

$75 for a Recipe

Tea Garden Syrup is used thousands of ways in cooking! We want the housewives of the Northwest to tell us how they use it for desserts, for preserving and crystallizing fruit, etc. For the best receipt received we will pay $75 in gold, and $25 for the second best. Send as many as you desire. Contest open until September 1st.

Tea Garden Syrup

is delicious and nutritive—it is far superior to and healthful for the children than all corn or glucose syrups.

Pelican Molasses

Is an open-kettle, genuine New Orleans molasses—strictly pure—the best on the market—costs more, but worth it.

CALIFORNIA VALLEY QUAIL LIBERATED IN VICINITY OF ECHO

LITTLE BLUE QUAIL ARE LET FREE BY COUNTY GAME WARDEN.

Beef Cattle Being Shipped From Echo to Market—Meeting at M. E. Church are Brought to Close After Successful Sessions—Other News Notes of the Town.

(Special Correspondence.)
ECHO, Ore., Feb. 11.—Edgar F. Averill, county game warden, was here yesterday with two crates of California valley quail, sometimes known as little blue quail, which he had just received from the state game farm at Corvallis. One crate of the birds, consisting of twelve pairs, were liberated on E. E. Elder's farm a short distance above Echo. The other crate was taken to the Page farm, some two miles east of Stanfield where the quails were liberated. The birds though full grown are smaller than a man's fist. They are very beautiful and every precaution will be taken to save them from the thoughtless hunter.

Fattened beef cattle are continually being shipped from this point. On last Saturday was the latest shipment consisting of thirteen cars. Of those, four cars each belonged to J. B. Saylor and R. B. Stanfield. Mr. Saylor shipped his to Seattle, while Mr. Stanfield sent his to the Portland market.

H. E. Moore and Sloan Thomson each sent two cars to Portland and Clarence Adams one to Seattle.

The protracted meetings which have been held here at the M. E. church for the past month were brought to a close on Tuesday evening. This is claimed to be the greatest meeting of the kind held here in the past seventeen years. There were 39 accessions to the local church.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rice and daughter Miss Zelma Porter left here on Wednesday morning for their old home at Brownsville, Ore. They have made this their home the past one and one-half years. Mr. Rice while here conducted a moving picture show. They made many friends here who will miss them greatly.

Mrs. F. M. Scrivner returned home yesterday from Seattle and other Washington points where she has been visiting.

R. B. Stanfield is visiting in Portland. He went down on last Saturday.

O. D. Teel is visiting at the state capitol, having gone down to watch the progress of a pet measure.

Dr. A. Rid of Stanfield was a business visitor here yesterday morning.

Mrs. Louis Scholl returned Tuesday evening from Wasco.

Mrs. C. A. Gilbert was a visitor in Umatilla on Tuesday.

Colds and Croup in Children.
Many people reply upon Chamberlain's Cough Remedy implicitly in cases of colds and croup, and it never disappoints them. Mrs. E. H. Thomas, Logansport, Ind., writes: "I have found Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best medicine for colds and croup I have ever used, and never tire of recommending it to my friends. I have always given it to my children when suffering from croup, and it has never failed to give them prompt relief." For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

HE REFUSED BATH; SHE WANTS DIVORCE

PITTSBURG, Feb. 10.—Mrs. Florence Welty, 26 and pretty wants a divorce from her husband, Harry S. Welty, 41, well-to-do butcher. Here are some of the alleged reasons:

Refusal to take a bath more than once in four months.

Refusal to provide enough kitchen utensils.

Refusal to provide food to cook.

GOVERNMENT TO LOOK INTO BUTTER MARKET

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Charles S. Brand, chief of office of markets, department of agriculture, in a letter to Senator Chamberlain, says investigation is to be made of Pacific coast butter markets, particularly with reference to market quotations and actual selling prices, and also as to the effect of cheaper butter from the antipodes on the market.

He says the department has no knowledge of a butter trust in Portland.

Policeman Arrests Self

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 10.—Policeman John L. Green placed himself under arrest for not having a 1915 license on his dog, when he found that John L. Green was among those upon whom he was ordered to serve warrants, sworn out by Poundmaster Boyd Welch. He guaranteed that he would be safe on his own recognizance and released himself, appearing in court later.

Upon his promise to secure a license at once, his case was continued for sentence.

Prosperity to Continue.

MANDAN, Feb. 11.—That the present prosperity will be continued for three years, was the statement today by John Cloud, a wrinkled old Sioux Indian of the Standing Rock reservation. He says that 1915, 1916 and 1917, will be wet years, followed by three dry years. Local persons are inclined to put considerable credence in the predictions of the Indians.

JOHNSON 245 POUNDS, TO CHARTER BOAT

BARBADOS, Feb. 10.—Jack Johnson, negro heavyweight champion of the world, arrived here en route to Juarez, Mexico, where he is scheduled to clash 45 rounds with Jess Willard March 6.

Johnson weighs 245 pounds but claims to be in good condition. He said he would attempt to charter a steamer here to complete his trip to Mexico.

Aid for Foe Not Discussed.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, refused in the house of commons to disclose the result of the investigation made by the admiralty into the report mentioned in the house by Gresham Stewart that German submarines operating in British waters had received fresh supplies of fuel oil from a vessel direct from a British port.

Mr. Churchill said it would not be in the public interest to make this known.

EVERY STREET IN PENDLETON.

Has Its Share of the Proof That Kidney Sufferers Seek.

Backache? Kidneys weak? Distressed with urinary ills? Want a reliable kidney remedy? Don't have to look far. Use what Pendleton people recommend. Every street in Pendleton has its cases.

Here's one man's experience.

Let S. P. Hutchinson, prop. West End Chop Mill, 1610 W. Webb St., tell it. He says, "I was caused a great deal of suffering by a dull pain in my back just over my kidneys. For a long time I didn't think it was caused by weak kidneys, but I often noticed that my kidneys were sluggish and that the kidney secretions did not pass freely. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved the pain in my back and trouble with the kidney secretions." (Statement given May 15, 1910.)

OVER TWO YEARS LATER Mr. Hutchinson said: "I still use Doan's Kidney Pills with very good results.

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Hutchinson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

CARNEGIE FAVORS LABOR DISPUTE ARBITRATION

NEW YORK CITY, Feb. 11.—Andrew Carnegie is again on record as favoring arbitration when capital and labor disagree. Appearing before the Federal Commission on Industrial Relations, he said all disputes should be settled by conferences, and that if he returned to the manufacturing business, he would settle all differences that might arise between himself and his employes by arbitration. He also suggested the institution of investment bureaus by corporations in which workmen could place their savings and receive generous interest.

Capitol Fumigated.

PHOENIX, Feb. 10.—While members of the Arizona legislature were held under an "honor quarantine" in a downtown hotel the capitol building is being fumigated and cleaned to prevent a further spread of smallpox if possible. Two members of the lower house were stricken today. Peter Munch, assistant chief clerk in the lower house was stricken this morning. His room mate is suspected of having the disease.
