Many are Affected by the Failure of Insurance Company

12,000 POLICYHOLDERS WILL SUFFER FROM RECEIVERSHIP.
SALEM, Ore., March 3.—That approximately 12,000 policyholders are affected by the receivership proceedings in the case of Horticultural Fire Relief association, was the statement of Insurance Commissioner Harvey Wells, who late yesterday was appointed receiver by Judge Galloway. Whether they can be forced to make good the debts of the mutual concern is a matter that will probably be threshed out in the courts.
Commissioner Wells took occasion to deny that the Pacific States Insurance company has reinsured policyholders of the Horticultural, Oregon Merchants' Mutual and Pacific Home. The Pacific States merely made the proposition that if it could be placed in possession of the information regarding the existing policies of the company it would agree to pay to the receiver 10 per cent of the premiums it might write replacing any of the business, he says.
The court made an order accepting this proposition. Wells points out that it is optional with policyholders in what company they reinsure.

Shrapnel Order Coming.
PITTSBURG, March 3.—Negotiations are in progress between the Russian government and a large machine company here which will likely result in a contract for $10,000,000 worth of war munitions.
Shrapnel shells form the principal part of the order, and, as special machinery is required to make some sizes the company has asked Russia to deposit $1,000,000 in bank to indemnify it should the machines become useless by reason of a sudden termination of hostilities. The company is now working on several large orders of similar character.

♦ NOT GEOGRAPHICALLY CORRECT, STILL CORRECT ♦♦♦♦♦
Because he gave a political answer to a question asked in a geography class, a seven-year-old pupil in the Hawthorn school had to stand in a corner for a brief period.
"Johnny," said the teacher to the youngster whose name, by the way, is not Johnny, "what do you know about Oregon?"
Johnny was much more versed in the recent political history of this state than in its geographical characteristics. His answer was very prompt and terse.
"Oregon's gone dry," he said.

LIVESTOCK IN UNITED STATES INCREASE BY OVER A MILLION HEAD

DESPITE RAVAGES OF FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE LARGE GROWTH SHOWN.

Meat at 50 Cents a Pound and Shoes at $10 a Pair Are Further Away Than Ever, According to Department of Agriculture—Swine Increases Nearly 6,000,000.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Meat at 50 cents a pound and shoes at $10 a pair are further away than ever, the department of agriculture announces, for the reason that for the first time in many years all classes of livestock in the United States are increasing in numbers.

Despite the ravages of foot-and-mouth disease, the number of beef cattle increased by nearly a million and a quarter, or 3.4 per cent, last year after declining steadily ever since 1910. There were half a million more milk cows on January 1 than a year ago. Swine increased nearly 6,000,000, or more than nine per cent. In the fact of the exportation of horses to the allies, these animals increased 233,000 head, and there is no reason to fear a shortage of horses, says the department. The increasing use of autos took the average price of horses down to $6 and mules down $11.50 during the year.

Importation of hides showed a falling off. "There is, however," says the department, "little reason to suppose this decrease will be permanent or of sufficient importance to create any real scarcity. Since the great bulk of the imported hides come from countries now at war, shipments are not interfered with in any way, and the only new factor to be considered is the possibility of an increased demand by the warring countries."
"It is believed," the department continues, "that the United States is in better condition to face such a situation than for years past. The tide, it seems, has turned. Instead of livestock steadily decreasing year after year, this year, for the first time, all classes show an appreciable increase, including horses, mules, milk cows, beef cattle, sheep and swine, there were on January 1, 1915, 7,112,000 more farm animals in the United States than on January 1, 1914. The increase in the total value was $78,014,000 or 1.3 per cent. It is quite true that this increase is not yet proportional to the increase in population, which is approximately 2 per cent; but the fact that there is an increase, that the tide seems definitely turned, is regarded as a sufficient answer to alarming exaggerations and misleading figures."

Asiatic exclusion should not be applied to Chinese trees, says the department of agriculture. These trees thrive in the United States for the reason that the climate of eastern China is about the same as eastern United States. The department advises importation of the Chinese material which is a particularly ornamental shade tree. Chinese peaches, quinces, hazelnuts and holly, will take an important place in the American market if the trees and bushes are imported and planted in accordance with the department's advice, it is stated.

Holiday apple eating fell off last year and dealers have large cold storage holdings on their hands, the department of agriculture announces. "A regular, vigorous movement throughout the remainder of the season may be necessary to prevent disaster in the spring," says the department. "Growers and dealers are urged neither to dump their holdings nor to stand for arbitrarily high prices. Panicky selling usually means grief, but all concerned should seek to move cold storage apples gradually and with such rapidity as the market allows, so that the deal may be wound up in relatively good shape."

When the opportunity arrives to be a hero a man is usually sound asleep.
