.8 per cent.

Mr. Romans' principal work on his present trip is to interest the towns throughout the Inland Empire in the movement which the Spokane Chamber has launched to get settlers on the lands of Eastern Washington, which the Chamber is listing.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contains Mercury

SAYS INDIGESTION RESULTS FROM AN EXCESS OF HYDROCHLORIC ACID.

Undigested food delayed in the stomach decays, or rather, ferments the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. He also tells us that indigestion is caused by Hyperacidity, meaning, there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and starts food fermentation. Thus everything eaten sours in the stomach much like garbage sours in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. Then we feel a heavy, lumpy misery in the chest, we belch up gas, we eructate sour, food or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink while it is effervescent and furthermore, to continue this for a week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-bunking mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salts is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.

PLAY OF MIGHT AT PASTIME

"Samson" Is Story of Powerful Man but Not by Bible.

A tremendous photoplay has been produced in "Samson," which will be at the Pastime for two days this week.

This is not the biblical Samson, but a powerful prototype that with Herculean force tears down the fortune which he has amassed for the woman he loves.

"Samson" is a play of many thrilling episodes. Straight from one to the other, the action goes on and on, with ever-renewed force, sweeping everything before it, until at last the husband, with bared teeth, crushes his enemy with his hands and gains the love and respect of the one woman, his wife.

It has been called a perfect drama—one that must be seen to be appreciated. William Farnum, seen here recently in the leading role in "The Spoilers," takes the part of the dock hand who rises to wealth through the strength of his hands. "Samson" is Henry Bernstein's masterpiece and for that reason if for no other it will be well worth seeing. Bernstein does not write things which are not worth while.

Aside from its importance as a great drama of finance, "Samson" presents a striking moral. It is not set out so that it may be read by all those who see it; it is woven into the story, subtly, powerfully, for those who understand the working of a mind and body of Titanic force.

force, aroused to wrath. For it is in "Samson's" anger that he arises to the greatest heights, where he begins to tear down the great structure which he has spent his life to build up.

The play tells the story of an ambitious mother who forces her daughter to marry a man repulsive to her for financial reasons only.

The girl, rebellious, refuses to accept the attentions of her crude and unpolished husband—a former dock hand—and accepts the advances of a fashionable man. The man, under the guise of friendship, has managed to amass a fortune from the woman's husband's friendly market tips. The crash comes when the husband sees the man make a public exhibition of his conquest. After it is all over the man goes forth a great man in the eyes of his wife and a greater one in the eyes of the world.

This picture comes to the Pastime direct from the Majestic theater, Portland, where it is now showing.

Remember, two days, Thursday and Friday.
