Official information to this effect was given the United Press today. HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL TEAM IS BACK FROM TRIP

BOYS DISAPPOINTED BUT NOT DISCOURAGED OVER GAMES PLAYED.

Somewhat disappointed but not at all discouraged the high school basketball team has returned from their mountain trip to La Grande and Union where they spent three days engaging various teams in basketball. They failed to accomplish all that they were intending to, but never the less they succeeded in knocking one of their opponents out of the race for the championship, and in securing their chance for the cup.

Their first game was played with La Grande high school in that city and resulted in their defeat. The locals failed to get together in the game and lost out because of lack of team work. They were joined during the game by Coach Livingston who had come down on a later train.

At Union, the local team succeeded in defeating the high school of that city by the score of 24 to 22, which put Union out of the race.

Their third game was with the M. I. A. team of La Grande which resulted in the defeat of the locals, but did not interfere with the eastern Oregon race since the team was nonchalant.

The local boys are somewhat tired after their strenuous trip, but are whipping in to condition for a second game with the La Grande high school team, which will be played next Friday night in the gymnasium of the local high school.

A splendid reception was given in honor of the Pendleton team at La Grande after the game, and the boys state that their treatment while on the trip well worth appreciating.

The boys who represented the local high school are Emil Seibert, Fred Peters, captain, New Fowler, manager, Charles Gordon, Cap Mentzer, and Wesley Mimms. Coach Livingston accompanied them.

M. Griffin of Umatilla was up from that town yesterday.

BIWAKE YOUNG CRAIG IS SEVENTH VICTIM OF MARSHFIELD FIRE

MARSHFIELD, Ore., Feb. 19.—The death toll of the Smith mill boarding house fire was increased by the death of Byron Craig, 12-year-old son of the proprietor, who showed such great courage in his fight against suffering.

The dead now number seven. Several at the hospital are in a serious condition.

A coroner's jury is making an investigation of the fire and seeking testimony regarding the fire escapes and general arrangement of the building.

The property loss was about $10,000. The boarding house will probably not be replaced.

NEWS OF FARM AND RANGE

Complete Fruit Sales Board.—After taking an active part in the perfection of the new governing board to regulate prices of fruits produced by northwest fruitgrowers, Messrs. J. F. Slover, A. C. Denny and A. W. Simms returned Wednesday from Tacoma, where the meeting of heads of fruit selling concerns was held Monday.

W. P. Panthaus of Puyallup was named chairman of the board, with H. R. Butler of Hood River and a Spokane man as assistants. In addition there will be a board of advisers, composed of one representative from each of the 10 districts embraced.

A. W. Simms will represent the Walla Walla, Touchet and Grand Ronde valleys on this board.

It is proposed by the governing board to fix daily the minimum price at which fruits in carload lots or less can be offered. Fruit growers present at the Monday meeting believe the solution of demoralized markets can thus be discovered.—Milton Eagle.

To Discuss Range Conditions.—There will be an important meeting of the stockmen in Pilot Rock next Wednesday, February 24th. Thomas P. McKenna, assistant district forester of Portland, and W. W. Cryder, forest supervisor of Heppner, will meet the Blue Mountain Cattle Growers' association for a conference and general discussion on range conditions.

Some of the cattle growers have had difficulty in the past in keeping their stock from drifting on the sheep ranges. On this account a proposition will be made the government agents to put in "drift" fences between the allotments. The proposal is for the cattlemen to put up the fences and have the cost divided in ten equal payments and allowed on the rental charges of the government for ten years. In this manner the first cost to the government would not come in a lump sum, but would fall on the cattlemen. After the fence is installed the government to keep up its maintenance. The proposition is so liberal that it is thought there will be no difficulty in bringing it about. By so doing it will stop the range wars which have been a dark blot on the past.

Grout Growers Elect Officers.—At a special meeting of the Frigid growers' Union held Thursday evening, John Wallace was elected president, Miles Baragar, vice president, R. H. Irwin, treasurer and George Coe secretary. The bylaws of the union were again discussed but no action can be taken on them until the regular meeting which is to be held to night.—Stanfield Standard.

Pioneer Ditch Co. Elects.—At a regular meeting of the Pioneer Ditch Co. yesterday the following officers

STOCK COMPANY ENTERTAINS LARGE AUDIENCE AT OREGON

"BOUGHT AND PAID FOR" IS WELL ACTED BY GENEVA LOCKES COMPANY.

A well filled house last evening greeted the opening performance of the Geneva Lockes company at the Oregon theater and it was a genuinely enthusiastic audience that saw the very able presentation of "Bought and Paid For." Miss Lockes has gathered about her some very clever talent and, if she succeeds in pleasing the people each night as well as she did last night, her stay here will doubtless be a profitable one.

In Mason Wellington she has a leading man who is superior to stars who have been here in big road shows. He has a splendid presence, a good voice and the rare gift of interpreting his part naturally. Clifford Lancaster, who took the part of "Jimmie" last evening, is also a very able actor and comedian. Mr. Lancaster, William Mansfield and Morney Athey fill in the pauses between the acts with some very clever vaudeville specialties.

Miss Lockes herself plays the leading lady parts and, she not only does so with rare grace, but is doubly blessed in having the prettiness of face and figure that is essential in a leading lady.

The balance of her company, Morney Athey, Miss Frances Williamson and Miss Caroline Heft take care of the smaller parts very satisfactorily. Miss Lockes expects to have several additions to her company during her stay in Pendleton. She carries her own pianist and has retained members of the United Orchestra so that good music is assured to patrons of the theater.

The company will play "Bought and Paid For" tonight and tomorrow but will offer a new play, "A Domestic Blizard," Wednesday night.

During the play last evening each member of the company was presented to the audience and if any were recognized later on the streets and approached with a speech according to the formula announced, two tickets would be awarded.

NEW PRESBYTERIAN MINISTER SPEAKS ON "IDEAL CHURCH"

REV. SNYDER DELIVERS HIS FIRST SERMON YESTERDAY TO CONGREGATION.

Rev. J. E. Snyder, the new pastor of the First Presbyterian church, preached his first sermon yesterday morning upon "The Ideal Church."

He said among other things: "A man will never accomplish much in this world until he has an ideal, something to work up to. The successful farmer is the man who sets a mark and works to it. The successful business or professional man is the man who has a standard toward which he directs his energies."

So the successful church is the church with a definite aim and purpose toward which it directs its activities.

The ideal church must be Christian in all that the word Christian implies. Christ is the head of the church and the same spirit that is found in it must be found in all the activities of the church. If you rob Christ of his divinity you rob him of his authority. You bring him down upon a level with other great teachers. Christ was the Divine Son of God and he taught with divine authority. The successful church of today is the church that exalts Christ above all dogma and creed and makes his teaching the rule of its faith and practice. The ideal church is a spiritual church. God is a spirit and must be worshipped in spirit and in truth.

The ideal church must be evangelistic. It must have a large vision; it must look out and reach out toward the world's evangelization. This church must make its influence felt throughout the whole inland empire. It must touch every church in Pendleton, Presbytery.

Again, it must reach all classes of people whose lives have fallen in hard places. It must reach the laboring man, the wage earner and his family.

It must reach the wicked man, the man who swears and drinks and gambles.

The church must be big enough and broad enough and liberal enough to reach all classes and bring them into the warmth and fellowship of the Christ.

I have come to Pendleton in the prime of life. I am here to give you the best years of my life. I want your cooperation and we will build up a church that Pendleton will be proud of.
