GREAT PLAY ON AT PASTIME.
"Girl I Left Behind Me" Opens Tomorrow for a Two-Day Run.
"The Girl I Left Behind Me," David Holasco's greatest success, comes to the Pastime theater tomorrow for a two-day run.

Robert Edeson, the star of many Broadway successes, is cast for the part of Lieutenant Hawksworth, the young army officer, who is the hero of the play. Mr. Edeson has a part well fitted to his exceptional ability, and the dashing, manly courage with which the young officer meets the many dangers and difficulties that confront him win him a place in the hearts of the spectator as well as the hero e. Claire Whitney, the beautiful and accomplished actress, plays the part of the heroine.

The story is a beautiful one of love, romance and adventure. The scenes are laid in and around a lonely frontier army post in the old Indian days and, in order that the vivid atmosphere of the piece be retained to the fullest extent, the entire company was sent to Fort Assiniboine, Montana.

There, amidst the rugged western scenery, with real cavalry troopers, with real Indians in all their picturesque surroundings, the scenes of the virile drama were enacted.

Not only is the acting superb, but it is seldom that such ideal surroundings can be obtained for a picture of this nature. Frontier life in the old Indian war days is portrayed vividly and some daring feats of riding by the Indians is seen on the screen.
