Oregon Pupils Answered.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Secretary Daniels wrote to a little boy and girl of Corvallis, Ore., telling them he was sorry he could not grant their request that the schoolchildren of Oregon be permitted to make the voyage through the Panama canal on the famous old battleship bearing their state's name.

Mr. Daniels said that as the Oregon was built to carry only 900 men, it would be impossible for her to take care of the 187,000 young people in the state's schools.

Russian Trade Suffers.

BERLIN, Jan. 16.—The Russian newspaper Rech, Russky Slowo and Rusky Wjedomosty describe the difficulties the Russians are placed in because of a lack of necessary goods formerly imported from Germany, says the official press bureau here.

"On the other hand," it continues "the newspapers speak of the impossibility on the part of the Russians of exporting cavier, wood, grain, furs and spirits. The leather industry is declared to be at a standstill because of the lack of tanning material."

New Rink for Seaside.

SEASIDE, Ore., an. 16.—The Seaside skating rink, which burned after the close of the summer season, is to be rebuilt, but not by the former owners. V. M. Spurgeon, a jeweler, has secured a lease on the Grimes property at Broadway and Third next to the Bungalow dance hall, and will erect a structure with a rink floor to be ready by the opening of the 1915 season. The new rink will be 60 by 170 feet.

FINZER RESIGNS AS CHIEF OF STAFF OF THE NATIONAL GUARD

GEORGE A. WHITE IS MADE ADJUTANT GENERAL—CHANGE DUE FEBRUARY 1.

Finzer Quits Office at His Own Request to Enter Business After 12 Years at Head of the Guard—New Commander Is Portland Captain—Served in 1898.

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 16.—W. E. Finzer, adjutant-general, at his own request, will be relieved from duty as chief of staff of the Oregon national guard February 1. General Finzer made this known in an official communication to Governor Withycombe, who yesterday named Captain George A. White of the Third Oregon Infantry, to succeed the retiring adjutant-general.

In his letter General Finzer explained that he has for some time been contemplating this action. His friends have known for many months that he intended to leave the active list early in the fall to engage in business. In deciding to precipitate this action General Finzer explained in this letter that he thought it might be for the best interests of the Oregon national guard for his successor to be installed during the legislative session and at a time when Governor Withycombe is formulating new military policies, looking toward the relief of the national guard from all duties other than those of preparing for service as a unit in the system of national defense.

Captain White will be advanced at once to the rank of brigadier general and will take up his new duties February 1, in the meantime devoting his time in familiarizing himself with the details of the office. The new adjutant general is a resident of Portland and has 12 years' military service to his credit. The past eight years he has been an officer of the Oregon national guard. He also served through the Spanish-American war. His appointment under the military code holds until he reaches the age for retirement.

General Finzer, who has been in his present post for the past 12 years, has issued the following statement to the members of the national guard on the matter of his retirement.

Change Made at Own Request.

"I am at this time requesting the governor to place me on the retired list for the following reasons: Governor Withycombe has just been inaugurated, and in view of the fact that for some time past I have contemplated retiring as adjutant-general I feel that just now the new governor should have the opportunity to name a man who necessarily will have to obtain such appropriations from the legislature as are needed for the support and maintenance of the guard, and to co-operate with him in working out policies that will continue the guard at the present high rating which it has with the war department.

"I wish to take this opportunity to express my sincere appreciation of the splendid way in which the officers and men of the guard have cooperated with me in building up its efficiency, and for their faithfulness to duty, which have gone so far to make our organization a credit to the state and nation. For their support and confidence I desire to make full acknowledgement.

Spurned Man Assailant.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Miss Susan Lewis, a young school teacher, lay on a cot in Fordham Hospital, a bullet wound in her right chest, the bullet having passed through the lung; a second bullet in her left arm and a third in her right arm, when Frank Berchman, a man who has admitted being desperately in love with her, entered between two policemn. He was brought near the cot, and as he stopped, Miss Lewis, pointing a finger at him, said: "That is the man who shot me."

Coroner Flynn asked her to give Berchman's reasons for shooting her, and, looking him squarely in the face, she said:

"He has threatened to shoot me several times before. He has been pestering me for months. We have known each other several years, and he wanted to marry me. Three months ago I told him it could never be; that it was all because my mother objected to him."

The statement finished, the girl sank back unconscious. Berchman was led from the room. It was then about 7:30 o'clock. An hour later Miss Lewis was dead. Miss Lewis was 21 years old, and for the last year had been teaching in public school No. 28. Berchman is 22 and lived with his parents. He is a clerk.

Oregon Almanac to Be Issued.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 16.—Maps which are to illustrate the next edition of the Oregon Almanac, published by the state board of immigration, will be sent to the engraver at once. The publication, which advertises Oregon's home-making opportunities and resources under the seal of the state of Oregon, will be issued during the present month, according to plan.

Russia Again Is Accused.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Baron Zwiedinek, counsellor of the Austrian embassy, inforced the state department that Austrian prisoners of war in Siberia were reported to be receiving food only evey other day, and that many were suffering from cold. The United States has brought the plight of the prisoners to the attention of the Russian government, but the Austrian embassy asks tha further representations be made. A relief committee, composed in part of American missionaries, left Pekin today for Siberia with medical and other supplies.

The largest social affair of the week and one of the prettiest home parties of the season was the "at home" last evening of Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Vincent. About forty guests were present and were delightfully entertained at bridge at which play honors were won by Mrs. J. R. Dickson and Dr. Guy Boyden. A fun-making feature arose out of the fact that two of the guests, F. E. Judd and John Adams, had birthdays yesterday. As the guests gathered about the tables for refreshments, they were reminded of the special significance of the occasion when each of these gentlemen was presnted with a miniature birthday cake and a tin horn. Dr. and Mrs. Vincent were assisted in entertaining by their daughter, Miss Eleanor Vincent.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. John F. Robinson, Dr. and Mrs. Frank E. Boyden, Mr. and Mrs. John Vert, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. McComas, Mr. and Mrs. John Adams, Mrs. J. R. Dickson, Dr. and Mrs. Wilson D. McNary, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Judd, Mr. and Mrs. Royal M. Sawtelle, Mrs. R. R. Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Murphy, Mrs. Lina H. Sturgis, Mr. and Mrs. Westbrooke Dickson, Mr. and Mrs. Linden Vincent (Athena), Miss Neva Lane, Miss Ethel Wilkie, Dr. Guy L. Boyden, Clarence M. Bishop, Harry Gray, John Dickson and Fred W. Lampkin and Mr. and Mrs. Nesmith Ankeny.

Mrs. Carl Power was hostess yesterday afternoon to the members of the Luncheon Bridge Club at her home on Lewis street. A delightful luncheon was enjoyed after which bridge was played. Mrs. Power's only outside guest was her sister, Mrs. Charles Bond.

Mrs Dave Nelson was a charming hostess yesterday afternoon at her home on the North Hill to the members of the Friday Bridge Club. Honors for high score were won by Mrs. Gideon Brown.

Miss Alice Butler, instructor in domestic science at the high school, will spend the summer at San Francisco as an assistant in the tea room of the Oregon Agricultural college at the Panama-Pacific fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Linden Vincent of Athena came down from their home yesterday to spend the weekend with their parents.

Miss Cecile Boyd of Athena will arrive the first of next week to assume her duties as physical director and supervisor of play in the high and grade schools. She will also assist in the domestic art department of the high school.

Word was received yesterday from the management of the International Opera Co., which will appear here on January twenty-ninth as a lyceum feature, that the company will present the one-act opera, "The Sleeping Queen," instead of "Martha," this change being made at the request of local people.

Mrs. Frank E. Boyden entertained informally yesterday afternoon at her home on Lewis street, her guests being the members of the Duplicate Whist Club.

After spending two years in Pendleton with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Vert, Miss Ethel B. Wilkie will leave tomorrow evening for her home in Kirriemuir, Scotland. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Vert as far as New York and they will make the trip across the continent over the Canadian-Pacific. In New York she will be joined by her brother A. M. Wilkie, who has been spending the past four years in Portland, and they will sail for Liverpool on the Luisitania on January thirtieth. Miss Wilkie came to Pendleton two years ago with Mr. Vert on his return from Scotland and, during her stay here, she has made innumerable friends who will regret her departure quite as much as she regrets to leave. Mrs. Vert will return from New York immediately.

The local lodge of Elks is planning a dancing party for the near future at which the members of the cast of the recent Elks' minstrel show will be the guests of honor.

Mrs. Richard M. Mayberry entertained four tables at bridge at her Thompson street home Thursday evening, Mrs. Leon Cohen carrying off the honors.

A very quiet wedding was celebrated Thursday evening at eight o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hudeman, 524 Grant street, when their daughter, Miss Freda Hudeman, became the bride of Ray J. Fugit, Justice of the Peace Joe H. Parkes, officiating. Only immediate relatives were present. Both young people are well known here and have many friends. They left on the midnight train for Portland and will go on to California where they expect to make their home.

One of the big events of the coming week will be an evening card party in the Eagle-Woodman hall on Thursday, January twenty-first. It will be given for the benefit of the park fund by the ladies of the Civic Club and both ladies and gentlemen are invited.

BARON VON SKODA, BUILDER OF WAR GUNS

Baron von Skoda is to Austria what the Krupp works are to Germany. In fact, many of his guns were used in the German army at the beginning of the war. It has been learned since the tremendous campaign against Liege and Namur startled the world that these supposedly strong fortifications were not taken by Krupp guns, as was at first believed. The Germans did not have their Krupp guns ready, and they used the lighter von Skoda guns which beat the fortifications to pieces within three days after they began work.

Greatest Event in Woman's Life

All human experience looks back to motherhood as the wonder of wonders.

The patience, the fortitude, the sublime faith during the period of expectancy are second only to the mother love bestowed upon the most helpless but most marvelous creation—a baby.

It is entirely an external application designed to lubricate the broad, flat muscles and skin that protect the abdomen. It has been in favorable use for nearly half a century and is known to mothers in almost every settled community in the United States who highly recommend it. You will find it on sale in drug stores. "Mother's Friend" is utterly harmless, contains no deadening drugs, very beneficial, very soothing and a wonderful help.

It's Prepaid; Take It

Mr. Merchant, if some one sent you a package of money prepaid, would you take the trouble to go to the express office and get it?

Of course you would.

You have on your shelves certain goods of a well known brand.

When the manufacturer of one of these brands comes into this paper with his advertisement he is literally expressing you money.

He is making a demand for goods, the sale of which means profit to you.

Is it any more than ordinary sense to try and push these goods, to show them in your windows and let the public know you have them.
