BODIES OF MOTHER AND CHILD MAY BE TAKEN FROM GRAVE

MURDER OF MRS. WEHRMAN TO BE INVESTIGATED FURTHER BY OFFICIALS.

Governor Withycombe Expresses Belief that Hair is Not from Head of Pender—Case May Establish More Facts in regard to Raped Confession.

SALEM, Jan. 27.—After a microscopic examination by Dr. J. L. Gilbert of Portland of the hair taken from the hands of Mrs. Daisy Wehrman, Governor Withycombe issued a formal statement in which he declared his belief that the hair is not from the head of John Pender, who is in the state prison under life sentence for the murder of Mrs. Wehrman and her child.

The hair was compared under the microscope with hair clipped from the head of John C. Sierck, a half-wit at the state hospital who recently confessed the murder and then repudiated his confession. The color and marking resembles that of Sierck's hair but another sample found in the woman's other hand resembles hair of a child.

The governor said: "I have seen enough to feel convinced that the hair found in Mrs. Wehrman's hands was not that of Pender. There seems some reason to believe that it might have been Sierck's; at least the general character of the hair, as examined under the microscope, is entirely different from the Pender hair, and is practically identical with Sierck's. Of course, even the prosecution never claimed that the hair found in the dead woman's hands was Pender's. Now, it is apparent that so far as its physical texture is concerned, it might be Sierck's. On the other hand, it also might be the woman's herself, or someone else's. The next important matter is to establish that the hair is, or is not, Mrs. Wehrman's. I shall attempt to get hair from the body of Mrs. Wehrman, to continue the investigation. If the hair is the same as this we have examined, the matter is closed, at least so far as this lead is concerned. If it conclusively is not, an important point is established—we are sure that the hair is not the woman's, we are sure that it is not Pender's, and there is good reason to believe that it is Sierck's."

The bodies of Mrs. Wehrman and the child are buried in El Dorado, Iowa, and as there is probably no legal reason for exhuming them, Governor Withycombe has written to factors in the case established as nearly as possible.

The point in comparing hair further is to establish whether the hair found in Mrs. Wehrman's hand is her own or her child's.

Governor Withycombe has asked Colonel Lawson, warden at the state prison, to go to Seapooose to investigate further.

Declaring that samples of Mrs. Daisy Wehrman's hair and that of her child, who was murdered with her near Seapooose, September of 1911, in their farm cabin, are in possession of the county authorities of Columbia county, a man who is familiar with the facts of the case asserted that there is no need for any action toward exhuming the bodies, which are interred at El Dorado, Iowa.

It is further asserted by several connected with the case that the hair in Mrs. Wehrman's right hand was that of her baby's and was probably snatched during her lying convulsions. It was soft and fine and the defense after an examination of it made no attempt in behalf of Pender on this score.

Two Die To Save Others.
PITTSBURG, Jan. 27.—Three men were drowned recently in the Monongahela river. Two lost their lives in trying to rescue two others, who had been thrown into the river by the capsizing of their boat.

The drowned men were, Robert M. Oliver, son of D. R. Oliver, president of the Pittsburgh board of public education and nephew of Senator George P. Oliver; William Niehaus, of Evansville, Ind., and Thomas Mooney, of Duquesne, Penn. Edward Hetzel of this city, was rescued.

Oliver and Hetzel were rowing near the Smithfield street bridge, when they were caught in a swift current. Hetzel stood up in the boat and cried for help. The craft capsized. Hetzel tried to swim to shore, but Oliver sank in a moment.

Hetzel's cries had been heard by several men at a nearby boathouse and they threw ropes into the stream. Hetzel managed to seize one of the ropes and was pulled to safety.

William Niehaus and Thomas Mooney, who were on the other bank, obtained a boat and started to the rescue. About half way across the river an earlock broke. They managed, however, to steer their boat to the place where Oliver and Hetzel had been capsized, but their boat was caught in the swirl and overturned, and both men sank before aid could reach them.

Snow Prevents Juarez Races.
EL PASO, Tex., Jan. 27.—Snow caused postponement of the Juarez Mexico, horse races. It crippled streetcar traffic here.

be here for a week and will then return to Portland for the remainder of the winter.—Walla Walla Bulletin

Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Van Patton of Dayton, Washington, are expected to arrive today or tomorrow to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Sayres.

One of the week's delightful parties was that last evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frank E. Boyden at which Dr. and Mrs. Boyden, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Hartman, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. J. Roy (Ray) entertained a large circle of their friends. The anniversary of the birth of Robert Burns shaped the entertainment of the evening, a delightful program, consisting for the most part of the songs and verses of Scotland's immortal bard, rounding out an evening which was begun at bridge.

Among the Burns numbers were two songs, "My Love Is Like a Red, Red Rose," and "Ye Banks and Braes of Bonny Doon," by Mrs. J. R. Dickson, a reading of "Tam O'Shanter," by Mrs. Mary J. Lane, a vocal number, "Comin' Through the Rye," by Mrs. Roy Alexander, the reading of quotations and extracts from Burns writings by Mrs. Wilson D. McNary, and quartet selections, "O Wert Thou in a Cald Blast," and "Annie Laurie," by Mrs. Dickson, Mrs. Alexander, Frank B. Hayes and Willard Bond.

The latter part of the program was given by real sons and daughters of the native land of Burns. Jack Coleman, dressed in kilts, sang "The Scar of Bobby Burns," and "A Man's a Man for A' That," and for an encore sang Harry Lauder's "I Hae a Lassie." He also executed the historical sword dance of the Scots and with Annie Logan and Sandy Anderson sang "Flow Gently Sweet Afton" and "Scots Wha Hae," the battle song of their country. Mrs. Logan, Miss Nellie McDonald, and Messrs. Sandy Anderson and Tommy Robinson danced two Scotch reels to strains from Coleman's violin.

A Virginia reel was danced by all the guests late in the evening and "Auld Lang Syne" was sung as the party broke up.

Mrs. Ralph B. McEwen and young sons, Ralph and Edwin, came in this morning from their home near Athena, accompanying Mrs. McEwen's mother, Mrs. E. E. Goff, who is returning to Portland after an extended visit at the home of her daughter.

A very pleasant meeting of the W. H. M. S. of the M. E. church was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. W. Byers, 1201 E. Court street. After devotional services the following program was given:

Roll Call.
"In Red Man's Land," Chapter I, by Messrs. F. E. King, L. J. McAtee, Huston and D. B. Waffle.
Reading, "Hawatha's Childhood," by Mrs. Sam Jenkins.
Reading, "Hawatha's Wooling," by Mrs. James Chapman.

Solo by Miss Grace Oliver.
Business.
Three new members were received and Mrs. King's side was successful in the contest.

Announcements have been received by Pendleton friends of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Woodward of Adams of the birth of an eleven pound son to them in Walla Walla on January twenty-fourth. The little boy has been christened Don Adcock.

Cards are out for a two day at home on the afternoons of Tuesday and Wednesday of next week with Mrs. Thomas Thompson and Mrs. James Thompson as hostesses.

Miss Genevieve Coffey arrived at noon today to be the guest of Mrs. Royal M. Sawtelle for a few days en route to her home in Portland from St. Louis where she has been spending several months. Mrs. Sawtelle will accompany her on to Portland in a few days for a visit there.

The Elks will entertain this evening at a dancing party, their guests being the members of the cast of the recent minstrel show.

The Parent-Teacher association of the Lincoln school will meet Friday afternoon of this week at the school building at 3 o'clock and an interesting program has been arranged. All interested are invited to attend.

Mrs. Edna Gantt entertained Monday night at her home in Irvington in honor of her guests, Mrs. Helen Meech and Miss Ferne Steer, of Pendleton. The rooms were decorated with Oregon grapes and spring blossoms. Dancing and music were the diversions of the evening and an elaborate supper was served.—Portland Oregonian.

Miss Nettie Roulstone, Isaacs avenue, who has been spending the winter in Portland, arrived in Walla Walla this morning. Miss Roulstone will

KEEP YOUR CHILDREN STRONG
Some children catch one ailment after another, have colds after colds, while other children are seldom sick. If your children are pale or frail, if they catch colds easily, lack ambition or are backward in school, they need SCOTT'S EMULSION which is rich in the food elements to create good blood to strengthen their bodies and brains—SCOTT'S EMULSION is free from alcohol or habit forming drugs. CHILDREN RELISH IT. REFUSE SUBSTITUTES.

Mrs. J. N. Burgess entertained the Jolly Neighbors yesterday afternoon illness preventing Mrs. C. K. Cranston from entertaining them as originally planned. Honors were won by Mrs. Charles Greulich. Guests outside the club included Mrs. Thomas Thompson, Mrs. William Clark and Mrs. H. Hattery.

Why Let a Terrible Cough Hang On and Wear You Out?

Loosen Its Grip with that Wonderful Throat and Lung Medicine, Foley's Honey and Tar Compound.

Coughs that "hang on" mostly settle on the lungs, and they fairly eat the life out of you. They use up your strength, lower your vitality, and pave the way for serious lung and bronchial diseases.

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound leaves healing behind it as it glides down your throat. It covers raw, inflamed, irritated surfaces with a soothing healing coating. Stops the racking, tearing cough, and eases study wheezy breathing.

WILL G. ELLIOTT, Ingleswood, Cal., says: "FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR acts so well in harmony with nature, it is more like a food than a medicine."

E. J. SARGENT, Dallas, Texas, writes: "I had a terrible cough which would not describe. I spent much money and tried many kinds of treatment, but found nothing which would cure me. At last I tried FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR and it completely relieved me of all bad symptoms and my cough entirely disappeared."

For all coughs, colds, croup, bronchial affections, la grippe, coughs, throat and lung trouble, you will find it a medicine without a peer. Every good druggist is glad to sell it, for it gives satisfaction to his customers and contains no opiates. You cannot get a substitute to do for you what FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR will do. 25c, 50c, $1.00 sizes. *** EVERY USER IS A FRIEND.

STATE BRANDS BILL IS PASSED BY THE SENATE

FEES ARE PROVIDED FOR—RECORDS TO BE KEPT BY STATE VETERINARIAN.

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 27.—The senate passed senate bill 24, by Strayer, providing for the recording of all stock brands with the state veterinarian, instead of with county clerks.

Senator Strayer said the purpose of the bill was to prevent duplication of stock brands, and be an aid in exterminating cattle rustling in the eastern Oregon counties. It will also give official authority to the inspector maintained by the Oregon Cattle and Horse Growers' association at the Portland union stock yards.

It carries no appropriation, but provides that all fees collected may be retained by the state veterinarian as compensation for the extra work given him.

This was the only provision to which objection was made. Senator Day and Senator Bingham each expressed their disapproval. Senator Bingham said it would be returning to the old fee system, which he considered dangerous.

Senator Bingham withdrew senate bill 76, relating to the duties of school clerks. He stated that similar bills had been introduced in the house and he did not wish to display the discourtesy toward their authors as the house had displayed toward a bill introduced by Senator Dimick, which had been passed by the senate and, because a similar bill had been introduced in the house, was indefinitely postponed in the house.

Senator Bishop endeavored to get a reconsideration of the vote on house bill 12, which provides that food for domestic animals shall be classed as an item of family expense. The bill had been indefinitely postponed and the senate refused to authorize a suspension of rules for a reconsideration.

Consideration of the memorial to congress urging the passage of the Ferris bill, was put off until the amendments made to the bill by the United States senate can be obtained and printed.

SPORTS

SPORT DOPE.

BY HAL SHERIDAN.
NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Unless a hitch over the weight interference at the eleventh hour, Charley White, Chicago's sensational lightweight will get his second shot in two months at Freddie Welsh's lightweight crown. Welsh and White are booked for a ten round no-decision scrap at Madison Square Garden tonight.

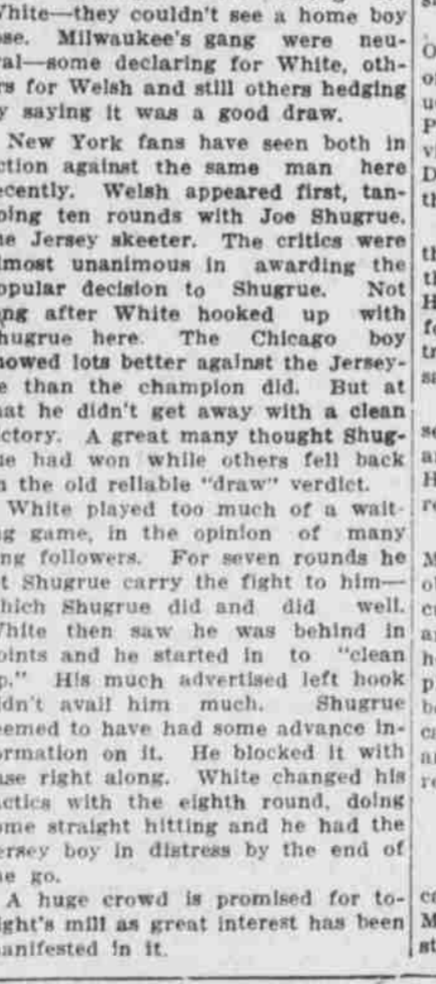

White and Welsh clashed in December over the same course at Milwaukee, Wis. The hometown critics and their brethren from Chicago who went up to see the mill were pretty well divided as to the outcome. Chicago's contingent were strong for White—they couldn't see a home boy lose. Milwaukee's gang were neutral—some declaring for White, others for Welsh and still others hedging by saying it was a good draw.

New York fans have seen both in action against the same man here recently. Welsh appeared first, tangoing ten rounds with Joe Shugrue, the Jersey skelter. The critics were almost unanimous in awarding the popular decision to Shugrue. Not long after White hooked up with Shugrue here. The Chicago boy showed lots better against the Jersey than the champion did. But at that he didn't get away with a clean victory. A great many thought Shugrue had won while others fell back on the old reliable "draw" verdict.

White played too much of a waiting game, in the opinion of many ring followers. For seven rounds he let Shugrue carry the fight to him—which Shugrue did and did well. White then saw he was behind in points and he started in to "clean up." His much advertised left hook didn't avail him much. Shugrue seemed to have had some advance information on it. He blocked it with ease right along. White changed his tactics with the eighth round, doing some straight hitting and he had the Jersey boy in distress by the end of the go.

A huge crowd is promised for tonight's mill as great interest has been manifested in it.

ECZEMA BROKE OUT ON FACE
Got Worse and Worse. Disfigured for Time Being. Caused Itching, Scratched and Irritated. Used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. Face Free from Eczema.

127 Emily St., Saginaw, Mich.—"Several months ago my face broke out with eczema. It got worse and worse; it was a sight, all red and bleeding. The eczema disfigured me for the time being. It caused much itching and of course, I scratched my face and irritated it."
"I took a treatment but it did not seem to help any. I used several kinds of salves and soaps and they did no good. My face began to get worse. My brother said to go to the drug store and get a cake of Cuticura Soap and some Cuticura Ointment which I did. I then washed my face with Cuticura Soap and applied the Cuticura Ointment and kept this treatment up for some time. After using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and the Cuticura Ointment my face was free from the eczema." (Signed) Ray L. O'Brien, June 18, '14.
