Street Called Wilson.
LONDON, March 19.—The decision of the municipal authorities of Louvain, Belgium, to give American names to certain streets in the city, is set forth in a formal resolution of thanks which was adopted on Washington's birthday by the burgomaster and aldermen of Louvain and sent to the American commission for relief in Belgium. The resolution concluded:

"The cradle of a university of five centuries' standing and today herself partly in ruins, the city of Louvain cannot fail to associate with the memory of Washington one of the greatest captains. The name of the learned professor whose admirable precepts and high political attainments, as also his firmness of character and dignity of life, all contributed to carry him successively to the presidency of Princeton University, the governorship of New Jersey and, finally, the presidency of the United States.

"In order to perpetuate to future generations remembrances of these sentiments and our ardent gratitude the burgomaster and aldermen have decided this day in the new parts of the city, as they rise out of the ruins, three streets or squares shall receive the illustrious names of President Wilson, Washington and American Nation."

NEWS OF FARM AND RANGE

SHEPHERDS OF OREGON AND IDAHO TO MEET AT BAKER APRIL 1-2

Thorough Organization Will Be Made in Order to Get Best Results Out of the Present Market Conditions.
Sheepmen of Oregon and Idaho are to hold a big get-together meeting at Baker on April 1 and 2 for the purpose of organizing thoroughly to get the best results out of the present market conditions. This is the substance of a letter received this morning by the Pendleton Commercial cial association from R. G. Miles of the Baker Commercial Club.

"Owing to the present unsettled condition of the sheep industry," he writes, "a number of prominent sheepmen have decided to secure the cooperation of the Oregon and Idaho growers' associations and to hold a big get-together meeting in this city on April 1 and 2, to discuss the various phases of the industry and the conditions as they now exist."

"With the price of wool and sheep climbing the growers have a wonderful opportunity and should be thoroughly organized and in active cooperation to secure the best results. This meeting should be largely attended as it will give the grower an opportunity to meet the buyer and to better inform himself on the unusual conditions of the industry. It is planned to have prominent speakers present and to close the second day with a banquet."

The man who doesn't secure the services of that great teacher, experience, may live to a green old age.

The Bachelor's Club of the high school last night gave its second and last semi-annual banquet at the home of Mrs. C. L. Crockatt. An excellent time was enjoyed during the course of the evening, in various ways. Singing and music were prominent during the early part of the evening while the guests were gathering and later the visitors broke up into parties for a general hour of cards. A short voluntary program of singing, comic reading and general fun making was given by the members of the club, and then all gathered about the banquet table. Toasts and anecdotes were given by the banqueters, which kept the company in a whirl of merriment throughout the evening. The rooms and tables were decorated with the Bachelor Club colors.

The mantle of charity covers a lot of amateur theatrical performances.
