Newsy Notes of Pendleton

An All Day Rain. A light rain has been falling most of the day in the city and county and is still further helping the farming communities.

Gun Club Shoot Postponed. On account of the rain yesterday, the Round-up Gun Club did not hold its scheduled shoot. Next Sunday morning, the weather permitting, a shoot will be held.

Bootlegging Cases Tomorrow. Jurors have been summoned for the short session of the circuit court which will commence tomorrow for the purpose of trying alleged bootleggers to Indiana. George Fletcher, colored cowboy, will be the first to come up for trial.

Body Shipped to La Grande. The body of J. C. Hetzle, who died Saturday at the Eastern Oregon State Hospital, was shipped today to La Grande where relatives live. Deceased was 48 years old. Death was due to general paresis. He was a member of the Masonic lodge and of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Child Has Pneumonia. The five year old son of C. D. Zehrung is ill at the family home on Calvin street with pneumonia. This is the same child that drank some lye by accident two or three years ago and the stricture in the esophagus caused by the lye complicates the attack of pneumonia, according to Dr. Guy Boyden who was called to attend the child.

Opens Piano Business. B. L. Bishop, wholesale representative for Kohler & Chase has been in Pendleton for the past week and has concluded a deal whereby John S. Baker, local furniture dealer, has become local representative for the handling of the Kohler & Chase goods. Kohler & Chase propose to make Pendleton their distributing point for this great section. The stock to be carried here will consist of pianos and player pianos.

Another Bootlegger Caught. Charged with furnishing alcohol to Charley Whirlwind, well known Indian, Manuel Martinez, a Mexican, was picked up by the police department yesterday. John Jurdies, a frequent offender, was also arrested for being drunk and George Barnett, an alleged pickpocket, was picked up on suspicion. Today being a holiday, these cases will not come up until tomorrow.

Furnish Sells Farm Land. By a deed recorded Saturday afternoon, W. J. Furnish, who recently disposed of a great deal of his land and interests in the west end of the county, has disposed of still more of his holdings in this county. Elmer Pell, well known farmer, has purchased from him for $21,500, 490 acres of farm land lying between Despain Gulch and North Cold Springs. The land is described as the se. 1-4 of sec. 19, the se. 1-4 of sec. 11 and the w. 1-2 of the w. 1-2 or sec. 14, and ten acres in sec. 15, twp. 4 N., R. 31.

Many Attend Clopton Funeral. Church of the Redeemer was yesterday afternoon filled with friends of the late Mrs. Frank B. Clopton, who died in Portland last week following an extended illness. The funeral was held at 2:30 o'clock, Bishop R. E. Paddock and Rev. Charles Quinney conducting the Episcopal burial services. Bishop Paddock departed from the routine of the service by making some personal remarks about the life and character of the deceased, his friendship with Mrs. Clopton during her life prompting him to this action. Following the funeral the body was taken to Olney cemetery where it was interred beside the grave of Mr. Clopton whose death preceded that of his wife by nearly a decade.

Big Fish Caught. W. D. Humphrey and F. E. Welch returned last Friday from a fishing trip to Umatilla, bringing with them three fine steelhead salmon. The fish were caught in the Umatilla between Hermiston and Umatilla. Two of the big fish measured 26 inches and one measured 22 inches. The day before Earl Kirkpatrick caught one measuring 32 inches and weighing ten pounds while C. K. Cranston caught one weighing three pounds. The run of steelheads entered the lower river several days ago and conditions for angling there are said to be good. More than a score of the big fish have been caught within the last week and several times many have been hooked and escaped. All of the fish have been taken on the light regulation trout tackle which has greatly increased the sport.

AGED MAN AT LA GRANDE WANTS TO GO TO PRISON

LOCAL OFFICE BELIEVES MAN IS SAME WHO GOT SENTENCED FROM HERE.

LA GRANDE, Ore., Feb. 22.—Christopher Sears, 67 year of age, with the white of the passing years showing prominently on his hoary head, is ready to quit the struggle entailed by the battle of life and wants to go to jail to put in the remainder of his days or as many of them as the judgment of the court may see fit to impose upon him. Sears was arrested Thursday night on a larceny charge and Saturday afternoon, when arraigned in Justice Williams court, was bound over to the grand jury. When placed in the county jail to await the action of the jury he asked Sheriff Hug if it would be possible to forgo the usual formalities of court procedure and pass sentence upon him at once so that he can begin serving a term in the penitentiary. He has served one term in the state institution, being sent up from Pendleton for stealing a horse for which he served a year. He is apparently alone in the world and has been making his living by such day labor as a man of his advanced age could pick up. He will have to await the action of the grand jury and the regular procedure of the circuit court.

Deputy Sheriff Estes stated this afternoon that he believed the man is the same known on the local records as Harry Sayres who was sent up from here in 1906 for one year on a charge of larceny of a horse. The description fits him and the similarity of the names is another circumstance giving color to his belief.

ODD FELLOWS PROGRAM FOR CONVENTION IS ARRANGED MEETING WILL TAKE PLACE AT WESTON ON THURSDAY OF THIS WEEK.

A full day and a profitable one for Odd Fellows of Umatilla county is promised for Thursday of this week when the district convention will be held at Weston. A program, commencing at 9:30 with an address of welcome by Pres. S. A. Barnes and ending with a banquet late at night, will keep the hundreds of delegates fully occupied throughout the day. Weston is making big preparations for entertaining the visiting Odd Fellows and has rented the theater for the occasion. Grand Master William Galloway will be present and in all probability Grand Master Kellough of Washington. The officers of the district convention besides S. A. Barnes, president, are W. T. Reeves of Echo, vice president; G. W. Bradley of Pendleton, treasurer, and George P. Sanderson of Freewater, secretary. J. S. Norvell of Helix, Joe Bailey of Echo and Henry Groth of Milton, have been selected as judges of the competitive drill by the teams of Integrity lodge, Pendleton, the Freewater and Weston lodges. The following is the complete program: 9:30 a. m.—Address of welcome, President S. A. Barnes, P. G.; response, J. S. Norvell, P. G. 10 a. m.—Roll call, general business, reports from all lodges in the county. 1:30 p. m.—General business con-
