JANUARY 27.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30 .- Although he rapid changes in Mexican politics have brought the authority of General Carranza back to Mexico City once more, after a lapse of two months, the evacuation of the capital and redistribution of forces has resulted in no injury to foreigners, according to official reports thus far received,

Only meager advices have come to the state department of conditions in Southern Mexico, but it was established that General Obregon occupied Mexico City with 10,000 men loyal to Carranza; that Roque Gonzales Garza, temporary executive of the convention government, left the capital the reception awaiting her. The turned the 28th (Thursday), and that guests at the party were Mr. and January 27 for Cuenavaca, but reno information has been received as to his whereabouts subsequently.

Word Sent from Capital, Enrique C. Llorente, representative here of the convention government, said he received a message from General Ornelas, post commander at Juarez, saying he had been in telegraphic communication with Garza in Mexico City Thursday night.

The latest dispatches from Mexico City were summarized by the state department as follows: ,

"A report from Mexico City, dated January 29, 5 p. m. says that General Obregon occupied the city with about 10,000 men on the afternoon of the 28th at 2 p. m.
