LOCALS & Advertising in Brief

Newspaper Delivery

A newspaper delivery boy was killed in a tragic accident while riding his bicycle. Details are forthcoming.

Oregon Theatre

Tuesday, April 6th.

The Season's Supreme Musical Event.

Pendleton's famous opera company, led by John C. Fisher's Production of the Big HUB: Musical Comedy Gang.

ZOE BARNETT

10 MODERN DANCERS | THE | 23 MUSICAL NUMBERS

RED ROSE

Orchestra and chorus under the direction of the great Zenith Borelli.

Hear the splendid company, including Zoe Barnett, Wilfred Yeates, Albert Lipton, Grace Cornett, and others.

FOXY DAY AT EXPO FITTINGLY OBSERVED

SAN FRANCISCO, April 5th—To mark the opening of the Exposition, the organizers of the World's Fair held a special celebration.

CITIES TO PAY FOR NECESSARY FIRE CALLS

TULSA, March 31st—The city council has voted to pay for necessary fire calls.

DALLAS IS BUILDING NEW LABOR TEMPLE

The city council has approved the construction of a new labor temple for the workers of the city.

UNIFORMS ENDORSED FOR H. S. SCHOOL

The school board has endorsed the use of uniforms for the students of the high school.

THE BUTCHER'S BRIDE

L. K. O'MALLEY

EDNA MORRISON

"Her Adopted Mother"

SPECIAL FOR THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

$3.00 will be paid by the Universal Film Co. to the moving picture patron who suggests the best title for the latest photo play with a name which will be shown here Thursday and Friday.

VISIT

Our store and showroom are open with a large stock of all the latest in fashion, quality, and comfort. Visit us soon.

SPARROWS

The Sparrows are back in town! Enjoy their delightful singing. Visit them at the Sparrows' Nest, next to the park.

EIGHT PAGE

DAILY EASTERN OREGONIAN. PENDLETON, OREGON. TUESDAY, MARCH 30, 1915. PAGE FIVE.